Kauffman Stadium

The Kansas City Royals will celebrate their 44th season at Kauffman Stadium in 2016. Kauffman has always been one of the crown jewel ballparks of Major League Baseball. Having hosted 77,054,254 fans since 1973, "The K" with its signature look, has proudly stood the test of time.

The Royals drew a franchise record 2.7 million fans to Kauffman Stadium during the 2015 regular season. The park once again played host to the World Series as over the past four seasons, "The K" has been showcased at the 2012 All-Star Game and a total of six games during the 2014 and 2015 Fall Classic.

After years of planning and design, the Royals unveiled an exciting $250 million renovation of a true Kansas City landmark prior to the 2009 season. Visitors enjoy an improved Kauffman Stadium experience with unsurpassed amenities and state-of-the-art technology that touch each and every fan entering the park.

After debuting the spectacular 84' x 104' Crown Vision HD scoreboard for the 2008 season, the Royals put the finishing touches on one of the most majestic and visually exciting scoreboards in the world with a brand-new interactive crown rising about 40 feet above Crown Vision.

Upon entering through the larger and grander entrances, fans have a chance to explore the stadium via a 360-degree expanded concourse while still keeping tabs on the action on the field. An increase in both concessions and restrooms limit the time spent away from your seats.

The Outfield Experience provides the fans of Kansas City entertainment for all ages. In addition, the views of the field are spectacular and give fans several brand-new locations to take in a game. Unveiled in 2012 was the largest in-stadium solar array in MLB as part of an energy partnership with KCP&L. The 120 panels on the Outfield Experience canopy provide approximately 36,000 kWh of renewable energy each year.

The outfield overhaul now gives Royals fans a chance to sit and enjoy the game from a venue not previously offered. The Outfield Box seats in left-center field sit directly behind the outfield wall and in front of the world-famous fountains. Those seats hug the Miller Lite Fountain Bar, which is built on the old JumboTron base.

In front of the fountains in left-center are the Sonic Slam seats. Right-center field offers a "standing room only" area between the outfield wall and the fountains, called the Pepsi Party Porch. This area has become among the most popular on hot summer days and nights since, at times, they are in the "splash zone" of the fountains powered by Grundfos.

The left-field area is home to the 7,000-square foot Royals Hall of Fame, presented by Commerce Bank, which opened in 2009. The Hall of Fame features numerous exciting and interactive exhibits as well as memorabilia that will delight Royals fans. Behind the Hall of Fame, fans will find the kids area complete with the Little K with a field turf surface. In addition, there is state-of-the-art batting and pitching cages, the New Era Cap Store, five holes of mini-golf at the Sluggerr's Putt-Putt, a Royals-themed carousel, the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Base Run and several kids-friendly food options, including Belfonte's Ice Cream Shop.

Also in left field this season will be the set for the Royals' official pre- and post-game show, Royals Live on FOX Sports Kansas City. Throughout the season, broadcasters Joel Goldberg and Jeff Montgomery will host shows from this set.

Fans move along the outfield "Walk of Fame" toward Sweet Baby Rays BBQ and the Rivals restaurant in right field, which boasts The 360 Baseline Bar and the Budweiser Patio.

The second level of the stadium houses new Dugout concourses, concessions and restrooms.

The third level, or ground level of the stadium, features wider concourses, fan amenities, the Kia Diamond Club premium seating area and 5,000-square foot retail store.

The Loge Level has several suite options to fit any budget while the Hy-Vee Level has been completely renovated to include wider concourses, a food court, new concessions, new restrooms and a retail store.

The new Kauffman Stadium has become a breathtaking fusion of energetic surroundings and an intimate place to watch Royals Baseball.

THE HISTORY OF KAUFFMAN STADIUM

Opened as Royals Stadium on April 10, 1973, Kauffman is recognized throughout baseball as one of the game's most beautiful ballparks. Since then, many exciting games have been contested, including the 1973 and 2012 All-Star Games, three no-hitters, playoff games in 1976, '77, '78, '80, '81, '84, '85, 2014 and '15, with 13 World Series tilts in 1980, 1985, 2014 and last season. The facility was officially renamed in honor of Ewing M. Kauffman in a ceremony at the stadium on July 2, 1993.

Before the 2004 season, the outfield fences in the gaps and in straight-away center field were moved back 10 feet to their original dimensions of 387 and 410, respectively, making Kauffman Stadium one of the most spacious parks in Major League Baseball. In addition, the warning track was changed to a natural surface, and the height of the fence is now at eight feet. The fences were moved in 10 feet from bullpen to bullpen prior to the 1995 season and lowered from 12 feet to nine feet. Also at that time, a grass playing field replaced the artificial surface at Kauffman Stadium.

Kauffman Stadium's unique features include a 322-foot wide water spectacular. The water spectacular is the largest privately funded fountain in the world. In keeping with the architecture of the stadium, the existing water spectacular featuring cascading water now extends near the left field corner.

Prior to the 1999 campaign, additional field level seating, known as "Crown Seats" and four dugout suites were added.

The renaming of the stadium was appropriate in that it was the strength and integrity of Ewing M. Kauffman's ownership that provided the cornerstone for the Royals success. Kauffman purchased the club as an expansion franchise in 1968 with the primary and continuous motivation of providing winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citians.

Kauffman, who founded Marion Laboratories in his mother's basement and built it into a diversified health care company with sales reaching nearly one billion dollars, possessed a sense of daring and an innate ability to motivate those around him. "Mr. K" also gave much personal attention to the Kansas City community, an important philosophy that was inbred into the Royals' organization and still remains today.

Among the awards Mr. Kauffman won for his leadership include the Kansas City Press Club's 1973 Man of the Year, an induction into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame and being named one of 20 finalists for enshrinement in the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008. Mr. K passed away on August 1, 1993.

In the Community

In addition to the excitement on the field, the Royals also enjoyed a thrilling season off the field in 2015 with extensive community outreach programs and record-breaking fundraising and giving levels from the team's foundation, Royals Charities. Created in 2001, Royals Charities supports children, education, youth baseball/softball and military efforts in and around the Kansas City area. Under the leadership of the Glass family, Royals Charities donated $1.5 million in grants to 122 nonprofit organizations in 2015 and more than $10.5 million since its inception.

Below is a sampling of the club's signature community and charitable programs. For more information, please visit royals.com/community or call (816) 921-8000.

BUCK O'NEIL LEGACY SEAT PROGRAM

The Royals continue to honor the late Buck O'Neil through the Buck O'Neil Legacy Seat program. For each 2016 home game, the Royals select a deserving individual to sit in the seat where Buck sat for many years as a fan and scout for the club. FOX Sports Kansas City features the honorees during home broadcasts. To nominate a Legacy Seat honoree, visit royals.com/buckseat

MILITARY

The Kansas City Royals are proud to support the men and women of the armed forces through various events and programs throughout the season. For the fifth season, the club will honor a member of the military each game in the Our Heroes Seat presented by Budweiser. To nominate someone to sit in the seat, please visit www.royals.com/ourheroes. For more information on our military programs and events, visit www.royals.com/military.

GRANTS/ROYALTY FIELDS

Royals Charities provides two types of grant funding. Nonprofit organizations in the Kansas City area that support children, education, or the military can apply for a general grant during the spring or fall application period. For information on how to do that, please visit www.royals.com/grants. In addition, Royals Charities provides financial support to help improve baseball and softball facilities across a seven state region in the Midwest. Support for field renovation focuses on basic field needs like sod, infield repair, dugouts, and fencing. To apply for this type of funding, visit www.royals.com/royaltyfields.

ROYALS FANFEST/TROPHY TOUR

The Royals welcomed more than 25,000 fans to Royals FanFest in January, 2016. In addition, the Royals embarked on a Trophy Tour as the Commissioner's Trophy visited sites throughout the Midwest, continuing a tradition that began in 1968.

50/50 RAFFLE

An in-stadium fundraiser from Royals Charities in which a lucky fan can win big! Presented by Edelman & Thompson, staff sell raffle tickets during each home game. One winner takes home half of the game's net proceeds, and the other half benefits Royals Charities.

DAVID GLASS CHAIRMAN/OWNER

David Glass enters his 17th season as Owner and Chief Executive Officer of the Kansas City Royals. In 1993, Glass was appointed interim chairman and Chief Executive Officer upon the passing of Ewing Kauffman. In April, 2000, his family acquired the Royals organization, where he continues to serve in the same capacity.

In 2015, the Royals captured the franchise's first World Series Championship in 30 years, electrifying the community and Kansas City fans all over the World.

During his ownership, Mr. Glass has been an active member of Major League Baseball and serves on several key committees which include the Executive Council of Major League Baseball, MLB.com and Baseball Enterprises. He was elected in July, 2000, to the Board of Directors of the Baseball Hall of Fame where he serves as a member of the Pension Committee. In addition, he was named Chairman of MLB Advanced Media on November 10, 2010.

Prior to acquiring the Royals, Mr. Glass spent 25 years with Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., serving as president and chief executive officer for 12 years and earning the reputation as one of the nation's premier executives. Under Glass' stewardship, he was credited with leading Wal-Mart through a period of unprecedented growth and becoming the nation's largest retailer with stores, supercenters and Sam's Clubs throughout the United States and internationally.

As a leader in the retail industry, Mr. Glass has been recognized with numerous awards throughout the years and was inducted into the Retail Hall of Fame in August, 2000. He served as a member of the Wal-Mart Board of Directors until 2011.

A native of Mountain View, Mo., Mr. Glass earned a business degree from Missouri State University. Currently, the College of Business is named David D. Glass Hall in honor of his dedication to the university. He and his family continue to support higher education as well as several other charitable interests.

Mr. Glass and his wife, Ruth, are the parents of three children, who also serve on the Royals Board of Directors, and have six grandchildren.

Royals Owner/CEO David Glass holds the Commissioner's Trophy, celebrating the 2015 World Series championship with manager Ned Yost.

DAN GLASS TEAM PRESIDENT

Dan Glass is in his 17th season as President of the Kansas City Royals and is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Royals organization.

In 2014, the Royals were recognized by Baseball America, earning the prestigious "Organization of the Year" Award for just the second time in franchise history, while reaching the World Series for the first time in 29 years. The club took it a step farther in 2015, winning their second World Championship and first since 1985.

Mr. Glass first joined the Royals in 1993 as a Baseball Operations Assistant and was named Assistant Director of Player Personnel three years later. Mr. Glass also assisted Major League Scouting and Player Development operations. His responsibilities included the development of the Latin American program, negotiations of player contracts, arbitration preparation and budget oversight.

DAYTON MOORE

SENIOR VP-BASEBALL OPERATIONS/GENERAL MANAGER

Dayton Moore is in his 10th full season with the Kansas City Royals, being named Senior Vice President-Baseball Operations/General Manager on May 30, 2006. He officially assumed his duties, becoming the sixth general manager in franchise history, on June 8, 2006.

From day one, the goal Moore set out to accomplish was bringing a World Championship back to Kansas City, a dream that was brought to fruition in 2015. The Royals bested the New York Mets in five games to win the franchise's first World Series championship in 30 years. The club became just the fourth since 2000 to reach the Fall Classic in back-to-back seasons after coming up just short of a title in 2014.

The 2015 season was one for the ages as Kansas City stormed to its first American League Central crown, winning an A.L.-best 95 games, their highest total since 1980. The club became just the second in Major League history to improve its win total in six-straight seasons. Along the way, the Royals set records in attendance, drawing 2.7 million fans to their 81 home games; local television viewership, recording an MLB-best 12.3 household rating during the 2015 season; and All-Star selections, sending seven players to the Midsummer Classic in Cincinnati, including four position players who were named starters.

For his part in the success during the 2015 season, Moore was honored with the Esurance MLB Award for the Best Executive. It marked the second-straight season that the Royals' GM earned the honor.

Keeping homegrown talent has been key to the Royals' success, as half of KC's 2015 postseason roster played at least one full season in the club's minor league system, while 11 of those players were either drafted by the Royals or signed as non-drafted free agents. Since joining the franchise in 2006, Moore and his staff have tirelessly worked to build a consistently strong farm system that was rated by Baseball America, MLB.com and ESPN.com as the best in baseball in 2011. The entire operation was honored in 2014 as the 'Organization of the Year' by Baseball America, marking just the second time the franchise has won since the publication debuted the award in 1982.

Moore's tenure in Kansas City has been one of the most successful runs in franchise history as the Royals have boasted 12 Rawlings Gold Glove Awards, 20 All-Star Game selections, two Louisville Silver Sluggers and a Cy Young Award winner in his first 10 seasons. Over the past three seasons, the Royals have won more games (270) than any other American League club, while their .556 winning percentage is fourth-highest in the Majors in that span.

Moore, a native of Wichita, Kan., brought an impressive resume to the Royals in 2006. He had previously worked for the Atlanta Braves organization since 1994, most recently serving as Assistant General Manager/Baseball Operations since August, 2005.

Prior to his tenure as Assistant General Manager with Atlanta, Moore served three years as Director of Player Personnel where he was responsible for overseeing all aspects of scouting and player development. He originally joined the Braves organization as an area scouting supervisor and was promoted to the front office in August, 1996 as an assistant in the baseball operations department. Moore was named Assistant Director of Scouting in November of 1996 and added the title of Assistant Director of Player Development in 1999. He was promoted to Director of International Scouting during the 2000 season and earned a promotion to Director of Player Personnel in 2002.

Moore was presented by the Atlanta Braves 400 Club with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" Award, given to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" in February 2006. He was also awarded the 2005 Executive of the Year by the Mid-Atlantic Scouts Association. He was named by Baseball America in 2005 as one of the Top 10 Up-and-Coming Power Brokers in Major League Baseball and in 2004, was named the top general manager prospect by the same publication.

Moore played a key role in a majority of the Braves' string of 14-straight division titles. Under the leadership of former Braves and Royals General Manager John Schuerholz, the Braves earned the prestigious 'Organization of the Year' Award from Baseball America several times, including 2005, when 18 rookies contributed to a team that posted 90 wins. The Braves won at least 100 games five times between 1997-2003 and had not won fewer than 88 games in any non-strike shortened season since 1990 prior to the 2006 season.

Prior to joining the Braves' organization, Moore served as an assistant baseball coach at George Mason University from 1990-94. While working on a graduate degree at GMU, Moore also managed the Winchester Royals of the Shenandoah Valley League from 1991-93.

A leader in the Kansas City community, Moore is a regular speaker at numerous community events each year. In 2013, Moore started the "C" You In the Major Leagues Foundation. It was created to support youth baseball, education, families in crisis and faith-based programs and organizations.

Moore was a member of the Board of Directors of the NAIAs Champions of Character program from 2007-10. The program instills an understanding of character values in sport and provides practical tools for student-athletes, coaches and parents to use in modeling exemplary character traits. Following the 2014 season, Moore was named the Kansan of the Year by the Native Sons and Daughters of Kansas, elected to the Kansas Baseball Hall of Fame and tabbed the Alumnus of the Year at George Mason University. He was also named the "Executive of the Year" by the Kansas City Sports Commission.

Moore and his wife, Marianne, are proud to be involved with the City Union Mission of Kansas City including their service as co-chairs of the Women Who've Changed the Heart of the City banquet in 2011 and 2012.

Moore graduated from George Mason in 1989 with a degree in physical education and health. Three years later, he earned his master's degree in athletic administration from GMU. He resides in Leawood, Kan., with his wife, Marianne, two daughters, Ashley and Avery, and son, Robert.

KEVIN UHLICH

SENIOR VP-BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Kevin Uhlich is in his 10th season in Kansas City after being named the Royals Senior Vice President-Business Operations on November 7, 2006. Uhlich has 39 years of professional baseball experience, which started as a barboy for the then-California Angels in 1976. Prior to joining the Royals, Uhlich served most recently as Executive Vice President for the Washington Nationals during their start-up in 2005 and 2006. He oversees the entire business side of the Royals' organization and specifically spearheaded the $275M renovation of Kauffman Stadium, which was completed for the 2009 season. Uhlich also led the complete renovation of the Royals' winter home in Surprise, Ariz. which was completed in February, 2016.

Uhlich headed the Club's efforts in obtaining, planning and executing the 83rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game played in Kansas City in 2012. He was also instrumental in leading the planning efforts during the 2014 and 2015 postseasons, including the first World Series games at Kauffman Stadium in 29 years.

Prior to his tenure with the Nationals, Uhlich spent 28 seasons in the Los Angeles Angels organization where he worked his way through the Angels organization, serving as Vice President of Stadium Operations and Vice President of Sales, Marketing and Operations. He was then named the club's Senior Vice President of Business Operations in 2002, the same season the Angels won their first World Series title.

During his time with the Angels, Uhlich directed the $140 million renovation of Anaheim Stadium on behalf of Disney Sports Inc. that was completed in 1998 while the team was owned by the Walt Disney Company. Uhlich later changed the Angels' brand identity to southern California's only "red team;" a branding strategy which more than a decade and a half later still dominates the geographic area.

He joined the Washington Nationals organization as their first Executive Vice President as the club made the historic move from Montreal to Washington, D.C., prior to the 2005 season. He assembled the club's entire business organization in just 45 days while also supervising a renovation of RFK Stadium leading up to the inaugural game. During the first two years, while the club was owned by Major League Baseball, Uhlich continued to lead the business efforts as the Nationals transitioned to the new Lerner family ownership group. During his tenure in Washington, he also was instrumental in the design and planning for Nationals Park in Washington, D.C., which opened prior to the 2008 season.

Uhlich and his wife, Juanita, have twin boys, Chase and Cody, and a daughter, Katie. They reside in Overland Park, Kan.

Royals Officers

BEN AKEN*VICE PRESIDENT-COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Ben Aken was named Vice President of Community Relations on January 7, 2016, and will oversee the Royals' Community Relations Department, which includes Royals Charities. In 2015, Royals Charities experienced unprecedented success as the group raised $1.5 million, which it distributed to 122 organizations and governmental entities in the Kansas City area that support children, education, youth baseball/softball and the military.

Aken is in his 17th season with the Royals, having most recently served as the Senior Director-Community Relations for the past seven years. He joined the club in 2000 as an intern and has served in various capacities in the Community Relations Department.

Highlights of his time include helping several players earn national charitable outreach awards, overseeing more than $2 million in community projects as part of the 2012 MLB All-Star Game, and leading charitable efforts during the club's World Series appearances and multiple Opening Days.

He grew up in Papillion, Neb., attending Omaha Royals and Kansas City Royals games throughout the summers. He graduated cum laude from the University of Nebraska with a bachelor of science in business administration. During his time in Lincoln, he worked in the athletic marketing office.

Aken currently resides in Kansas City, Mo.

GEORGE BRETT*VICE PRESIDENT-BASEBALL OPERATIONS

George Brett is in his 23rd year as the Royals' Vice President-Baseball Operations, continuing his long-time association with the organization. The 63-year-old Hall of Famer, who was selected by the Royals in the second round of the 1971 First-Year PlayerDraft, spent his entire big league playing career in Kansas City before moving into the front office following his retirement in 1993. During the 2013 season, Brett took on the role of interim hitting coach, being named to the position on May 30.

He served in that capacity until July 25, when he resumed his role as Vice President-

Baseball Operations and Pedro Grifol was named full-time hitting coach.

Brett was inducted into Baseball's Hall of Fame in July of 1999 after receiving 98 percent of the votes, the sixth-highest mark in history. He played 21 seasons for the Royals, collecting 3,154 hits, three batting titles (1976, 1980 and 1990) and a Most Valuable Player Award (1980). The Royals retired Brett's number 5 and inducted him into the club's Hall of Fame on May 14, 1994.

Brett is involved in numerous charitable causes as well as several enterprises. He and his brothers own Brett Brothers Sports International which manufactures bats, gloves and other baseball equipment. Brett Brothers also own interest in several professional teams.

George and his wife, Leslie, have three sons: Jackson, Dylan and Robin.

MIKE BUCEK

VICE PRESIDENT-MARKETING & BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Michael Bucek is in his seventh year as the Royals Vice President-Marketing & Business Development. He oversees the Royals marketing and branding, tickets sales and service, corporate partnerships, digital platforms, radio broadcast sales and game entertainment. During the 2015 season, the Royals World Series Championship translated to a franchise attendance record and new benchmarks for corporate sales and unprecedented growth across all digital platforms. The primary focus for Royals marketing in 2016 is continuing to expand the regional appeal of the franchise and adding additional regional and national corporate partners. In 2015, Royals marketing was recognized with a prestigious Gold Clio award for out of home (billboard).

Prior to joining the Royals in 2009, Bucek spent five years with the NHL's Phoenix Coyotes where he was the club's Executive Vice President/Chief Marketing Officer. During Bucek's tenure, the Coyotes' marketing department created numerous initiatives designed to grow the sport of hockey in a non-traditional market and received several prestigious awards, including the NHL's Best Member Club Marketing Campaign.

Bucek spent two years with the Indy Racing League where he served as Vice President of Sales and Business Development. In this capacity, Bucek was responsible for managing corporate sales, fulfillment, and business development for the IndyCar Series.

Bucek also previously was with the Milwaukee Brewers as Vice President of Ballpark Development for six seasons. He negotiated the naming rights and concessions agreements for Miller Park as well as primary sponsorship and broadcast rights agreements. He supervised the suites sales campaign and participated in the ballpark design process. Bucek developed new branding for the Brewers and for the 2002 MLB All-Star Game in conjunction with Major League Baseball.

He served as the Director of Marketing and Broadcasting for the Chicago White Sox for seven years. He was responsible for corporate sales and fulfillment, marketing, promotions, broadcasting and game entertainment. He negotiated sponsorship and broadcast agreements for the White Sox and created new branding for the franchise, producing unprecedented licensed product sales in the early 1990s.

Bucek's career in sports started with a three-year stint in the Pacific Coast League with the San Francisco Giants Triple-A affiliate Phoenix Firebirds from 1985 to 1988.

TOBY COOK

VICE PRESIDENT-PUBLICITY

Toby Cook is in his 10th season with the Royals and was recently named Vice President of Publicity. He had previously served as Vice President of Community Affairs & Publicity and is now focused on promoting all aspects of the Club's business efforts. A veteran of broadcast journalism, Cook serves as a team spokesman for most off-the-field matters, works with local, regional and national media and runs the Club's speaker's bureau. He also serves an integral role in Royals FanFest and other special events. During his tenure overseeing community affairs, his department added a series of successful charity events, distributing millions of dollars in grants, tickets and memorabilia to the community.

Prior to joining the Royals, Cook spent 15 years as a news anchor and reporter at four television stations, including WDAF-TV in Kansas City. He has also reported for several radio stations and newspapers.

Cook is a graduate and Outstanding Alumnus Award winner from Pittsburg (Kan.) State University.

He lives in Overland Park, Kan., with his wife, Barbara, and children: Adam, Molly, Annie, Andrew and Caroline.

J.J. PICOLLO

VP/ASSISTANT GM-PLAYER PERSONNEL

J.J. Picollo is in his second season as the club's Vice President/Assistant General Manager-Player Personnel. He was promoted to his current position on January 5, 2015. He previously served as the Royals' Assistant General Manager-Scouting & Player Development, a role he held since 2008. Picollo joined the Royals' staff on August 13, 2006 as Director of Player Development.

He came to the Royals after serving as the Director of Minor League Operations for the Atlanta Braves since November, 2005 and had been with the organization since 1999. Prior to his promotion as Director of Minor League Operations, Picollo served as the Assistant Director of Player Development after working as an Area Scouting Supervisor for Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Washington D.C.

Before joining the Braves in 1999, Picollo served as Recruiting Coordinator and Hitting/Catching Instructor for five years, three at George Mason University and two at The George Washington University. He was drafted on two occasions by the Cincinnati Reds (1989 and 1993) and eventually signed with the New York Yankees after his senior year at GMU in 1994. He played his first two years of college baseball at North Carolina State and earned his bachelor's degree in communications at GMU and his master's degree in sports administration from The George Washington University.

He and his wife, Nicole, reside in Leawood, Kan., with their three children: Michael, Ryan and Lauren.

BOB RICE

VICE PRESIDENT-BALLPARK OPERATIONS & DEVELOPMENT

Bob Rice is in his 13th year as Vice President-Ballpark Operations & Development after assuming the position on February 19, 2004. Rice oversees all stadium-related operations for the Royals, including ballpark improvements and maintenance, event operations and customer service. He was specifically involved in the renovations of Kauffman Stadium, which were completed in 2009. He has also played an integral role in preparing the stadium for hosting the 2012 All-Star Game and World Series games the past two seasons.

Rice spent the previous 16 years working for SMG, considered the world's leading company in the management of public assembly facilities. During his career with SMG, he helped oversee several stadiums from the construction stages to their final phases of operation and has built a reputation for helping maximize facility revenues.

Rice has served as general manager of numerous facilities during his career, including the Coliseo de Puerto Rico in San Juan (2001-04), the Ice Palace Arena in Tampa (1996-2001), the Sheffield and London Arenas in England (1993-96), the St. Louis Arena (1992-93) and the Kellogg Arena in Battle Creek, Mich. (1989-90). He also served as the Director of Finance for the St. Louis Arena from 1990-92.

Most recently, Rice was responsible for the planned opening of a new state-of-the-art, multi-purpose 18,500 seat facility in San Juan, where he worked with the Puerto Rican government regarding oversight of construction and the hiring and training of the facility's entire staff.

Rice graduated with a bachelor's of science and business administration in accounting from Central Michigan in 1982. Before earning his degree, he served as a Corporal in the United States Army from 1976-79. Bob has three children: Hannah, Michelle and Andrew.

MIKE SWANSON

VICE PRESIDENT-BROADCASTING & COMMUNICATIONS

In his 38th season of Major League baseball in 2016, Mike Swanson is in his 10th season as the Royals Vice President-Communications & Broadcasting. Known as "Swanee", he has now had the good fortune to work in the front office for a World Series Champion in each league. He returned to Kansas City prior to the 2007 season after nine years with the Arizona Diamondbacks, where he was the Senior Director of Public Relations, a stint that included Arizona's World Series title in 2001.

In each of the last three winters, he has been invited to speak at the Major League Baseball Rookie Career Development Program in Leesburg, Va., becoming the first club PR representative to serve on a panel in the 24-year history of the program. In 2002, Swanee earned the prestigious Robert O. Fishel Award for Public Relations Excellence. The award, named after the long-time baseball executive, goes to the "Active, non-uniformed representative of Major League Baseball whose ethics, character, dedication, service, professionalism and humanitarianism best represents the standards propounded by Robert O. Fishel." The honor came two years after he served as the Public Relations liaison for the MLB All-Star squad that played an eight-game series in Japan in November, 2000.

Prior to his start-up role with the Diamondbacks, Swanee had a similar experience with the Colorado Rockies, joining their staff in 1992, a year before they played their first game. He has also worked in public relations with the San Diego Padres.

Though baseball is his passion, Swanee has had the opportunity to work in other sports. His mother, the late Betty Swanson, worked for both the Kansas City Athletics and Chiefs over a 36-year span, with the younger Swanson tagging along and working in the equipment rooms of both franchises.

Around his baseball career, Swanee served as a television statistician, starting in 1977 with Keith Jackson on college football and evolving into stints with Monday Night Football, and the sharing of booth space with some of the top announcers in sports. The Kansas Jayhawks fan has worked a total of six Final Fours, six Super Bowls, four NFC Championship Games, five Sugar Bowls, six Cotton Bowls, three Fiesta Bowls, the 2007 BCS Title Game and 23 Maui Invationals.

Swanson and his wife, Renee, have a 17-year old daughter, Rachel, and reside in Lee's Summit, Mo.

Jin Wong returns for his 17th season in the Royals' organization and second as Assistant General Manager/Baseball Administration after being promoted on January 5, 2015. He joined the Royals as Scouting Operations Coordinator in 2000, was promoted to Manager of Scouting Operations in 2001, Manager of Baseball Operations in 2002, Director of Baseball Operations in 2004 and Director of Baseball Administration in 2006.

Wong assists GM Dayton Moore in strategic planning as it relates to contract negotiations, salary arbitration matters, and roster management. His responsibilities also include the interpretation and application of the Basic Agreement and major league rules, budgetary procedure for Baseball Operations, and oversight of the club's video coordination for the major league team.

He came to Kansas City from Richmond, Va., former Triple-A affiliate of the Atlanta Braves, where he was the Group Sales Manager. Prior to joining Richmond, he worked for Atlanta as a Baseball Operations Trainee in 1997.

Wong received a bachelor's of science degree in business administration from the University of Mary Washington in Fredericksburg, Va., in 1997. While at Mary Washington, he was a Division III All-American in baseball in 1996. He resides in Overland Park, Kan., with his wife, Libby and sons, Kai and Tate.

SCOTT SHARP

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER-BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Scott Sharp is in his second season as Assistant General Manager/Baseball Operations, being named to the position on January 5, 2015. He had previously served as the Director of Player Development during the 2013 and 2014 seasons. He joined the organization on September 28, 2006 as Assistant Director of Player Development and was promoted to Director of Minor League Operations on August 1, 2008.

He joined the Royals after serving as an area scout for eight seasons with three Major League clubs. He was most recently with the Texas Rangers where he served as an area scout for two years and was responsible for North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia. Prior to joining Texas, he was an area scout for Pittsburgh for two seasons (2003-04) and the Los Angeles Dodgers for four years (1999-2002). He was named the Dodgers' Scout of the Year in 2000. His first player signing was Eric Jung, who debuted with the Phillies in 2002.

Sharp began his professional career as a 25th-round selection of the Cincinnati Reds in 1994. He was a catcher in the Reds system through the 1997 season.

He earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from The George Washington University, where he played four seasons as an infielder, catcher and pitcher.

A native of Sykesville, Md., he currently resides in Lee's Summit, Mo., with his wife, Kimberly, sons, Hayden and Myers, and dog, Ella.

LONNIE GOLDBERG
DIRECTOR-SCOUTING

Lonnie Goldberg is in his sixth season as the Royals' Director of Scouting and ninth season overall with the organization. He previously served as the club's Director of Baseball Operations for three seasons.

Goldberg spent the previous six years in Atlanta as an area scout and, most recently, as a national scouting supervisor. As an area scout, Goldberg covered various territories including Canada and the Northeast. He also has scouted the junior college ranks extensively.

The Fairfax, Va., native was a 27th-round selection by the Rangers in 1993 following a standout career at George Mason. At GMU, he played for Royals' GM Dayton Moore and with Royals' VP/Assistant GM-Player Personnel J.J. Picollo. An infielder, Goldberg played three seasons in the minors with Texas before playing in both the Independent Leagues and overseas in Taiwan. He ended his playing career in 2000 in the Rockies system before managing the Yuma Bullfrogs in the Independent Western League in 2001.

He and his wife, Blythe, son, Jaxon, and daughter, Jaden, reside in Overland Park, Kan.

GENE WATSON
DIRECTOR-PROFESSIONAL SCOUTING

Gene Watson returns for his 10th full season with the Royals organization and fifth as the club's Director of Professional Scouting. He was named a Major League scout for the Royals on August 16, 2006, before being promoted to Coordinator of Pro Scouting on October 31, 2008 and to his current position in 2012. Watson oversees the Royals' Pro Scouting staff.

He came to the Royals from the Florida Marlins' organization, where he was a professional scout covering the A.L. and N.L. Central Divisions, as well as the Double-A Texas League for four years, including the Marlins' 2003 World Series season. He worked with the San Diego Padres beginning in 1997 and then joined the Atlanta Braves in 2000, working under current Royals' GM Dayton Moore covering a number of minor leagues, as well as evaluating the top amateur players. He has 20 years of experience covering Major League Spring Training, minor league scouting, and has scouted the Dominican, Venezuelan and Mexican winter leagues.

Cody Clark enters his third season with the Royals as the Major League bullpen catcher. In his role, Clark assists the coaching staff with various projects both before games, while he works directly with Bullpen Coach Doug Henry during games.

An 11-year veteran of professional baseball, Clark spent six seasons in the Royals' organization. He made his Major League debut for the Houston Astros on August 23, 2013 against the Blue Jays and played in 16 games for the Astros that season, his only year in the big leagues.

Clark played baseball at both the University of Arkansas (2001-02) and Wichita State (2003). He graduated from Central Arkansas University with a bachelor's degree in health education in 2008.

He and his wife, Jordan, reside in Conway, Ark., with their daughter, Finley.

JASON KENDALL

SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT COACH

Former Royals catcher Jason Kendall has served the Royals coaching staff as a Special Assignment Coach since retiring as a player in 2012. He works closely with Catching Coach Pedro Grifol and also assists with other aspects of the game.

Kendall spent 16 years in the Major Leagues as a player, finishing his big league career with Kansas City in 2010. He was a three-time All-Star (1996, 1998 and 2000) with the Pittsburgh Pirates and was named National League Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News in 1996. He finished his career with a .288 batting average, 75 homers and 744

RBI. His 2,195 career hits rank fifth all-time among Major League backstops, while his 2,025 games behind the plate are fourth all-time.

The son of former big league catcher, Fred Kendall (1969-80), Jason has a son, Kuyper Chase, and a daughter, Karoline. In 2014, he co-authored the book: Throwback: A Big-League Catcher Tells How the Game Is Really Played with baseball writer Lee Judge.

JEFF DAVENPORT

SR. DIRECTOR-TEAM TRAVEL/CLUBHOUSE OPERATIONS

Jeff Davenport enters his 17th season in the Royals organization and 10th as Senior Director of Team Travel/Clubhouse Operations. He served as the hitting coach for the Royals short-season club at Spokane in the Northwest League in 2000 and was named Manager-Team Travel in November, 2000. He was promoted to Director-Team Travel prior to the 2004 season and then to Senior Director-Team Travel in 2005. He was selected as the travel coordinator for the Major League All-Star tour of Japan in 2006.

Davenport began his professional baseball career in 1994 when he was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Boston Red Sox. He was a catcher in the Red Sox system until 1996, when he served part of the year as Boston's Major League bullpen catcher. He coached in the Arizona Diamondbacks organization from 1997-98 and worked in the club's Baseball Operations Department during the off-season. He spent the 1999 season as the Major League bullpen catcher for the Chicago Cubs.

A native of Greenville, Ohio, Davenport received his bachelor's degree in communications from Youngstown State (Ohio), where he played four seasons as a catcher.

Davenport and his wife, Celine, reside in Overland Park, Kan., with their son, Jack.

PATRICK GORMAN

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Patrick Gorman enters his 21st season with the Kansas City Royals after joining the club in 1996. Gorman began his career as a clubhouse attendant and has served as an assistant equipment manager the past 14 seasons. He assists in the day-to-day operations in the Royals' Major League clubhouse.

Gorman joined the Royals after an internship with the Cleveland Browns in 1995. He served as the student manager for the University of Kansas football team during his collegiate career.

Gorman earned a bachelor's degree in English from the University of Kansas in May, 1995. A native of Kansas City, Kan., Gorman graduated from Bishop Ward High School in 1990.

He and his wife, Cadey, reside in Overland Park, Kan., with their two daughters, Abby and Caroline.

TYLER AGENTER

ASSISTANT TRAVEL & CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Tyler Agenter enters his ninth season with the Royals, and his second in the role of Assistant Travel & Clubhouse Manager. Agenter will assist in day-to-day travel and clubhouse operations. From 2008-2014 he served as an assistant in the home clubhouse.

Agenter previously worked for the Arizona Diamondbacks from 1995-2000 in Baseball Operations and Player Development, helping coordinate the Expansion Draft for the new franchise in 1997. He spent the 2003-04 seasons with the Texas Rangers, coordinating video for the Major League coaching staff and players.

A native of Milaca, Minn., Agenter graduated from Shadow Mountain High School (Phoenix, Ariz.) and obtained a Bachelor of Science degree with a concentration in Sports Psychology from Arizona State University. He currently resides in Kansas City, Mo.

CHUCK HAWKE

VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Chuck Hawke begins his 28th season with the Royals as the Visiting Clubhouse Manager. Hawke runs the day-to-day operations of the visiting clubhouse at Kauffman Stadium. He assists with Royals' Spring Training in Surprise, Ariz., each year.

He received his bachelor's degree in computer science from DeVry University in 1984. Hawke, a native of Kansas City, Mo., graduated from Center High School in 1981. He and his wife, Lisa, reside in Leawood, Kan., with their dog, Buster.

MARK TOPPING VIDEO COORDINATOR

Mark Topping is entering his 14th season as the Royals Video Coordinator after joining the club in 2003. He oversees video coaching at the Major League level including player analysis and scouting video for the coaching staff and all players. This video is used by Royals hitters, pitchers and baserunners for their day-to-day game preparation.

Topping was honored with the 2008 Carl Hamilton Award of Excellence by his peers in the Professional Baseball Video Coordinators Association (PBVCA). The award is given annually to the Major League Baseball Video Coordinator who has demonstrated superior work in the field of video coaching.

Before joining the Royals, Topping worked as a photojournalist. From 2001-03, he was a freelance journalist for various news and sports networks. He also worked as a sports photographer and editor at XETV in San Diego, Calif., and had stints with WDAF-TV in Kansas City, WTVG-TV in Toledo, Ohio and KSPR-TV in Springfield, Mo.

Topping graduated from Buffalo State College (N.Y.) in 1996 with a bachelor of arts in communications. A native of Anaheim, Calif., he graduated from Canyon High School in 1990. He resides in Kansas City, Mo.

TREVOR VANCE SENIOR DIRECTOR-GROUNDSKEEPING & LANDSCAPING

Trevor Vance begins his 32nd season with the Kansas City Royals, and his 22nd as the Royals' Senior Director-Groundskeeping and Landscaping. He oversees the supervision and overall operation of the natural grass field at Kauffman Stadium. Vance joined the groundscrew as a part-time member in 1985 and became a full-time staff member in 1988. He was named Assistant Groundskeeper in 1993, before assuming his current post prior to the 1995 season.

Vance has worked with several youth organizations throughout Kansas City to help promote safe playing surfaces for all youth sports.

A native of Raytown, Mo., and a 1985 graduate of Raytown High School, Vance attended Central Missouri State University. He enjoys fishing during the offseason.

Vance resides in Lee's Summit, Mo., with his wife, Laura and four children: Kelsie, Hayden, Tanner and Morgan.

DR. VINCENT KEY HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Vincent Key begins his sixth season as the Head Team Physician for the Royals. He currently is an Assistant Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery/Sports Medicine at the University of Kansas Medical Center (Department of Orthopaedic Surgery).

Dr. Key is a graduate of Spring Hill (Kan.) High School. He received his bachelor's degree in pre-medicine at Kansas State University where he was also a track and field athlete. He attended medical school at the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine and did an Orthopaedic Surgery residency at King/Drew Medical Center in Los Angeles, Calif.

Dr. Key completed a Sports Medicine Fellowship with Wellington Orthopaedics/University of Cincinnati.

He enjoys family time, fishing and coaching youth sports. He resides in Overland Park, Kan., with his wife, April, and their four children: Kaelin, Cameron, Carson and Kaiya.

NICK KENNEY HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Nick Kenney enters his seventh season as the Major League head athletic trainer after joining the organization on October 23, 2009. Kenney was selected as a member of the 2012 American League All-Star team. He and his staff were honored to receive the 2011 Dick Martin Award and the 2013 Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS) Major League Training Staff of the Year award.

Kenney (A.T.C./CSCS) spent five seasons as the assistant athletic trainer for the Cleveland Indians from 2005-09. He also spent two years (2003-04) as the assistant athletic trainer for the Cincinnati Reds. He was program manager of sports medicine for TriHealth, the official medical provider of the Reds from 2001-02. While with TriHealth, Kenney was involved extensively with healthcare coordination and rehabilitation, including the programs used by Reds' Major and minor league players. Prior to his position with TriHealth, he served for seven seasons as head athletic trainer for the Cincinnati Cyclones professional hockey club.

A graduate of Clinton-Massie (Clarksville, Ohio) High School and Wilmington College (Ohio), Kenney is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society, currently acting as the A.L. Head Athletic Trainer Representative on the Executive Board.

He resides in Overland Park, Kan., with his wife, Patty, and their four children: Paige, Colin, Nathan and Madison.

KYLE TURNER ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Kyle Turner is entering his seventh season as an assistant athletic trainer with the Kansas City Royals. From 2007-09, he served as the Royals' minor league medical coordinator after seven seasons with the Texas Rangers in different capacities in the minor leagues.

Following his graduation from Southern Utah University, Turner took his first athletic training position as the head athletic trainer at Northern Oklahoma College. After spending two and a half years at NOC, he committed to his professional baseball career and has worked in professional baseball since 2000.

Kyle enjoys playing golf, hunting, fishing and home improvement projects but most importantly spending time with his wife, Wendy, and two beautiful daughters, Brooke and Malia.

RYAN STONEBERG

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Ryan Stoneberg begins his 15th season with the Royals and his fifth as Major League strength and conditioning coach. He served the previous five seasons as minor league strength and conditioning coordinator, and the five seasons prior as Latin America strength and conditioning coordinator. His current duties include coordinating all strength and conditioning activities across both the Major and minor leagues of the organization. In 2015, he was named the recipient of the Nolan Ryan Award by the Professional Baseball Strength and Conditioning Society. The annual award honors the outstanding strength and conditioning coach in professional baseball.

Stoneberg joined the Royals from the Diamondbacks organization, where he served as a minor league strength and conditioning coach from 1999-2001. He earned his bachelor of science in physiological sciences from the University of Arizona in 1999, while pitching for the Wildcat baseball team. Stoneberg also played baseball and received an associate of arts and associate of math and science degrees from Lassen Community College in 1996. Under the guidance of Steve Abney, Glen Yonan and John Deal, his Cougar baseball team made the Final Four twice, the only two visits in school history.

He resides in Phoenix, Ariz. during the offseason, and has a daughter, Sydney.

JEFF BLUM

PHYSICAL THERAPIST/REHAB COORDINATOR

Jeff Blum enters his ninth season with the Royals in 2016, serving as the team's Major League Physical Therapist/Rehab Director. Blum previously worked for the Atlanta Braves' organization, where he was the minor league physical therapist from 2002-05 and the minor league rehab coordinator from 2006-07.

He earned his bachelor of science in biology at Illinois College, where he also played baseball for the Blueboys. In his undergraduate years while working as a student trainer, he earned certification as a certified nurses' aide and as a physical rehab aide through John Wood

Community College. He received his master's in physical therapy from Elon University and his doctorate in physical therapy from Regis University. Blum has been a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the NSCA since 2005.

Jeff and his wife, Heather, reside in Blue Springs, Mo., with their children: Maranatha, Austin and Samuel.

NED YOST MANAGER | 3

Full name: Edgar Frederick Yost, III
Bats/Throws: R/R
Born: August 19, 1954 (Eureka, CA)
Opening day age: 61
Resides: La Grange, GA
Named to staff: May 13, 2010
Wife: Deborah
Children: Jenny, Ned IV, Josh, Andrew

ROYALS MANAGERIAL CAREER

- Named the 16th full-time manager in Kansas City Royals history on May 13, 2010...signed a two-year extension on February 17, 2016, which now runs through the 2018 season...has signed two-year extensions three times in his tenure with KC, also for the 2011-12 seasons with an option year (2013) on July 31, 2010 and for the 2014-15 seasons on October 1, 2013.
- Is the longest tenured manager in Royals history, posting a 468-469 (.499) in 937 regular season games on the bench.
- Entered 2016 ranked sixth among active managers in games (1,896) and wins (925)...he's also 62nd all-time in games and 66th in wins.
- Became winningest manager in franchise history on June 18, 2015 with a 3-2 win over Milwaukee...he earned his 411th victory passing Whitey Herzog (410).
- Led the Royals to their first World Series title and first division championship in 30 years during the 2015 season.
- Became the first KC skipper to lead the franchise to multiple World Series appearances (2014-15), while he's just the third to reach the postseason in consecutive seasons, joining Whitey Herzog (1976-78) and Dick Howser (1984-85).
- Since the start of 2013, has managed the club to the most wins (270) in the American League...won 95 games in 2015, which were the most by a Royals team in 35 years (97 in 1980).
- Has posted a .710 (22-9) postseason winning percentage, which is tops among managers that have managed at least 20 playoff games...his 22 postseason victories are 20th all-time and rank third among active skippers, trailing only Bruce Bochy (42) and Terry Francona (28).
- Became the first manager in Major League history to win his first eight postseason games.
- Served as the manager of the American League All-Star team in the 2015 Midsummer Classic in Cincinnati and will again this year in San Diego.

PRE-ROYALS MANAGERIAL CAREER

- Managed the Milwaukee Brewers beginning in 2003 before being relieved of his duties on September 15, 2008...compiled a 457-502 mark as the Brewers' skipper...named as the Milwaukee manager on October 29, 2002.
- Turned the Brewers around, leading the club to a 83-79 record and a second-place finish in the N.L. Central in 2007, marking Milwaukee's first winning season since 1992.
- The Brewers were 83-67 in 2008 when he was dismissed and on their way to winning the N.L. Wild Card, the Brewers' first playoff appearance since their World Series campaign in 1982, when Yost was a catcher on the club.
- A member of Tony La Russa's 2005 National League All-Star coaching staff.

COACHING CAREER

- Prior to managing the Brewers, Yost spent 12 seasons on the Major League staff of the Atlanta Braves from 1991-2002...the Braves won their division in each of Yost's seasons on the staff with the exception of the strike-shortened 1994 campaign.
- Yost served Hall of Fame manager Bobby Cox as the bullpen coach from 1991-98 and then as the third base coach from 1999-2002.
- Joined the Braves organization after retiring as a player following the 1987 season...managed for three seasons in the Atlanta system at Class A Sumter in the South Atlantic League, accumulating a 197-223 (.469) record.

PLAYING CAREER

- Selected by the New York Mets in the first round (7th overall) in the secondary phase of the June 1974 Draft...originally selected by the Montreal Expos in the second round of the January 1974 Draft, but did not sign.
- Acquired by the Milwaukee Brewers from the Mets organization in the 1977 Rule 5 draft.
- He played parts of six seasons in the Majors with the Brewers (1980-83), Rangers (1984) and Expos (1985), batting .212 with 15 doubles, 4 triples, 16 home runs, 64 RBI and 54 runs in 219 games.
- Was a member of the 1982 American League Champion Milwaukee Brewers, appearing in one game of the World Series against the Cardinals and walking in his only plate appearance.
- Traded by the Brewers with LHP Dan Scarpetta on December 8, 1983 to the Rangers for catcher Jim Sundberg.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

- Yost and his wife, Deborah, have four children: daughter, Jenny, and three sons, Ned IV, Josh and Andrew...Ned IV is currently a minor league coach in the Brewers' system after playing in the minors for three seasons, while Josh is a freestyle motocross professional.
- His father, Ned (Sr.), was an All-American football player at Santa Rosa Junior College in California.
- Graduated from Dublin (Calif.) High in 1972 before playing baseball at Chabot Junior College in Hayward, Calif.
- Inducted into the Central Wisconsin Baseball Hall of Fame in 2004 and earned the "Nice Guy Award" at the 2005 Red Smith Sports Award Banquet in Appleton, Wis.
- Wears uniform No. 3 as a tribute to his close friend, the late Dale Earnhardt.

Born: July 5, 1966 (Dade City, FL)
Opening day age: 49
Resides: Wesley Chapel, FL
Named to staff: October 25, 2011
Wife: Sandra
Children: Nicole, Natalie

COACHING CAREER

- Dave Eiland is in his fifth season as the Royals' pitching coach in 2016...named to Ned Yost's staff on October 25, 2011.
- Under Eiland's direction, the Royals pitching staff has ranked in the top four in ERA in each of the last three seasons, which included leading the American League with a 3.45 average in 2013...it was Kansas City's first ERA title since 1986, and the lowest season average the team has produced since a 3.44 mark in 1978.
- In 2015, the Royals' bullpen set a franchise record with 56 saves, which ranked third in the Majors...KC's bullpen also ranked second in the big leagues in ERA (2.69).
- KC tallied a franchise-record 1,208 strikeouts in 2013, including 491 in 461.1 innings by its bullpen...in his first year in Kansas City, Eiland helped guide the bullpen to a franchise-best 535 strikeouts, which also set an American League record.
- Spent the 2011 season in the Tampa Bay Rays' organization as a special assistant to Executive VP of Baseball Operations Andrew Friedman.
- Served as the New York Yankees' Major League pitching coach for three seasons from 2008-10, including the 2009 World Series champion club.
- Led the pitching staff to improvements in club ERA over each of his three seasons on the bench in New York...saw a drop from 4.49 in 2007 to 4.28 in his first season of 2008, then to 4.26 in the championship season and to 4.06 in his final season in 2010.
- Eiland's final two seasons, in 2009 and 2010, the Yankees held opponents to a .251 and .249 batting average, respectively...those totals were the second and third best totals for a Yankees club since 1982.
- Began his coaching career in 2003 as the pitching coach with Single-A Staten Island of the New York-Penn League...also served as pitching coach at Double-A Trenton (2005-06) and Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre (2007), before being named the Yankees' pitching coach following the 2007 season.

PLAYING CAREER

2015 SEASON

- Had another stellar season, earning selection to his first All-Star Game in July...was the American League's starting right fielder in the Midsummer Classic, collecting a pair of hits, including an RBI double.
- Finished third in the American League MVP voting by the Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA)...it was the highest a Royals player has finished in the voting since George Brett was the runner-up to Don Mattingly in 1985.
- Set career highs in nearly every offensive category, including runs (101), hits (169), doubles (34), homers (16), RBI (72), batting average (.307), on-base percentage (.361) and slugging percentage (.477)...hit over .300 for the second straight season after batting .301 in 2014.
- He was one of the top hitters in the American League, ranking fifth in batting average, tied for fifth in runs scored and second in stolen bases (28)...became the first Royal to score 100-plus runs in a season since 2011, when Melky Cabrera (102) and Alex Gordon (101) both did it.
- Swiped 28 bags for the second-straight season...his 56 steals over the last two years ranks ninth in the Major Leagues.
- Led the league hitting .372 (67-for-180) with two outs...his two-out average was the third-highest in franchise history and top total since Felix Jose batted .386 with two outs in 1994...he also tied with teammate Eric Hosmer for fourth in the A.L. with 67 two-out hits, while his 44 two-out runs were third in the league.
- Batted .353 (49-for-139) during day games, which ranked fourth in the American League...had an even 1.000 OPS (.424 OBP, .576 SLG) during day games, which was the sixth-highest in the A.L.
- He also ranked sixth in the American League, batting .335 against left-handed pitching...he had a .568 slugging percentage vs. southpaws, collecting 28 extra-base hits.
- Batted .337 at Kauffman Stadium, highest by a Royals player since Billy Butler hit .362 at home in 2009.
- Named the Royals Majestic Player of the Month for July, batting .367 (33-for-90) during the month with eight doubles, two triples, five homers and 22 runs scored...his July average is the highest in a single month of his career.
- Hit .313 (147-for-470) vs. American League foes, including .333 (38-for-114) with a .509 slugging percentage vs. A.L. East clubs.
- Recorded a career-best 11-game hitting streak August 22-September 3, batting .395 (17-for-43) with a double, two homers and 10 RBI during that stretch...also opened the season hitting in his first 10 games.
- Set a career high with five RBI May 15 vs. the New York Yankees...matched a career high with four hits, including a double and a home run, on August 11 vs. Detroit.
- Recorded his second multi-homer game on September 11 in Baltimore, hitting a pair of solo shots...set a career high with four runs scored in that contest.
- Collected his third career walk-off hit, with an RBI single to plate the winning run in the 10th inning on September 23, a 4-3 win over Seattle.
- Suspended for five games for his part in an on-field altercation at U.S. Cellular Field on April 23...it was the first suspension of his career.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Started all 16 postseason games in center field, hitting .258 with two doubles, a homer, 11 RBI and 11 runs scored...drew 11 walks in postseason play, which led all participants.
- Hit safely in his first nine games of the postseason, which extended his hitting streak to 13, dating back to Game #4 of the 2014 World Series...his streak was the longest in club history, until teammate Alcides Escobar hit in the final 15 games of the 2015 postseason.
- Reached base in all 16 postseason games via hit or walk, while his current streak of 20 games dating back to 2014 is the longest in Royals history...it's also the longest since Miguel Cabrera reached in a Major League-record 31-straight postseason games from 2011-13.
- Collected a bases clearing double in the 12th inning in Game #5 of the World Series, capping KC's five-run inning...also had a pair of stolen bases in Game #5, becoming the first Royal to record multiple thefts in a World Series game.
- Scored the winning run from first base in Game #6 of the ALCS vs. Toronto on an Eric Hosmer single.

2010	Member of Team USA at Pan Am Qualifying Tournament in Puerto Rico	2009	Florida State League (A) All-Star

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Enters 2016 ranked ninth among Royals relievers with 220 career strikeouts, behind teammate Kelvin Herrera (274)...his total is the most by a left-handed Royals reliever.
- Tim made just 22 appearances in the Major Leagues in 2014, the fewest of his career...optioned to Triple-A Omaha on June 24, his first Triple-A action since 2010.
- Posted a 2.76 ERA and three saves while holding batters to a .177 mark...helped the Storm Chasers win the Pacific Coast League and Triple-A crowns before returning to KC on September 19.
- Made four postseason appearances in 2014, including three during the World Series...posted a 3.18 ERA, allowing two earned runs in 5.2 innings with seven strikeouts.
- Had a rough first half in 2013, but finished strong...went 1-5 with a 4.86 ERA (18 ER in 33.1 IP) before the All-Star break; and 2-1 with a 1.35 ERA (3 ER in 20.0 IP) after the break.
- Pitched for Team USA in 2013 World Baseball Classic, recording two scoreless relief outings.
- In 2012, led American League relief pitchers with 93 strikeouts, which were also the most by a KC left-handed reliever...ranked fifth among all KC relievers, just 10 shy of the club record (103 by Jim York in 1971).
- Posted the second-best road ERA (0.96) among Major League relievers (minimum 35.0 IP) to Oakland's Ryan Cook (0.72)...conversely, his home ERA was 6.19 (22 ER in 32.0 IP).
- Tied Mike MacDougal's then-club rookie record with 68 appearances during his first season of 2011...his 68 appearances led A.L. rookies and were the fourth-most among MLB rookies.
- Opponents hit just .216 against him in 2011, the third-lowest average all-time among Royals rookies with at least 50 appearances...issued 29 of his 48 walks to left-handed batters.
- One of a record six Royals farmhands to represent Team USA at the 2010 Pan American Games Qualifying Tournament...posted a 2.57 ERA in five relief appearances, tossing 7.0 innings as Team USA finished tied for third and qualified for the 2011 Pan Am Games as well as the 2011 World Cup.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

- Full name is Timothy Michael Collins...he and wife, Tiffany, have a one-year-old son.
- Graduated from Worcester Vocational High School, helping the team compile a 91-5 record in his four seasons...despite the success, was not selected in the 2007 First-Year Player Draft.
- Participated at Royals FanFest in 2011 and 2014...took part in a calendar shoot for Braden's Hope for childhood cancer research and the Royals Charities Celebrity Golf Tournament...involved with McCoy Park Adaptive Field groundbreaking ceremony and Operation Blessing.

Acquired: Selected in the first round (4th) in 2010 Draft

2015 SEASON

- Made his first Opening Day roster and spent a majority of the first-half in the big leagues...however, he was optioned to Omaha on July 3 and didn't return to the Majors until September 1.
- Batted .290 with five doubles and eight runs scored in 43 games with the Royals...made starts at shortstop (14), second base (eight) and third base (six) during the year.
- Hit .333 (12-for-36) against left-handed pitching...also hit .318 (7-for-22) with a .444 on-base percentage when leading off an inning.
- Recorded a .316 batting average (25-for-79) vs. A.L. Central foes with four doubles and six RBI...victimized Detroit the most, hitting .390 against the Tigers.
- Went 11-for-24 (.458) during the month of September...that included his first four-hit game on September 20 at Comerica Park.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Made one appearance in the 2015 postseason, delivering the go-ahead RBI single in the 12th inning in Game #5 of the World Series.
- Has two career postseason hits, both of them coming in the 12th inning... in the 2014 Wild Card Game vs. Oakland he drove in the tying run with an infield single and came around to score the winning run.

AWARDS/HONORS

2014	First MLB hit: July 4, 2014 @ Cleveland, triple off Josh Tomlin	2012	Puerto Rican Winter League Rookie of the Year
2013	Omaha (AAA) Player of the Year	2012	Northwest Arkansas (AA) Player of the Year
		2012	Texas League (AA) All-Star

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Made his Major League debut on July 2, 2014 and had three separate stints with the Royals...he also played in 86 games at Triple-A Omaha.
- Collected three hits twice with Kansas City, including on July 4 at Cleveland...with two doubles and a triple in that game, he became the second Royal to record 3 extra-base hits in their first Major League start, joining Mark Quinn who hit two homers and doubled vs. the Angels on September 14, 1999.
- He also recorded three hits, a run scored and his first steal on August 14 vs. Oakland.
- Fractured the distal tip of the middle finger on his right hand on September 2 vs. Texas and was placed on the disabled list September 17 (retroactive to Sept. 7)...activated from the 15-day D.L. on September 28, and went 2-for-2 with a two-run double in the season-finale at Chicago.
- Named the 2013 Omaha (AAA) Player of the Year by the Royals organization, spending the entire year with the Storm Chasers...ranked eighth in the Pacific Coast League with a career-high 140 hits...also set career highs in games (131), at bats (512), runs scored (72), homers (12) and total bases (194).
- Helped Omaha to PCL and Triple-A Championships, going 6-for-27 (.222) with two doubles, a homer and four runs scored in the 2013 postseason.
- In 2012, tabbed a Texas League All-Star and Northwest Arkansas (AA) Player of the Year in just his second full season of professional baseball.
- Had his 2012 season end prematurely after taking a foul tip to his right eye after being promoted to Omaha in August.
- Named Puerto Rican Winter League Rookie of the Year in 2012, hitting .301 with 26 runs scored and 13 steals.
- Led the Texas League with 21 sacrifices in 2011 with Northwest Arkansas, his first full season in pro baseball.

2015 SEASON

- Had an outstanding year, being named to his first All Star team...he pitched a scoreless eighth inning, recording a pair of strikeouts in the Midsummer Classic in Cincinnati.
- Tabbed the Royals' Bruce Rice Pitcher of the Year for the second straight season by the Kansas City Chapter of the BBWAA...he was the sixth to win the award in consecutive seasons.
- Served as both a setup man and as the closer due to injuries to Greg Holland...posted an 8-1 record with a career-high 17 saves in 18 opportunities...his eight victories tied for the most among Major League relief pitchers.
- Since the start of the 2014 season, Davis' 17 victories out of the bullpen are the most in the Major Leagues.
- Led all Major League relievers with a 0.94 ERA (7 ER in 67.1 IP), the lowest in Royals history by a reliever, topping his own mark from last season (1.00)...he also led all relief pitchers in opponents' batting average (.144) and was second in WHIP (0.79), trailing only Dodgers' closer Kenley Jansen (0.78).
- Did not allow a run over his first 22 appearances (April 6-May 31), while he posted a 0.46 ERA (2 ER in 39.0 IP) before the All-Star break...his ERA before the break was the lowest since Brendan Donnelly posted an 0.38 ERA (minimum 35.0) in the first half in 2003.
- Gave up just one earned run (and one unearned run) in 36 road appearances...opponents batted .089 (11-for-112) in their own ballparks against him.
- Struck out the side twice, April 10 in the ninth at Angel Stadium and May 29 in the eighth at Wrigley Field.
- Held left-handed hitters to a .146 average (19-for-130), the fifth-lowest in the Majors among pitchers that faced at least 100 lefties in 2015.
- Named the Royals Pitcher of the Month in April and July...went 2-0 with four saves in Greg Holland's absence in April and was 4-0 with a 0.84 ERA (1 ER in 10.2 IP) during the month of July.
- Had a club record 125.2 innings streak without allowing a home run snapped on August 1 in Toronto, when Jose Bautista took him deep...it was the first home run he had allowed since August 23, 2013, the date of his last start.
- Surrendered two runs to the Angels on August 13, marking just the second time he's allowed multiple runs in 147 relief appearances with KC...the only other time was on April 5, 2014 vs. the White Sox, spanning 114 appearances...it was the second-longest streak of its type in Major League history, behind only Mike Myers, who went 126 appearances (1999-2001) between outings where he allowed two runs or more.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Tabbed the "Best Major Leaguer, Postseason" as part of the MLB Esurance Awards.
- Made eight appearances out of the bullpen, going 1-0 with four saves in four chances pitching 10.2 scoreless innings in postseason play...his four saves were the second-most in a single postseason by a KC pitcher, behind Greg Holland's seven in 2014.
- He has not allowed an earned run in postseason play over his last 16 outings (20.2 innings), which dates back to Game #1 of the 2014 ALCS at Baltimore...he's allowed just one unearned run and 11 hits (.155 opponents' batting average) in that span.
- Tied for the most strikeouts (38) among Royals hurlers in postseason play with teammate Kelvin Herrera...while his three victories are tied with Dennis Leonard and Dan Quisenberry for most in franchise history.
- In his postseason career, he's compiled a 0.84 ERA (3 ER in 32.1 IP) with nine walks and 46 strikeouts...among pitchers that have worked at least 30.0 postseason innings, his ERA ranks third behind only Mariano Rivera (0.70) and Harry Brecheen (0.83).
- Recorded two-inning saves in Game #4 of the ALDS (9-6) at Houston and Game #4 of the World Series (5-3) at the New York Mets...also tossed 1.2 innings in the deciding Game #6 of the ALCS vs. Toronto, having his outing delayed 45 minutes by rain.
- Tallied three strikeouts in four of his eight outings, including striking out the side in Game #1 and Game #5 of the World Series.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Enters the 2016 season with the lowest ERA (1.43) as a reliever among pitchers with at least 100 career appearances.
- Since returning to the bullpen full time in 2013, has compiled a 19-4 record with a 0.96 ERA (16 ER in 149.1 IP), recording 47 walks and 194 strikeouts in that span.
- Had one of the most dominating seasons by a relief pitcher in franchise history in 2014, being tabbed the Bruce Rice Pitcher of the Year and the MLB.com Setup Man of the Year (GIBBY).
- Led all Major League relievers with a 1.00 ERA in 2014, which is still the eighth-lowest single-season total by an A.L. reliever (minimum 50.0 innings).
- Established several Royals all-time pitching marks in 2014, totalling the most strikeouts by a reliever (109), most holds (33), while his road ERA (0.75) was tops by a KC pitcher...broke that record with a 0.25 ERA on the road in 2015.
- Recorded the most wins among A.L. relievers (9) in 2014, the most by a Royals reliever since 2000.
- Collected first professional save on September 5, 2014 at Yankee Stadium, recording the final two outs in a 1-0 win.
- Spent most of his first season in KC (2013) in the Royals' rotation, before moving to the bullpen in late August...struggled to find consistent success as a starter, allowing six earned runs or more in six of his 24 starts.
- Enjoyed a strong finish out of the bullpen in 2013, going 2-1 with a 0.90 ERA over seven appearances.
- In 2012, led A.L. relievers with 11.1 strikeouts per 9 IP (minimum 70.0 innings)...also ranked fourth among the league's relievers, allowing 6.1 hits per 9 IP.
- Tied for fourth among the league's relief pitchers in 2012 with 87 strikeouts...struck out the side 10 times, which were the second-most in the Majors behind Atlanta's Craig Kimbrel (17).
- Made a pair of scoreless relief appearances in the 2011 American League Division Series vs. Texas, pitching out of the bullpen for the first time in his pro career.
- In 2011, opponents stole just two bases in six attempts (33.3 percent) against him, which was the second-lowest success rate in the Majors...only Chicago's Mark Buehrle (3-for-10, 30 percent) was better.
- Placed on the disabled list with a right forearm strain on July 7, 2011...returned on July 22, missing just one start because of the All-Star break.
- In 2010, led A.L. rookies with 12 wins, finishing one behind St. Louis' Jaime Garcia for the Major League lead.
- Chosen as the team's Outstanding Rookie in 2010 by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA.
- Compiled a seven-game winning streak from July 8–September 11, 2010, tying Milwaukee's John Axford for the longest by a rookie in the Majors in 2010...the streak was tied for the longest in club history with Jeff Niemann (twice, 2008-09 and 2011) and Mark Hendrickson (2005), and is the longest ever by a Rays rookie.
- Made his debut September 6, 2009 vs. Detroit, one day before his 24th birthday...received a no decision in the 5-3 Rays' loss, totaling 7.0 IP, 3 H, 1 ER, 1 BB, 9 SO in 105 pitches...his nine strikeouts set a club record for a debut.
- The nine strikeouts were the most by a pitcher making his debut since Boston's Daisuke Matsuzaka (10) on April 5, 2007...fanned the first four hitters he faced and recorded his first six outs via the strikeout.
- On September 17, 2009 at Baltimore, his third start, he tossed a complete-game, four-hit shutout to earn his first Major League win (2 BB, 10 SO)...was the first pitcher to throw a 9.0-inning CG shutout in his third Major League game (or sooner) since Boston's Clay Buchholz's no-hitter on September 1, 2007 vs. Baltimore (second career game).
- Became the first pitcher to record his first Major League win via a complete-game shutout (min. 9 IP) since Ervin Santana did it for the Angels on May 23, 2005 vs. the White Sox...became the first pitcher in 17 years to throw a CG shutout with 10+ strikeouts in his first win since California's Tim Lincecum on July 25, 1992 vs. Detroit.

Bats/Throws: L/L
Born: December 21, 1988 (Goleta, CA)
Opening day age: 27
Resides: Lompoc, CA
MLB Service: 4 years, 85 days
Signed Through: 2016
Acquired: Selected in third round of the 2007 Draft

2015 SEASON

- Danny spent a majority of the year in the Royals rotation, but was moved to the bullpen for the last two weeks of the regular season...posted a 7-8 record with a 4.08 ERA over 30 appearances (24 starts).
- Did not allow a run in six relief appearances, spanning 8.1 innings...had a 4.35 ERA as a starter.
- Held left-handed hitters to a .239 batting average (26-for-109) with just six extra-base hits (five doubles, one triple) for a .303 slugging percentage...fellow lefties hit just .140 (7-for-50) against him over his final 17 appearances.
- Posted a 2-0 record and a 2.93 ERA (13 ER in 40.0 IP) in nine daytime appearances, including six starts.
- Won his first two decisions, posting a 3.45 ERA over his first five starts...struggled in three May starts (0-3, 13.03 ERA) before being placed on the disabled list.
- Missed 24 games with left biceps tendonitis, between May 25 and June 24.
- Went 5-2 with a 3.04 ERA over 11 starts in July and August.
- Tossed a career-high 8.0 innings in a 4-1 win at U.S. Cellular Field...did not allow a run until Tyler Saladino hit a solo home run to lead off the ninth inning.
- Recorded a season-high eight strikeouts in 5.0 innings of work at Camden Yards on September 11...did not earn a decision after the O's rallied against the KC bullpen.
- Collected his first Major League save on September 20 in Detroit, pitching the final 4.0 innings of a 10-3 triumph...it marked the first 4.0-inning save by a Royals pitcher since Kris Wilson on May 31, 2001.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Made six relief appearances, going 1-0 with a 6.00 ERA (4 ER in 6.0 IP), allowing no walks and nine strikeouts.
- Picked up his second career postseason win in Game #2 of the ALCS vs. Toronto, pitching a flawless seventh in front of a five-run rally in the bottom of the inning.
- Appeared in three World Series games, surrendering just one run on a solo shot to Michael Conforto in Game #4 at Citi Field.

AWARDS/HONORS

2015	First MLB save: September 20 @ Detroit	2009	Carolina League (A) All-Star
2011	First MLB win: June 14 @ Oakland	2008	Burlington (Rookie) Pitcher of the Year
2010	Member of Team USA at Pan Am Qualifying Tournament in Puerto Rico	2007	Southern California First Year Minor League Pitcher of the Year by the PBSSC
2009	XM All-Star Futures Game participant, U.S. Team

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Has been dominant against left-handed hitters throughout his career, holding them to a .215 batting average (85-for-395) and a .304 slugging percentage...has not allowed a home run to a left-handed hitter since Jim Thome took him deep on August 27, 2011 at Progressive Field, a streak of 323 homerless plate appearances vs. lefties.
- Spent a majority of 2014 in the Royals' starting rotation, recording a career-high 113 strikeouts in 149.1 innings.
- Had a deceiving record (9-12) in 2014 as he ranked fifth in the A.L. in ERA (2.53), fifth in opponents' batting average (.209) and ninth in WHIP (1.11) among hurlers with at least 140.0 innings.
- His .209 opponents' average was the lowest by a KC lefty, and third-lowest in club history overall by a hurler with at least 140.0 frames.
- Made three postseason appearances in 2014, earning his first victory in Game #1 of the ALDS at Angel Stadium, tossing a scoreless 10th inning.
- Also made a pair of relief appearances in the 2014 World Series, allowing two earned runs in 3.2 innings.
- In 2013, he worked his way back to the Majors, making five starts for KC in August and September...his 1.85 ERA was second-best in the A.L. among pitchers that made at least five starts, behind Clay Buchholz (1.74).
- Recorded a career-best 15.2 consecutive scoreless innings in 2013...he did not lose a decision after June 5, which included 18 outings with Northwest Arkansas (AA), Omaha (AAA) and Kansas City.

Danny Duffy (Cont.)

- Made six starts in 2012 before injuring his left elbow on May 13 at U.S. Cellular Field...underwent ulnar collateral ligament replacement surgery (Tommy John) on June 13 and missed the remainder of the season.
- Struck out 9.11 batters per 9 IP in 2012, the eighth-highest ratio in the A.L. among pitchers who made at least six starts.
- After opening the 2011 campaign with Omaha (AAA), had his contract selected on May 18 and made his big league debut that night vs. Texas, taking a no decision in a start.
- In 2011, struck out 87 in 105.1 innings for 7.43 SO/9 IP, which is the fourth-best ratio among Royals rookies (min. 100 IP) in history...trailing Bob Johnson (8.66 in 1970), Tom Gordon (8.45 in 1989) and Yordano Ventura (7.82 in 2014).
- Struck out nine in 3.2 IP vs. St. Louis on June 19, 2011, becoming third pitcher since 1946 to fan nine or more in less than 4.0 innings.
- Had an eventful 2010 campaign, taking a leave from baseball on March 23...returned to baseball activities on June 2 and made his first appearance of the season on June 28...pitched at four levels in the system, ultimately helping Northwest Arkansas win the Texas League title.
- One of a record six Royals farmhands to represent Team USA at the 2010 Pan American Games Qualifying Tournament...went 1-1 with a 2.89 ERA in two starts (9.1 IP, 11 H, 3 ER, 2 BB, 5 SO) as Team USA finished tied for third and qualified for the 2011 Pan Am Games as well as the 2011 World Cup.
- Tossed 0.2 scoreless innings with a hit and a walk in the 11th annual SiriusXM Futures All-Star Game in St. Louis on July 12, 2009.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

- Full name is Daniel Richard Duffy...resides in Lompoc, Calif., with wife, Sara.
- Participated in three Royals FanFests (2011, 2013, 2016) and 2012 and 2013 Royals Caravan...also was involved in calendar shoots for Braden's Hope for childhood cancer research, the annual Gloves for Kids fundraiser and the Royals Charities Celebrity Golf Tournament...co-hosted a Challenge Your Fashion fundraiser with Luke and Ashley Hochevar in 2014.
- Graduated from Cabrillo High in Lompoc, Calif., in 2007...went 5-3 with a 0.60 ERA and 127 strikeouts in 58.2 innings as a senior...turned down a scholarship offer from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo to sign with the Royals.
- Attended one of the MLB Youth Academy's Southern California Showcases as an amateur.

- His four career steals in postseason play are tied for fourth all-time in club history.

AWARDS/HONORS

2010 First MLB home run: September 27 vs. Minnesota, 2-run shot off Kevin Slowey

2010 First MLB hit: September 13 vs. Oakland, double off Bobby Cramer

2009 Willie Wilson Baserunner of the Year

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Enters the 2016 season ninth on KC's all-time stolen base list (146), needing just four to match Tom Goodwin (150) for eighth and 10 to tie Johnny Damon (156) for seventh.
- Swiped a career-high 36 bases in 2014, tied for third in the American League with Detroit's Rajai Davis...his total was the most by a Royals player since Carlos Beltran stole 41 bases in 2003.
- Set a career high with three steals in a game vs. San Francisco on August 10, 2014...he has since matched that total two other times, including September 2, 2014 vs. Texas.
- In 2014, led the Majors with 22 steals from the seventh inning on...it was the highest total since 2009, when Carl Crawford also had 22 thefts after the sixth...the total ranks second in Royals history to Willie Wilson (24 in 1978).
- Matched his own team record, collecting 10 outfield putouts on August 10, 2014 vs. San Francisco...it marked the fourth time a Royals outfielder has recorded 10 putouts in a game, previously done by Amos Otis on May 1, 1970 (vs. Texas), Carlos Beltran, September 17, 1998 (at the White Sox) and Dyson, September 27, 2010 vs. Minnesota.
- Played in 13 postseason games in 2014, making three starts in center field during the World Series.
- Pinch-ran in the ninth inning of the 2014 Wild Card Game vs. Oakland and scored the tying run after stealing third base...also scored the winning run in Game #3 of the ALCS, in the sixth inning in a 2-1 triumph over Baltimore.
- Ranked seventh in the A.L. with 34 steals in 2013, with 22 of them coming after the All-Star break.
- Suffered a sprained ankle after climbing the wall at Angel Stadium in Anaheim on May 15, 2013 and missed 34 games (May 17-June 22).
- In 2012, ranked ninth in the A.L., stealing 30 bags in 35 attempts...he and Alcides Escobar (35) were the first Royals teammates with 30-plus steals in the same year since Willie Wilson (43) and Lonnie Smith (40) put together a 40/40 year for the 1985 World Champion team.
- Scored two runs in the eighth inning on April 30, 2011, becoming the 20th Royal in history to score two runs with just one plate appearance and the third to do it in the same inning (Bobby Floyd, September 22, 1971 & Joe Simpson, August 16, 1983).
- Entered 2010 rated by Baseball America as being the Fastest Baserunner in the Royals organization.

Born: February 10, 1984 (Lincoln, NE)

Opening day age: 32

Resides: Lincoln, NE

MLB Service: 8 years, 92 days

Signed Through: 2019

Acquired: Signed as a Major League free agent, Jan. 6, 2016

2015 SEASON

- Elected to his third-straight All-Star Game in 2015...he did not play due to injury.
- He missed 48 games during July and August after suffering a grade 2 left groin strain on July 7...still managed to bat .271 with 18 doubles, 13 homers and 48 RBI in 104 games...blasted 11 home runs and collected 39 RBI before the break.
- A four-time Rawlings Gold Glove winner, Gordon had just four assists, fewest since moving to the outfield in 2011.
- Among hitters with at least 300 at-bats, his .377 on-base percentage ranked sixth in the American League...ranked 13th in the A.L., averaging a walk every 8.61 plate appearances...also tied for fourth in the A.L., being hit by pitch 14 times.
- Batted .321 (26-for-81) with runners in scoring position and .326 (14-for-43) with RISP and two outs.
- Hit three home runs and also batted .333 (16-for-48) in 14 Interleague games...his 21 Interleague home runs are tied for 17th among active players in the Junior Circuit.
- Batted .385 (10-for-26) with a double, two homers and seven RBI in the eight games before going on the disabled list...also hit .370 (10-for-27) with three doubles in the first eight games after coming off the D.L.
- Became the second player in the last 35 years (since 1980) to collect seven hits and at least six RBI in a single day, doing so in a day-night doubleheader vs. Tampa Bay on July 7...the only other player to do this was Ben Zobrist, who had seven hits and 10 RBI in a doubleheader vs. Minnesota on April 28, 2011.
- His huge day July 7 included matching a career high with four hits in the night game of the twinbill, marking the 11th time he's done that in his career...he also had four hits in a September 14 game at Cleveland.
- Moved into ninth-place on KC's all-time RBI list, finishing the season with 523 RBI as a Royal...he also passed Mike Sweeney (66) for fourth on the club's all-time hit-by-pitch list (67).
- Hit out of the leadoff spot 18 times, connecting for his franchise-best 14th career leadoff home run on September 14 off Cleveland's Carlos Carrasco.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Started all 16 games in left field, batting .241 with four doubles, two homers, six RBI and 10 runs scored...despite a .241 average, drew eight walks and a hit by pitch for a .349 OBP during postseason play.
- His eight walks tied for fourth among all postseason participants in 2015, while his 10 runs scored tied for fifth.
- Has 10 career doubles in postseason play, good for second all-time by a Royal, trailing only Hal McRae (11).
- Hit a game-tying home run in the ninth inning in Game #1 of the World Series off Mets' closer Jeurys Familia.
- Also drove in the go-ahead run in Game #4 of the ALDS at Houston with a ground out as KC rallied from a four-run deficit in the eighth inning.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Signed a four-year contract to remain with the Royals on January 6, 2016.
- Enters the 2016 season with 66 outfield assists since becoming a full-time outfielder in 2011, the most in the Major Leagues in that span.
- Also begins 2016 ranked in the Top 10 in club history in most offensive categories...he's sixth in extra-base hits and walks; seventh in runs scored, doubles and home runs; eighth in hits and total bases; and ninth in games played, at-bats and RBI.

- Selected to his second straight All-Star Game, but did not participate due to a wrist injury...became the first Royals outfielder named to consecutive American League All Star teams since Willie Wilson in 1982 and 1983.
- Named the American League's Platinum Glove winner, becoming the first outfielder to win that award...won his fourth-consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove, joining Frank White (1977-82) as the only other Royal to win at least four in a row.
- He was the first American League outfielder to win four straight Rawlings Gold Gloves since Torii Hunter and Ichiro Suzuki both won eight-straight (2001-08).
- Enjoyed a career day vs. the Orioles on May 18, 2014, going 4-for-4 with a pair of three-run homers...became first Royal since Jermaine Dye (1999) to collect six RBI in a game where he was 4-for-4 or better...Gordon's four hits matched a career high, while it was his first multi-homer game since August 11, 2012 and KC's first of 2014.
- Blasted his second-career walk-off home run on August 26, 2014, a two-run shot in the bottom of the ninth off Twins' closer Glen Perkins...it marked his first walk-off homer since he hit one vs. Baltimore on July 30, 2010.
- Collected 11 RBI during the 2014 postseason, which ranked second to Eric Hosmer (12) among 2014 participants...had four steals leading all players in the 2014 postseason and are tied for second most by a Royal in a single postseason.
- Slugged the go-ahead home run in the 10th inning in Game #1 of the 2014 ALCS at Camden Yards...also collected a bases clearing double in the game to match the KC postseason record with four RBI in the game, tying Jim Sundberg (Game #7 of 1985 ALCS) and Willie Aikens (Game #1 of 1980 World Series).
- Collected three RBI in Game #3 of the 2014 ALDS, becoming the first player to drive in at least three runs in consecutive postseason games since Mike Lowell did it for Boston in Games 1 and 2 of the 2007 ALCS vs. Cleveland.
- In 2013, topped the American League with 17 outfield assists, which tied with Arizona's Gerrardo Parra for the Major League lead...also tied for ninth in the A.L. with 52 multi-hit games and tied for sixth with a career-best six triples.
- Selected to his first All-Star Game in 2013, playing two innings in left field at Citi Field.
- Blasted first two grand slams of his career in 2013, April 25 at Detroit and July 2 vs. Cleveland...became first Royals player with multiple slams in a season since Yunesky Betancourt hit three in 2010.
- Hit four lead-off home runs in 2013...also recorded three walk-off hits, providing the winning runs vs. Toronto (April 14), the White Sox (May 5) and vs. Atlanta (June 26).
- In 2012, earned his second consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove award, becoming the first KC outfielder since Amos Otis (1973-74) to win a Gold Glove in consecutive years.
- Led all Major League players with 51 doubles, which tied Billy Butler (2009) for the second-most by a Royals player...both trail Hal McRae's 54 doubles in 1977.
- Finished second in the Majors, to teammate Jeff Francoeur (19), in outfield assists (17) in 2012...led all A.L. left fielders in games (160), innings (1424.1), total chances (338) and putouts (319)...committed two errors for a .994 fielding percentage, tops in the league among left fielders with at least 125 games played.
- In 2012, joined George Brett (two), Billy Butler (two) and Hal McRae (two) as the only Royals with multiple seasons with 45+ doubles.
- Tied for third in the league with a career-high 60 multi-hit games, which was the fifth-highest total in team history...ranked sixth in the A.L. in hits (189), tied for seventh in extra-base hits (70) and eighth with a .320 batting average (132-for-412) against right-handed pitching.
- Drew five walks on June 17, 2012 at St. Louis, which matched a career high (also July 30, 2008 at Oakland)...he is the only Royals player to record five walks in a game...just the fifth player in MLB since 1980 to record multiple games with five walks, joining Barry Bonds (three times), Dale Murphy, Rickey Henderson and Mark Teixeira.
- Posted a breakout season in 2011 and was rewarded by being named the Royals Les Milgram Player of the Year by the KC Chapter of the BBWAA...one of five players in the A.L. up for the All-Star Game Final Vote, finishing third.
- Won the 2011 American League Rawlings Gold Glove in left field in his first full season in the outfield.
- One of five players in 2011 to hit above .300, collect 45+ doubles and 20+ home runs (Miguel Cabrera, Adrian Gonzalez, Jacoby Ellsbury and Robinson Cano)...is the fourth Royal in history, joining Hal McRae (1982), Mike Sweeney (2001) and Billy Butler (2009)...he was the only one of the four with more than 15 stolen bases.
- In 2011, finished 10th in the A.L. in batting average (.303)...also tied for sixth in the Majors in doubles (45), tied for sixth in the league in extra-base hits (72), eighth in hits (185) and total bases (307), 10th in runs (101), tied for 10th in multi-hit games (50) and fifth in home batting average (.329).
- With 101 runs scored in 2011, became the first Royal with 100+ runs since 2007 (David DeJesus, 101).
- Finished in the top five among all A.L. outfielders (numbers as an OF) in 2011 in runs (tied third), hits (third), doubles (third), RBI (tied fourth), average (second) and OBP (second).
- Led the Majors with 20 outfield assists in 2011, which also shattered the club's single-season record of 17, held by Jermaine Dye (1999) and Mark Teahen (2007)...with 20 assists, was just the 24th player since 1969 to have 20 or more in a season and the first since Alfonso Soriano had 22 in 2006 for the Nationals.
- Posted a career-best 19-game hitting streak from April 3-26, 2011, tied for the eighth-longest streak in club history.
- Appeared in just 74 games for the Royals in 2010 due to injury and a demotion to Omaha (AAA) for 68 games...while in Omaha, he switched positions from third base to the outfield.

- Struggled with a hip injury a majority of the 2009 season, missing 79 games after undergoing surgery to repair a labral tear in his right hip on April 17.
- In 2008, finished third in the A.L. among regular third basemen with a .352 on-base pct. and fifth with a .786 OPS.
- Set a franchise record by drawing five walks (two intentional) on July 30, 2008 in a 10-inning win at Oakland.
- Made his first career Opening Day roster in 2007...became the fourth Royal in franchise history to make his debut in the starting lineup on Opening Day, joining Joe Zdeb (1977), Michael Tucker (1995) and Mark Teahen (2005).
- His 36 doubles in 2007 led the team and set a Royals rookie record while his 55 extra-base hits fell one shy of tying Kevin Seitzer (1987) and Carlos Beltran's (1999) Royals rookie record.

2015 SEASON

- Named an American League All-Star for the first time in his career...he didn't pitch in the game.
- Made 72 appearances out of the bullpen in his fourth-full season in the Major Leagues, going 4-3 with a 2.71 ERA (21 ER in 69.2 IP), striking out 64.
- Allowed just five home runs on the year...snapped a streak of 105.1 innings without allowing a home run on May 5, when he gave up a solo shot to Cleveland's Lonnie Chisenhall at Kauffman Stadium...streak is the second-longest by a reliever in club history, behind Wade Davis' 125.2 innings.
- Went 3-0 with a 1.29 ERA in 35 appearances at "The K"...he was 1-3 with a 4.50 ERA on the road.
- Made 11 Interleague appearances, going 1-0 with a 1.54 ERA, while holding National League hitters to a .171 average.
- Didn't allow a baserunner in 28 of his outings...he struck out the side in 1.0-inning relief stints against Cleveland on June 2 and in Detroit on August 6.
- His .151 (18-for-119) opponents' batting average against lefties ranked sixth in the Majors, among pitchers with at least 100 at bats by left handers.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Appeared in 11 games, going 1-0 with a 0.66 ERA (1 ER in 13.2 IP), allowing three walks and recording 22 strikeouts.
- His strikeout total was second-highest by a relief pitcher in postseason history, trailing only the Angels' Francisco Rodriguez, who fanned 28 in 2002.
- Did not allow an earned run over his final eight appearances, spanning 10.2 innings in the ALCS and World Series.
- Tossed a postseason career-high 3.0 scoreless innings in Game #5 of the World Series, allowing just one hit.

AWARDS/HONORS

2015	American League All-Star	2011	Paul Splitteroff Award (organization's pitcher of the year)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Since July 1, 2013, his 2.17 ERA (41 ER in 170.1 IP) is fourth-lowest among A.L. relievers with at least 150 innings pitched, trailing Darren O'Day (1.69), Dellin Betances (1.71) and teammate Wade Davis (2.06).
- His 61 holds since the start of 2013 are tied for third-most in the American League.
- In 2014, ranked fifth among MLB relievers in ERA (1.41)...from June 27 to the end of the season, his 0.48 ERA (2 ER in 37.1 IP) was the lowest in the Majors (minimum 30.0 innings).
- Recorded a 31.0-inning scoreless streak from June 27 to September 16...the stretch was the second-longest in club history, trailing only Wade Davis' 31.2 innings, which he did simultaneously.
- Made 11 appearances in the 2014 Postseason, going 1-0 with a 1.80 ERA (3 ER in 15.0 IP)...earned his first postseason victory in Game #2 of the World Series vs. San Francisco (7-2), pitching 1.2 scoreless innings.
- Pitched in all four games of the 2014 ALCS vs. Baltimore, allowing no runs on two hits with one walk and six strikeouts in 5.2 innings.
- Had a shaky first half of the year in 2013, but posted a 2.64 ERA (9 ER in 30.2 IP) over 30 appearances after the break.
- In 2013, averaged 11.42 strikeouts per 9.0 IP, which ranked ninth among A.L. pitchers with 50.0 innings or more...his total was sixth-best in KC history.
- Enjoyed a breakout year in 2012, tying for the team lead with 19 holds...allowed just four home runs in 84.1 innings and none in his final 69 outings (76.0 innings).
- Posted a 2.35 ERA, which was the best among A.L. hurlers with at least 80.0 innings and fourth-best in the Majors.

- His 76 appearances were the most by a Royals rookie, topping the old mark of 68, which was shared by Tim Collins (2011) and Mike MacDougal (2003)...tied for second in the league in appearances.
- Named the Royals 2011 Paul Splittorff Pitcher of the Year...pitched for the World team in the XM Futures All-Star Game on July 10 at Chase Field in Arizona.
- Combined with starter Will Smith (7.0 IP) to toss a no-hitter for Northwest Arkansas on July 19, 2011 at Arkansas... Herrera tossed the final 2.0 innings to complete the first no-hitter in Nationals history.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

- Full name is Kelvin De Jesus Herrera...resides in Tenares, Dominican Republic with his son, Kevin.
- Participated in a calendar shoot for Braden's Hope for childhood cancer research and co-chaired the 2014 Baseball Equipment Day...also participated in the annual Gloves for Kids fundraiser, Operation Blessing and events at the Guadalupe Centers, Inc.

2015 SEASON

- Returned to the big leagues after missing the entire 2014 season due to 'Tommy John' surgery...made his first big league appearance of the year on May 7 after starting the season on the D.L.
- Totaled 49 appearances, going 1-1, with a 3.73 ERA (21 ER in 50.2 IP) with 16 walks and 49 strikeouts.
- Posted a 1.38 ERA (4 ER in 26.0 IP) in 23 outings at Kauffman Stadium...had a 6.20 ERA on the road.
- Picked up his first win in nearly 23 months on August 19, in Cincinnati, tossing 1.2 perfect innings in a 4-3 win...his previous win came on September 20, 2013.
- He collected a save on August 11 vs. Detroit, tossing 2.2 spotless frames to close out the 6-1 win...marked his first save since August 8, 2013.
- Had 13 straight scoreless outings, which spanned 13.2 innings between June 23 and August 3...during the stretch he struck out 14 and held opponents to a .133 (6-for-45) batting average.
- He also had a 1.08 ERA in one-run games, holding the opposition to a .230 batting average in those situations.
- Dominant in August with a .186 opponents' batting average and a 1.54 ERA (2 ER in 11.2 IP) in 10 appearances.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Made nine scoreless appearances out of the bullpen, earning a pair of victories...became the ninth Royals pitcher to record two wins in a single postseason.
- Posted a 0.66 WHIP, the lowest by a KC hurler that threw at least 10.0 innings in a single playoff season...his ratio topped Wade Davis' 0.70 WHIP during the 2014 postseason.
- Made four appearances during the World Series...earned the win in Game #5, tossing 2.0 hitless innings.
- Also picked up the win in Game #4 of the American League Championship Series, allowing one hit in 1.1 frames.
- Held left-handed hitters to one hit in 13 at-bats (.077) during the postseason...righties went 5-for-24 (.208).

AWARDS/HONORS

2013	First MLB save: May 13 @ Los Angeles Angels	2007	Texas League All-Star, started game
2008	First MLB win: April 26 vs. Toronto	2007	XM Radio Futures Game participant, U.S. Team

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Luke signed a two-year contract with a mutual option for the 2017 season on December 4, 2014
- Missed the entire 2014 season after undergoing "Tommy John" surgery in mid-March.
- Made a successful transition to the bullpen in 2013 after five seasons in the rotation...ranked third in the American League in opponent batting average (.169) and sixth in ERA (1.92) among hurlers with at least 60.0 innings...also tied for sixth among A.L. relievers with 82 strikeouts.
- His 10.49 strikeouts per 9.0 innings in 2013 is the eighth-highest ratio in team history among hurlers with at least 60.0 innings.
- Became the first Royals pitcher to face five hitters in a game and strike all of them out, September 10, 2013 at Cleveland.
- Earned his first Major League save on May 13, 2013, tossing the final 3.0 innings in an 11-4 Royals triumph at Angel Stadium...also recorded a second save on August 8, protecting a three-run lead vs. Boston in a 5-1 KC win.
- Recorded a career-high 32 starts, 144 strikeouts and 7.0 strikeouts per nine innings in 2012...his 2.36 strikeout-to-walk ratio was also a career best.
- Faced 2007 first-overall pick David Price on August 21, 2012 in St. Pete, matching zeroes with Price through 8.0 innings, allowing just one hit...KC prevailed 1-0 in 10 innings...joined Zack Grienke (August 30, 2009) at Seattle, 9.0 IP, 1 H), as the only Royals pitchers since 1997 to toss at least 8.0 innings of one-hit ball.
- Made his first career Opening Day start on March 31, 2011 vs. the Angels, dropping a 4-2 decision.
- Retired 31 straight-hitters over two starts from April 15 to April 20, 2011, falling two batters shy of Steve Busby's club record.

- Missed significant time in 2010 with a right elbow sprain, making only 18 appearances, including 17 starts.
- Needed only 80 pitches to beat Cincinnati, 4-1, on June 12, 2009 for his first professional complete game...just the second pitcher since 2006 to toss 80 or fewer pitches in a nine-inning complete game (Colorado's Aaron Cook, twice) and was one of five pitchers since 2000 to accomplish the feat...the 80 pitches were the fewest by a KC starter in a nine-inning complete game since STATS, LLC began recording pitch counts in 1988.
- Hochevar's 13 strikeouts on July 25, 2009 vs. Texas were the most Ks by a KC hurler since Kevin Appier also whiffed 13 on August 29, 1996...the eighth Royals pitcher (10th time overall prior to Zack Greinke's record setting 15 strikeouts on August 25, 2009) to reach 13 or more Ks...Luke was also the first Royals pitcher ever and 15th different hurler in baseball since 2000 to record at least 13 strikeouts while not issuing a walk.
- Made his Major League debut in relief on September 8, 2007 vs. the Yankees, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings on three hits.
- Made his Royals' system debut on August 16, 2006 with Burlington (A)...struck out 2005 No. 1 overall pick, Justin Upton.
- Promoted to Wichita (AA) for the 2006 playoffs and made two starts, recording a 1-1 record.
- Made three starts in the Arizona Fall League in 2006 before being shut down with shoulder soreness.
- Named as the No. 2 prospect in the Royals' minor league system by Baseball America entering the 2007 season...named the 30th-best prospect in baseball by MilB.com and the 35th-best prospect by Sports Illustrated.
- Became the Royals' first-ever No. 1 overall pick when Kansas City selected him in the 2006 First-Year Player Draft...signed on August 4 by scouts Phil Huttman, Gerald Turner and Deric Ladnier.
- Prior to the draft, made four starts for the Ft. Worth Cats in the Independent American Association...went 1-1 with a 2.38 ERA, allowing 20 hits and six earned runs in 22.2 innings...walked 11 and struck out 34.

2015 SEASON

- Eric was one of the Royals most consistent performers, setting career bests in runs scored, triples, RBI, walks and on-base percentage.
- Earned a Rawlings Gold Glove for the third time in as many seasons...he became the first A.L. first baseman to win three straight since Rafael Palmeiro (1997-99).
- He tied for eighth in the league in runs scored and hits (178) and tied for 12th in RBI...also tied for seventh with Seattle's Robinson Cano in multi-hit games (51)...over the past three seasons, his 148 multi-hit games are tied for 10th in the Major Leagues.
- Hit .311 (89-for-286) at Kauffman Stadium with a .510 slugging percentage (19 doubles, four triples, 10 homers) at home...home average ranked 12th in the American League. In 2014, he batted just .219 at "The K" with a .347 SLG.
- Ranked fourth in the A.L. with 28 go-ahead RBI...37 of his 93 RBI either tied the score or gave KC the lead.
- He also batted .310 with a .501 slugging percentage vs. right-handed pitching...hit .315 (52-for-165) in day games.
- Tied with teammate Lorenzo Cain for fourth in the league with 67 two-out hits...he also ranked second in the Junior Circuit, scoring 46 runs after two were down, trailing only Toronto's Jose Bautista (47).
- Recorded a season-best 14-game hitting streak between July 18 and August 1, batting .500 (28-for-56) with three doubles, two triples, three homers and 13 RBI during that span...he also had a 10-game hitting streak, August 9-19.
- Led the American League with a .385 batting average (40-for-104) during the month of July...he also hit .310 in the month of April.
- Also enjoyed a streak of 10 straight games with an RBI, from August 7-16, which was the longest streak of its kind in the Major Leagues in 2015 and third-longest in Royals history...his 22 RBI during the month of August tied for fifth in the American League.
- Recorded his third career walk-off hit, doubling home the winning run in the ninth to beat Minnesota, 3-2, July 5.
- Had two game-winning hits in extra-innings at U.S. Cellular Field...doubled home the go-ahead run in the 13th inning on April 23 in a 3-2 KC win...also hit a two-run homer in the 10th inning for the margin of victory in a 5-3 triumph September 30.
- Went 4-for-4 with a double in KC's 3-0 triumph over Toronto on July 10 at Kauffman Stadium...it marked his eighth career game with four hits or more.
- Recorded four RBI in a game twice, both times vs. Cleveland, May 5 at home and July 27 at Progressive Field...his 21 RBI vs. the Tribe were tied for the second-most by any one player against an opponent, trailing only Colorado's Nolan Arenado's 24 RBI vs. San Francisco.
- Tied for the American League lead among first basemen with a .997 fielding percentage.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Set a Royals' postseason record with 17 RBI in his 16 games...he finished four RBI shy of the Major League record, which was set by St. Louis' David Freese (21) in 2011.
- He also scored 10 runs in postseason play, which tied for fifth among all participants in 2015.
- His 29 career postseason RBI are the most in Royals' history, passing George Brett (23) during the World Series...his career total is also tied for eighth all-time by a first baseman with Bill Skowron (1955-63).
- Batted just .212 with two doubles and a homer during postseason play...however, he hit .333 (12-for-36) with runners on base and .320 (8-for-25) with runners in scoring position...had at least one RBI in 11 of his last 13 postseason games, including six straight from Game #4 of the ALDS to Game #4 of the ALCS.
- Recorded a postseason high with three RBI in Game #4 of the ALDS at Houston, which included a two-run homer in the ninth inning of the 9-6 win.
- Had three game-winning RBI: a go-ahead single in the eighth inning of Game #6 of the ALCS vs. Toronto...also plated the winning run in the 14th inning in Game #1 of the World Series, collecting a sac fly.
- Scored the tying run in the ninth inning of Game #5 of the World Series, coming in from third on a Salvador Perez ground out.

- Enjoyed a breakout year in 2004, his first full season at the Major League level, with Detroit...established career highs in triples (nine), homers (16), RBI (55) and walks (40).
- His nine triples in 2004 tied for fourth in the American League with Texas' Michael Young...grounded into just four double plays in 503 at bats, giving him the third-best ratio in the league (125.8 at bats/double play).
- Blasted his first lead-off home run, July 10, 2004, at Minnesota...hit four more lead-off homers during the season.
- Recorded first multi-homer game on July 22, 2004 vs. the Royals...also recorded his first four-hit game at Kauffman Stadium on September 23, 2003.
- Ranked eighth among A.L. second basemen with 73 double plays turned in 2004...did not commit an error from June 20-July 27, which spanned 32 consecutive games and 150 total chances at second base and in center field.
- Made his MLB debut September 7, 2002 at Yankee Stadium...he collected the game-winning RBI with a single off Mike Mussina in the eighth inning.
- Earned Tigers Player of the Month honors in September, 2002, hitting .333 (24-for-72) with three doubles, a homer and six RBI in his first 18 games in the Majors.
- Participated in the 2002 XM Futures All-Star Game at Miller Park in Milwaukee on July 7...went 1-for-2 with a single for the World Team.

2015 SEASON

- Spent the season with the San Diego Padres, going 9-15 and a 4.28 ERA with a .258 opponents' average in 30 starts.
- He recorded 30 starts or more for the sixth straight season, becoming the only National League pitcher to accomplish this and one of just nine Major League hurlers.
- From June 1 on, he posted a 3.41 ERA (49 ER in 129.1 IP) with 137 strikeouts and a 7-10 mark...his 9.53 strikeouts per 9.0 IP in that span ranked seventh in the National League.
- Recorded 98 strikeouts after the All-Star break, which were the fifth-most in the N.L. and 10th-most in the Majors...his total also tied for fifth-most by a Padres hurler after the break.
- Matched a career-high with 12 strikeouts vs. Texas on September 2...had three starts of 10 strikeouts or more, which tied his highest total in a season (2011).
- Allowed 15 unearned runs, third highest total in the Majors and second-most in the N.L. (Andrew Cashner, 22).
- During a 12-start stretch between June 13-August 21, he allowed at least one home run in each start...still posted a 2.63 ERA in that time (21 ER in 72.0 IP)...according to Elias Sports Bureau, Kennedy is the only Major League pitcher to surrender a homer in 11-straight starts or more and maintain an ERA below 3.00 in that span.
- Prior to his start on July 31 in Miami, his wife, Alison gave birth to their fourth child, Evelyn Nicole...Kennedy made the start that night, a Padres 8-3 victory, unable to return to California due to weather.
- Missed 14 games after being placed on the 15-day D.L. with a strained left hamstring on April 10.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Signed a five-year free agent contract on January 29, 2016.
- Between 2010 and 2015, Ian was tops in the National League in starts (192), third in innings (1,175.0), fourth in strikeouts (1,097) and tied for fifth in wins (74).
- In his career, he's 42-24 with a 3.46 ERA in 88 starts after the All-Star break...is 33-44 with a 4.37 ERA before the break.
- Recorded a career-high 207 strikeouts in 2014, tying him for fifth in the N.L. with Zack Greinke...he became the fourth Padres hurler (sixth occurrence) to record 200+ strikeouts in a season and first since Jake Peavy (240 in 2007).
- Posted a 9.27 strikeouts per 9.0 innings mark in 2014, the sixth best by a starting pitcher in franchise history...ranked fourth in the N.L. and 10th in the Majors.
- Tallied 133 strikeouts before the All-Star break in 2014, the second most for a San Diego hurler in the first half, behind only Andy Benes (138 K in 1994)...he ranked third in the N.L. at the break.
- Topped the 200.0-inning plateau for the third time in his career, racking up 201.0 frames...also did it twice with Arizona.
- Matched a career high and set a Padres' season high with 12 strikeouts on May 12, 2014 vs. Miami...in that game, he hit his first career home run, a solo shot off Jacob Turner...became the sixth pitcher since 1985 to record 12 strikeouts and homer in the same game.
- Acquired by San Diego on July 31, 2013 from Arizona, in exchange for LHP Joe Thatcher and RHP Matt Stites.
- Over his first eight start with the Padres, went 3-1 with a 3.66 ERA (19 ER in 46.2 IP) and a .220 opponents average.
- Had 12 hit batsmen in 2013, tying with Stephen Strasburg for third most among N.L. pitchers.
- Served a 10-game suspension on June 27, 2013 for his role in an on-field incident at Dodger Stadium.

Ian Kennedy (Conf.)

- Made a career-high 33 starts in 2012, which tied for the N.L. lead...also ranked sixth in wins and 10th in innings pitched...recorded nine second half victories, tied for the most in the National League.
- In 2012, walked 11 times in 62 plate appearances (.238 OBP), the most by a pitcher since Montreal's Steve Rogers (11) in 1982.
- Had his career-best nine-game winning streak come to and end with a 2-1 loss at Washington on May 3, 2012...streak dated back to August 23, 2011.
- Became the second Diamondbacks pitcher (fifth time) to record 12 strikeouts in less than 6.0 innings, June 5, 2012 vs. Colorado...Randy Johnson did it four times with Arizona.
- Tripled with the bases loaded on July 23, 2012 vs. Colorado, collecting the seventh triple by a pitcher in franchise history...his three RBI in that game were a career high.
- Finished fourth in the National League Cy Young Award voting in 2011...setting career highs in wins (21), starts (33) and ERA (2.88).
- His .840 winning percentage in 2011 (21-4) was the best in the National League since 1999 when Mike Hampton went 22-4 (.846) with Houston.
- Became one of nine pitchers since 1950 to win 20 games, make 30 starts and suffer four losses or fewer, joining Preacher Row (1951), Whitey Ford (1961), Ron Guidry (1978), Dwight Gooden (1985), Roger Clemens (1986, 2001), Mike Hampton (1999), Pedro Martinez (2002) and Cliff Lee (2008).
- Made his first career Opening Day start on April 1, 2011 at Colorado, taking a no-decision in a 7-6 D-backs win...he allowed three earned runs in 6.0 innings.
- Went 10-0 against the National League West in 2011...became the third Arizona pitcher to win his first nine-plus decisions against intra-division foes, joining Curt Schilling (2002) and Brandon Webb (2008).
- Recorded 12 of his wins after the All-Star break in 2011, tying him for the Major League lead with Clayton Kershaw and Justin Verlander.
- Tossed first career shutout on April 25, 2011 vs. Philadelphia, allowing three hits with 10 strikeouts...became the third D-backs pitcher to record a shutout with three hits or fewer, no walks and 10 or more strikeouts, joining Curt Schilling (April 10, 2001 vs. L.A. Dodgers) and Randy Johnson (May 18, 2004 at Atlanta).
- Completed his shutout in two hours, four minutes, the exact time his daughter, Nora Rose, was born on the previous day (2:04).
- Won seven-straight starts from July 8 to August 12, 2011, tying for the second-longest streak in club history...only Brandon Webb's nine-straight wins in 2008 was longer.
- Made two starts in the 2011 National League Division Series, going 0-1 with a 4.26 ERA, vs. Milwaukee...suffered the Game #1 loss (4 ER in 6.2 IP), while he did not factor into the decision in Game #5 (2 ER in 6.0 IP).
- Named the Most Valuable Pitcher by the Arizona Chapter of the BBWAA in 2010, his first full season with the D-backs.
- In 2010, ranked among the N.L. leaders in opponents' average (eighth) and hits allowed per 9.0 innings (ninth).
- Earned his first win with Arizona on April 29 at Wrigley Field (13-5), which was also his first Major League win since his debut on September 1, 2007.
- Acquired by Arizona from the New York Yankees on December 8, 2009, in a three-team deal that also included Detroit.
- Missed a majority of the 2009 season with an aneurysm near his right shoulder.
- Placed on the disabled list on April 28, 2009 with what was originally diagnosed as a vasospasm on his right middle finger...later diagnosed with an aneurysm near his right shoulder...underwent surgery on May 12...reinstated from the D.L. and recalled on September 19 and made one appearance vs. the Angels on September 23.
- In 2008, appeared in 10 games, making nine starts over four Major League stints with the Yankees...his 8.17 ERA was the highest ever by a Yankees' pitcher that made at least nine starts.
- His nine winless starts in 2008 were tied for the most by a Yankees pitcher (Steve Trout, 1987)...it was the longest winless streak by a Yankees rookie to start a season.
- Named the Yankees' Minor League Pitcher of the Year in 2007, going 12-3 with a 1.91 ERA with four minor league clubs.
- Made his Major League debut on September 1, 2007, earning a 9-6 win vs. Tampa Bay, allowing one earned run over 7.0 innings...did not pitch after September 13, suffering a strained upper back muscle during a bullpen session.

Signed Through: 2016
Acquired: Signed as a Major League free agent, Dec. 18, 2014

2015 SEASON

- Kris returned to a big league mound for the first time since the 2013 season, coming back from a second 'Tommy John' operation.
- Joined the Royals after the All-Star break, making 15 appearances and eight starts in the second half...posted a 6-2 record with a 4.01 ERA and .252 opponents' average.
- Made his first appearance with the Royals on July 20, tossing 3.1 innings of relief vs. Pittsburgh...it marked his first outing since September 27, 2013, a 1-0 win over the Phillies as a member of Atlanta.
- Posted a 1-0 record and a 2.51 ERA (4 ER in 14.1 IP) as a reliever, while he was 5-2 with a 4.50 ERA as a starting pitcher.
- Phenomenal on the road, posting a 5-0 record and a 1.20 ERA (4 ER in 30.0 IP) away from Kauffman Stadium...held the opposition to a .214 batting average on the road, which ranked eighth in the A.L. during the second half.
- Went 3-0 with a 2.79 ERA in six appearances (two starts) during the month of August...however, he was 2-2 with a 5.06 ERA in September.
- Recorded a 2-0 record and a 3.52 ERA (6 ER in 15.1 IP) in two starts and four appearances against A.L. East foes.
- Earned his first victory as a Royal on August 18 at Cincinnati, tossing a scoreless 12th inning before the Royals scored the winning run in the 13th in a 3-1 win.
- Made his first start on August 24, tossing 6.0 innings vs. the Orioles in a 6-3 win.
- Tossed 6.1 scoreless frames in a 2-0 win at Cleveland on September 15...he allowed just five hits and one walk...however, he did not record a strikeout, marking his first outing of 6.0 innings or more without recording a K.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Made two appearances during the postseason, allowing two runs on three hits with a walk and eight strikeouts.
- Tossed 5.0 innings out of the bullpen in Game #3 of the ALCS at Rogers Centre, which was the longest relief outing by a Royals pitcher in a postseason game since Charlie Leibrandt worked 5.1 innings in Game #7 of the 1985 ALCS in Toronto.
- Made first World Series appearance in Game #3, recording a flawless eighth inning in the Mets' lone victory.

AWARDS/HONORS

2013	National League Pitcher of the Month (September)	2012	First MLB save: April 27 vs. Pittsburgh
2012	National League Pitcher of the Month (September)	2009	First MLB win: May 31 @ Arizona
2012	National League Pitcher of the Month (August)	2007	South Atlantic League (A) All-Star

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Kris signed a two-year free agent contract on December 18, 2014...deal includes a mutual option for 2017.
- Had the longest streak of starts won by his club (23) in Major League history, from May 29, 2010 to September 30, 2012...it was the longest streak of its kind since the Yankees won 22-straight games started by Whitey Ford from 1950-53.
- His 2.67 ERA since the 2012 All-Star break is the sixth-lowest among pitchers that have thrown at least 300 innings in that span.
- In his career, he's 12-3 with a 2.11 ERA (26 ER in 110.2 IP) in the month of August, and 10-3 with a 2.39 ERA (31 ER in 116.2 IP) in September.
- In 69 career starts, he's 35-15 with a 3.12 ERA (147 ER in 424.0 IP) with a .248 opponents' average...in his 98 career relief appearances, he's 5-7 with a 2.88 ERA (47 ER in 147.0 IP) and a .242 opponents' average.
- Missed the entire 2014 season after suffering an elbow injury during Spring Training...he had season-ending "Tommy John" surgery on March 19, 2014, the second of his career.
- In 2013, ranked sixth in the National League in wins, 13th in ERA and 25th in WHIP (1.25).
- Named the N.L. Pitcher of the Month in September 2013, going 4-0 with a 1.00 ERA in five starts during the month...finished the season with a five-game winning streak (dating to August 29), while posting an 0.84 ERA (4 ER in 43.0 IP).

- Made second career postseason start in Game #1 of the 2013 NLDS, suffering a 6-1 loss to the Los Angeles Dodgers on October 3...allowed five runs on nine hits over 4.0+ innings after fanning the first three hitters of the game.
- In 2012, started the season in the bullpen, but was moved to the starting rotation on July 31, and went 9-0 with a 0.97 ERA in his 12 starts.
- Named the N.L. Pitcher of the Month in both August and September in 2012...during the final two months of the regular season, he walked nine and fanned 81.
- He was 8-0 with a 0.76 ERA through his first 10 starts of the regular season...according to Elias Sports Bureau, he became just the second pitcher in Braves history to post an ERA under 1.00 and win at least eight games in a 10-start span, joining Warren Spahn (10-0, 0.99) in 1961.
- Collected 12 strikeouts in a complete-game win vs. Colorado on September 3, 2012 and 13 strikeouts vs. Washington, September 14, becoming the first Braves' hurler since 1900 to record multiple starts with 12 strikeouts or more in the same month.
- Tossed first career complete-game shutout, scattering five hits in a 6-0 blanking of San Diego on August 16, 2012.
- Suffered the loss in the first-ever N.L. Wild Card Game, a 6-3 setback to St. Louis on October 5, 2012...he allowed just two earned runs (three unearned) in 6.2 innings on three hits with no walks and four strikeouts.
- Spent a majority of the 2011 season on the disabled list, recovering from "Tommy John" surgery (August 18, 2010)...reinstated from the D.L. on September 24, 2011 and made two relief appearances in September.
- In 2010, opened the year in the bullpen, but was moved to the starting rotation on May 8...made 14 starts, going 5-0 with a 3.86 ERA, while he was 1-2 with a 3.04 ERA in 17 appearances out of the 'pen.
- Suffered a partial tear to his ulnar collateral ligament on August 4, 2010 in a start vs. the New York Mets.
- In 2009, made his Major League debut on May 21, suffering a 9-0 loss in a start vs. Colorado, when he allowed five runs in 3.0 innings.
- Made just four starts and 33 relief appearances in 2009... posted a 2-3 record and a 3.54 ERA with 53 strikeouts out of the bullpen...recorded a 2.80 ERA (11 ER in 35.1 IP) in 26 relief outings after the All-Star break.
- Tabbed the Braves' ninth-best prospect entering the 2008 season by Baseball America and the 10th-best by ESPN.com.
- Named the Braves 28th-ranked prospect by Baseball America following his first professional season in 2006.

Opening day age: 30
Resides: Sao Paulo, Brazil
MLB Service: 137 days
Signed Through: 2016
Acquired: Signed as a minor league free agent, Oct. 31, 2013

2015 SEASON

- After nine full seasons in the minor leagues, Paulo made his first Opening Day roster and played in 86 games during his rookie campaign.
- Collected his first five triples in his first seven Major League games, becoming the first player since at least 1901 to do this according to Elias Sports Bureau...his six triples in 2015 were tied for sixth among Major League rookies.
- Became the first Royal since 2009 to collect two triples in the same game, April 12 at Angel Stadium...Omar Infante also recorded two triples on August 24, vs. Baltimore.
- Batted .296 (16-for-54) with a .333 on-base percentage when leading off an inning...batted .321 (25-for-78) with no outs.
- Recorded 14 of his 27 RBI in the seventh inning or later, while he slugged .462 (four doubles, three triples, four homers) after the sixth.
- Blasted the fifth walk-off grand slam in franchise history on July 7, beating Tampa Bay, 9-5...it was the first slam of Paulo's career and first by a Royal in 2015.
- Connected for his first Major League home run on May 26 in the Bronx, taking Adam Warren deep.
- Homered in the eighth inning in the final game before the All-Star break, giving KC an 11-10 win over Toronto.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Made 12 appearances in postseason play, including all five games of the World Series.
- Became the third Royals' rookie to collect two hits in a postseason game in Game #4 of the ALCS, joining Tom Poquette (1976) and Clint Hurdle (1978).
- Collected a sacrifice fly in Game #2 of the World Series, making him the first KC rookie to record an RBI in a World Series game...Christian Colon became the second with his go-ahead RBI single in Game #5.

Opening day age: 25
Resides: Valencia, Venezuela
MLB Service: 4 years, 50 days
Signed Through: 2016
Acquired: Signed as a non-drafted free agent, Sept. 27, 2006

2015 SEASON

- Salvador was selected to the All-Star Game for the third time in his career, starting behind the plate for the American League for the second-straight season...he became the first Royal to start consecutive years at the Midsummer Classic since George Brett did it in five-straight years (1981-85).
- Earned his third-straight Rawlings Gold Glove, becoming the first A.L. catcher to win three straight since Joe Mauer (2008-10).
- Set a franchise record with 21 home runs as a catcher, passing Mike Macfarlane, who hit 20 as a backstop in 1993...eight of his 21 home runs came in the seventh inning or later.
- Blasted a go-ahead solo shot off Texas reliever Keone Kela in the eighth inning of a 4-3 victory on June 7.
- Hit a game-tying two-run homer in the ninth inning at Detroit on September 18, sending the game into extra-innings.
- Led A.L. catchers in hits (137) and doubles (25) and ranked third in homers (21) and RBI (70).
- Recorded 38 two-out RBI, which ranked ninth in the American League...hit .371 (26-for-70) with runners in scoring position and two outs, which was third in the A.L. among hitters with at least 50 at-bats in those situations.
- Hit .311 with a .489 slugging percentage with runners in scoring position.
- Batted .293 (22-for-75) with five doubles and two homers in 19 Interleague games.
- Hit .326 (28-for-86) with five doubles, three homers and 14 RBI during the month of April...batted .296 (32-for-108) with six doubles, three homers and 15 RBI over his final 30 regular season games.
- Matched a career high with two doubles at Baltimore on September 13, marking the seventh time he's done that.
- Had three hits in a game six times and had four games with three RBI.
- Tied for third in the A.L., throwing out 24 would-be basestealers...since the start of the 2013 season, Salvy has gunned down 70 runners trying to steal, which ranks second in the Major Leagues, behind only Russell Martin (82).

2015 POSTSEASON

- Unanimously named World Series MVP, becoming the seventh catcher to win MVP honors in the Fall Classic and first since Toronto's Pat Borders in 1992...also the second Venezuelan-born player to earn the honor, joining Pablo Sandoval, who did it with San Francisco in 2012.
- Started all 16 postseason games behind the plate...hit four postseason homers, which tied for fifth among all participants...his 10 runs scored also tied for fifth.
- His four homers were tied for second most by a catcher in a single postseason, while he was the first backstop to hit as many as four home runs since Boston's Jason Varitek did it during the 2003 playoffs.
- Hit .364 (8-for-22) with two doubles and two RBI during the World Series...collected three hits in Game #4 of the series, his second three-hit contest in the Fall Classic.
- In 12 career World Series games, he's hit .348 (16-for-46) with three doubles, a homer and six RBI...hit safely in 10 of 12 contests during the Fall Classic.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Signed a five-year extension on March 1, 2016 that runs through the 2021 season.
- Enters 2016 with 17 career pickoffs, fifth-most among active backstops...his caught stealing percentage (32.1) since the start of 2011 ranks eighth among Major League catchers that have played at least 400 games.
- Earned his second Rawlings Gold Glove and was selected to the American League All-Star team in 2014...he became the first Royal to start an All-Star Game since Jermaine Dye in 2000.
- Started a club record 143 games behind the plate, while his 146 games as a catcher overall were the most in the Majors since Russell Martin caught 149 games for the Dodgers in 2008.
- Led A.L. backstops in hits, multi-hit games (40) and was second in extra-base hits (47) and tied for second in runs scored (57) in 2014...his 150 hits were the most by a Royals catcher since Darrell Porter (155) in 1979.
- Batted .320 (24-for-75) with five doubles and 14 RBI in Interleague contests in 2014.
- Went 4-for-4 on Opening Day (March 31) in Detroit...became the first Royal to collect four hits or more on Opening Day since Fred Patek did it against Toronto in 1979.
- Caught every inning of KC's 16 postseason games in 2014...combined with the regular season, his 161 games caught were the most in Major League history.
- Hit .333 during the 2014 World Series...homed off World Series MVP Madison Bumgarner in Game #1, the only run allowed by the lefty in the Fall Classic...also added a two-run double in Game #2 of the series.
- Collected the third walk-off hit in Royals postseason history with a game-winning RBI single in the 12th inning of the 2014 Wild Card Game vs. Oakland.
- Had a breakout year in 2013, becoming the first Royals' catcher selected to the All-Star Game since 1980 (Darrell Porter) and the first KC backstop to earn a Rawlings Gold Glove award since 1989 (Bob Boone)...also the first KC player to collect a hit in the Midsummer Classic since Bo Jackson (1989).
- In 2013, hit .367 (44-for-120) with eight homers and 32 RBI after August 23...tied with Detroit's Victor Martinez for highest average and most hits in that span...his 32 RBI over the final 36 games were second-most in MLB to San Francisco's Hunter Pence (35).
- In 2013, ranked second in the American League with a .377 average (46-for-122) with runners in scoring position...also ninth in the league, batting .317 vs. left-handed pitching...batted .310 (77-for-248) vs. A.L. Central opponents, which ranked second to Detroit's Victor Martinez (.331) for highest within the division (min. 200 AB).
- Led A.L. catchers, throwing out 23 would-be base stealers during the 2013 season...threw out 35.2 percent of baserunners trying to steal, the second-highest percentage in the league among backstops with at least 100 games.
- KC's pitchers had a 3.36 ERA when he was behind the plate, the best mark in the A.L. in 2013 and fifth best in the Majors.
- Recorded first career multi-homer game at Minnesota, August 28, 2013, becoming the first KC catcher to homer twice in a game since Miguel Olivo in 2009...also matched career bests with four hits and four RBI in the same game.
- Missed nine games after being placed on the Bereavement List (May 25) and seven games after being placed on the Concussion D.L. (August 3) in 2013.
- Led all MLB catchers with five pickoffs in just 74 games in 2012, two more than anybody else...the five pickoffs were a franchise single-season record.
- Opened the 2012 season on the 60-day D.L., due to surgery to repair a torn meniscus in his left knee in March...reinstated on June 22, and opened his season with an 11-game hitting streak, in which he hit .425 (17-for-40).
- Posted a career-best and 2012 team-high 17-game hitting streak from August 22-September 13...hit .361 (26-for-72) during the streak, which was the longest by a Royals catcher...also hit safely in 16-straight games as a catcher (one as a DH), the longest in the Majors in 2012.
- After returning from the D.L. on June 22, 2012, led all A.L. catchers (min. 70 games caught) in batting average (.301), hits (87), runs (38) and doubles (16).
- Hit his first professional walk-off homer on September 15, 2012 vs. the Los Angeles Angels.
- Following the 2012 season, was named Venezuelan Winter League Rookie of the Year, batting .371 (49-for-132) with 10 doubles, eight homers, 39 RBI and 23 runs scored in 32 games for La Guaira.
- Had his contract selected on August 10, 2011 and made his debut that night at Tampa Bay...recorded his first big league hit with a single and also picked off runners at both first and third base.
- Named the "Best Defensive Catcher" in the organization by Baseball America entering the 2009, 2010 and 2011 seasons.

Resides: Scottsdale, AZ
MLB Service: 9 years
Signed Through: 2018
Acquired: Signed as a Major League free agent, Dec. 10, 2015

2015 SEASON

- Made a career-high 72 appearances combined between Detroit and Pittsburgh, going 3-1 with a 2.53 ERA and 24 saves in 30 chances.
- Acquired by the Pirates on July 30 in exchange for minor league infielder JaCoby Jones.
- Ranked fifth in the A.L. in saves (23) at the time of the trade...set the Tigers' club record for saves in the month of April (nine).
- Earned career save No. 200 on July 22 vs. Seattle...became the first Mexican-born pitcher to record 200 big league saves.
- Posted a 1.64 ERA (6 ER in 33.0 IP) over his final 35 appearances, dating back to July 17...surrendered just one home run (Brian Dozier, July 10) over his final 43 outings (40.0 IP), dating back to June 25.
- Recorded an 0.51 ERA (1 ER in 17.2 IP) in 18 appearances at PNC Park.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Struck out the side in the eighth inning of the 2015 National League Wild Card Game vs. the Chicago Cubs...allowed a leadoff walk to Chris Denorfia before fanning Kris Bryant, Anthony Rizzo and Austin Jackson in succession.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Joakim signed a three-year free agent contract on December 10, 2015, with a mutual option for the 2019 season.
- Enters the 2016 season with a career save percentage of 87.8 (202-for-230), ranking seventh all-time among MLB pitchers with at least 180 opportunities.
- Since his debut in 2007, he's recorded 202 saves, which are 10th-most in the Majors in that span.
- Ranks third in club history in saves (160) and eighth in appearances (298).
- Opened the 2014 season with Texas, but was acquired by Detroit on July 23 in exchange for RHP Corey Knebel.
- In 2014, held right-handed hitters to a .174 batting average (12-for-69), good for 15th among A.L. hurlers that faced at least 60 righties.
- Placed on the 15-day D.L. with a left oblique strain, August 11, 2014...reinstated on September 10.
- Made two appearances for Detroit in the 2014 ALDS vs. Baltimore...suffered the loss in Game #2 at Camden Yards, allowing the go-ahead run in a four-run eighth inning.
- Limited to 28 games in 2013, spending most of the season recovering from "Tommy John" surgery...made his first Major League appearance in 15 months on July 7 vs. Houston, tossing a scoreless sixth inning.
- Allowed a walk-off grand slam to then-Royals outfielder Justin Maxwell on September 22, 2013...it marked the first slam he's surrendered and the fourth walk-off home run.
- Earned his only victory of the 2013 season, September 28, tossing a season-high 1.1 innings vs. the Los Angeles Angels.
- Signed a two-year free agent contract with Texas on December 6, 2012.
- Spent the entire 2012 season on the disabled list with Kansas City after suffering an elbow injury during Spring Training...surgery was performed on April 3 by Dr. Lewis Yocum.
- Had a rough start to the 2011 season, posting a 6.55 ERA in his first 13 outings with five blown saves in his first 12 chances...however, he posted a 2.97 ERA with 21 saves in 23 chances in his final 34 appearances (from June 9 on).
- Named the 2010 Bruce Rice Pitcher of the Year by the Kansas City Chapter of the BBWAA, the second time he had earned the award...finished second in the A.L. with a career-high 43 saves, just two behind Tampa Bay's Rafael Soriano.
- In 2010, recorded his third-straight season with 30 saves or more, becoming the first Royal to accomplish this since Jeff Montgomery (1991-93)...Montgomery and Dan Quisenberry each had five seasons of 30+ saves.

- Selected to his second All-Star team in 2010, but did not appear in the game in Anaheim...he is one of six Mexican-born players to be selected to multiple All-Star Games...Fernando Valenzuela tops the list with six.
- Set Royals' club record with 36 saves in a row, from May 13-September 30, 2010, before blowing a save the final day of the season (October 3) vs. Tampa Bay...shattered the previous mark of 24, by Jeff Montgomery in 1993.
- Posted his 100th career save on May 26, 2010 vs. Texas, becoming the sixth-youngest pitcher to record 100 saves in MLB history according to Elias Sports Bureau.
- Recorded his 94th career save on April 25, 2010 vs. Minnesota, eclipsing Aurelio Lopez' record for saves by a Mexican-born pitcher.
- Led the Majors in 2009 with five saves of 2.0 innings or more...no other pitcher had more than two.
- Named an All Star for the first time in 2008, recording 42 saves in 45 chances...in his appearances at Yankee Stadium, he worked 1.2 innings, allowing two hits and two walks with a pair of strikeouts.
- His 93.3 save percentage in 2008 was tops in club history among hurlers with at least 30 chances, but has since been passed by himself (93.5 in 2010) and Greg Holland (twice).
- Unanimously selected as the Bruce Rice Pitcher of the Year in 2008 by the Kansas City Chapter of the BBWAA.
- His 42 saves in 2008 were second-most in the A.L., behind Francisco Rodriguez (62) and third most in the Major Leagues...became the 14th closer in MLB history to record more saves than hits allowed (39).
- Opponents batted just .169 against him in 2008, which ranked fourth in the Majors among pitchers with at least 30.0 innings...it still ranks fifth in franchise history, having been passed by Wade Davis each of the past two seasons.
- Retired 24 consecutive hitters from April 2-26 in 2008.
- Posted a 2.48 ERA (19 ER in 69.0 IP) in his rookie season of 2007, which is still second lowest by a first-year Royals pitcher...Kelvin Herrera has the top mark with a 2.35 ERA in 2012.
- His 17 saves in 2007 led all Major League rookies...he also tied for the lead among MLB rookie relievers with 9.78 strikeouts per 9.0 innings (75 K in 69.0 IP).
- Earned the save over Minnesota on April 22, 2007, closing out a 3-1 win for fellow countryman Jorge De La Rosa...it marked just the 11th time in MLB history that Mexican-born pitchers earned a win and a save in the same game...the duo did it again on May 2, 2007 vs. the Los Angeles Angels.
- Led the Mexican Winter League in 2006 in wins and strikeouts and finished second in ERA...tossed just the third perfect game in league history on December 9, 2006 vs. Hermosillo...he fanned nine and threw just 101 pitches.
- Missed the entire 2003 minor league season recovering from "Tommy John" surgery on his right elbow.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

- Full name is Joakim Agustin Soria...resides in Scottsdale, Ariz., with wife, Karla, daughter, Angela and son, Joakim.
- Participated in the 2009 Royals Caravan and Royals FanFest in 2009, 2011 and 2016.
- Through the Joakim Soria Foundation, he raised funds with the State of Guerrero and the Mexican Navy to provide supplies and assistance to families affected by hurricanes Ingrid and Manuel in 2013.
- Represented Mexico in the 2009 World Baseball Classic, recording a pair of scoreless appearances with two strikeouts in 2.0 innings pitched.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Signed a four-year free-agent contract with KC on November 22, 2013, which runs through the 2017 season.
- Over the last five seasons, Jason's 10 complete games are tied for ninth in the Major Leagues with San Francisco's Madison Bumgarner...his six shutouts rank seventh.
- In 2014, posted a career-best 3.71 ERA (77 ER in 187.0 IP), which was the best by a qualifying Royals lefty since Charlie Leibrandt posted a 3.19 ERA in 1988...his 1.27 WHIP ranked eighth among A.L. southpaws.
- Ranked seventh in the A.L. in road ERA (2.73) in 2014, posting a 5-4 record away from Kauffman Stadium.
- Took a shutout into the ninth inning in his first start at Kauffman Stadium as a Royal, April 7, 2014 vs. Tampa Bay...however, he allowed a solo shot to Ben Zobrist to start the frame...still earned a 4-2 victory.
- Placed on the 15-day D.L. on July 10, 2014, following an appendectomy...reinstated August 2 and started that afternoon in Oakland.
- Recorded sixth career shutout and 12th complete game on August 13, 2014, blanking the A's (3-0) on three hits.
- Made three postseason starts in 2014, earning a win in Game #4 of the American League Championship Series (2-1) over the Orioles...he allowed one run on two hits over 5.1 innings as KC completed a four-game sweep.
- In 2013, tied for third in the American League with three complete games and two shutouts pitching for the Los Angeles Angels...shutouts came vs. Baltimore (3-0) on May 3 and vs. Oakland (4-0) on September 24.
- Named A.L. Pitcher of the Month in May of 2013, going 5-0 with a 2.30 ERA (11 ER in 43.0 IP)...recorded 7.0-plus innings in seven of his eight starts between April 23 and May 30.
- In 2013, was 6-2 with a 3.30 ERA (29 ER in 79.0 IP) at Angel Stadium...had a career 3.62 ERA in his home starts.
- Missed nearly two months of action in 2013 with a blood clot in his left arm...placed on the 15-day D.L. June 18 and returned to the team August 13.
- From 2010-12, was one of eight left-handed pitchers to log 192.0 innings or more each year...during that time, his 168 walks were third-fewest among MLB lefties behind only Mark Buehrle (134) and Cole Hamels (157).
- In 2012, led Seattle in wins (14), while setting career highs in starts (33), innings pitched (217.1), strikeouts (141) and quality starts (22)...his 217.1 innings were tops among A.L. southpaws.
- Ranked fourth in the American League in quality starts in 2012, behind David Price (25), Justin Verlander (25) and Jake Peavy (23)...ranked 10th in the league in WHIP (1.18).
- Tabbed A.L. Pitcher of the Month in July, 2012, going 5-0 with a 1.64 ERA (8 ER in 44.0 innings)...also held opponents to a .206 batting average that month.
- Went 10-4 with a 2.94 ERA in his 18 starts after a loss in 2012.
- In 2011, tied for third in the A.L. in shutouts (three) and tied for fourth in complete games (four)...became first Mariners pitcher to record three shutouts or more in a season since Freddy Garcia (three in 2001).
- Had second-lowest run support average in the A.L. in 2011 at 3.40...went 9-2 when his team scored three runs or more.
- Finished 2011 season 3-0 with a 2.03 ERA (6 ER in 26.2 IP) over his final four starts, September 8-26...snapped a career-worst nine-game losing streak with a win on April 29 at Boston (5-4).

- In 2010, tied for eighth in the A.L. with 21 quality starts...held left-handed hitters to a .200 average (36-for-180), which ranked ninth in the league among qualifying hurlers.
- Went 9-5 with a 3.15 ERA through his first 23 starts of 2010.
- Tabbed 2010 Mariners Unsung Hero by the Seattle Chapter of the BBWAA.
- Had three stints with Seattle in 2009, recovering from hip surgery in the previous season...went 3-3 with a 3.82 ERA (27 ER in 63.2 IP) before the All-Star break and 0-3 with a 7.39 ERA after the break.
- Missed the entire 2008 season after undergoing surgery to repair labrum in his left hip on March 17.
- Spent a majority of the 2007 season at New Orleans (AAA), but made two starts with the Mets (May 17 vs. Cubs and July 7 at Colorado)...ranked second on Zephyrs staff in wins (nine), innings (125.0) and strikeouts (108).
- Began 2006 season in Florida Marlins' starting rotation, but went 1-1 with a 6.40 ERA before being optioned to Albuquerque (AAA) on May 14...picked up lone MLB win on April 18 vs. San Diego, 9-2.
- Broke into Marlins' rotation in July, 2005, going 4-5 with a 4.14 ERA as a starter...earned first MLB victory on July 27, tossing 3.0 innings of scoreless relief in a 3-1 win vs. Pittsburgh.
- Recorded first complete game, August 21, 2005, in a 7-1 triumph vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers...batted .308 (8-for-26) with two doubles and two RBI in first big league season.

Born: June 3, 1991 (Samana, D.R.)

Opening day age: 24

Resides: Samana, Dominican Republic

MLB Service: 2 years, 13 days

Signed Through: 2019

Acquired: Signed as a non-drafted free agent, Oct. 8, 2008

2015 SEASON

- Yordano had an up-and-down start to the year, but found his stride after the All-Star break...posted a 9-2 record with a 3.56 ERA in 15 starts after the break...was 4-6 with a 4.73 ERA before the Midsummer Classic.
- His nine victories after the All-Star break were tied for second-most in the A.L., behind only Houston's Collin McHugh (10)...also posted the sixth-most strikeouts (98) and 16th-best ERA (3.56) among starting pitchers.
- Went 9-1 with a 3.10 ERA (30 ER in 87.0 IP) with 33 walks and 91 strikeouts over his final 14 starts of the year.
- He was placed on the 15-day D.L. on June 19 with ulnar neuritis, missing 20 games...he also missed seven games due to a suspension from Major League Baseball for his part in an on-field incident at U.S. Cellular Field on April 23.
- Posted a 7-5 record with a 3.84 ERA in 14 starts at Kauffman Stadium...that included a four-game winning streak over five home starts from July 26 to September 2 when he allowed four earned runs in 33.0 innings (1.09) ERA.
- Recorded an 8-2 record in day games, holding the opposition to a .234 batting average.
- Went 5-0 with a 3.94 ERA in five starts against the American League East...the only A.L. East club he didn't earn a win against was the Yankees, defeating Toronto, Boston, Tampa Bay and Baltimore twice.
- Posted a 3.34 ERA and a .225 opponents' batting average in six Interleague starts, however he was 1-3 in those outings.
- Had three starts in which he recorded a career-high 11 strikeouts, including back-to-back outings on August 27 vs. the Orioles and September 2 vs. Detroit...he became just the third Royal to record 11 or more Ks in back-to-back starts and first since Kevin Appier did it in 1996...also fanned 11 in his final regular season start at Target Field on October 3.
- Recorded four outings in which he did not allow a run over 6.0 innings or more...including 7.0 shutout frames on May 19 in a 3-0 win over Cincinnati and September 28 in a no-decision at Wrigley Field.
- Named the Royals Pitcher of the Month in consecutive months (August, September/October)...he was 4-0 with a 3.41 ERA in August and 4-1 with a 3.14 ERA in September/October.
- Optioned to Omaha (AAA) following his start on July 20, a 10-7 loss to Pittsburgh, but returned to the active roster the following day when Jason Vargas was placed on the disabled list.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Started five postseason games, recording 22 strikeouts in 21.0 innings...his strikeout total tied for seventh among all postseason participants...tied for second-highest in franchise history, behind Edinson Volquez (23).
- He's made nine career postseason starts before the age of 25, the second-most in Major League history behind Atlanta's Steve Avery, who made 10 postseason starts between 1991-93.
- Tallied a postseason-high eight strikeouts in 5.0 innings in Game #4 of the ALDS at Houston.
- Also allowed just one run over 5.1 frames in Game #6 of the ALCS vs. Toronto, but did not factor into the decision after the Jays tied the game in the eighth.

AWARDS/HONORS

2014 Joe Burke Special Achievement Award winner
 2014 First MLB win: April 15 @ Houston
 2013 Paul Splittorff Award (organization's pitcher of the year)
 2013 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game participant, World Team

2013 Texas League (AA) All-Star
 2012 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game participant, World Team
 2012 Wilmington (A) Pitcher of the Year
 2012 Carolina League (A) All-Star

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Signed a five-year contract on April 4, 2015, which includes club options for the 2020 and 2021 seasons.
- Over the last two seasons, he's tied for eighth in the American League in wins (27) and is tied for 14th in strikeouts.
- Became the fourth Royals rookie to make 30 starts or more in 2014 and first since Rich Gale in 1978...his 14 victories tied Gale for fourth all-time among the club's first-year pitchers and were the most since Tom Gordon's 17 in 1989.
- Led A.L. rookies with 22 quality starts, which was also a KC rookie record...collected 11-straight quality starts from July 25 to September 23, 2014, a club rookie record and the most by any Royals pitcher since 2002-03.
- Went 7-2 with a 2.63 ERA over his final 12 starts of the season...in his career, he's 14-4 with a 3.03 ERA in his 26 regular season outings after August 1.
- Earned his first MLB win on April 15, 2014, tossing 7.0 innings in a 4-2 win at Houston.

- Recorded his first double-digit strikeout game (10) at San Diego on May 4, 2014, but did not factor into the decision.
- Made four starts (five appearances) during the 2014 Postseason...his 25.1 innings ranked second among all participants behind Madison Bumgarner (52.2 IP).
- Earned first postseason win in Game #6 of the 2014 World Series, tossing 7.0 scoreless frames in a 10-0 KC triumph... became the first Royals rookie to win a World Series game...posted a 1.46 ERA (2 ER in 12.1 IP) during the Fall Classic.
- Rated as having the best fastball in the organization by Baseball America four-straight seasons (2011-14).
- Made his Major League debut on September 17, 2013 vs. Cleveland, taking a no-decision after tossing 5.1 innings... had a fastball clocked at 102.8 mph, the fastest pitch thrown on record by a starting pitcher in 2013.
- Started three games for KC in his first year in the Majors...held opponents to a .224 average, going 0-1 with a 3.52 ERA (6 ER in 15.1 IP).
- Named the Royals' Paul Splittorff Pitcher of the Year in 2013, which is awarded to the organization's top pitcher.
- Took no-decisions in first two MLB starts, leaving with the lead in both games...allowed one run on seven hits in his first 11.1 frames.
- Opened the 2013 season at Northwest Arkansas before being promoted to Omaha on his 22nd birthday, June 3... recorded a combined 155 strikeouts, which tied for 13th among all minor league pitchers.
- Posted a 3-1 record and a 2.76 ERA (13 ER in 42.1 IP) and 45 strikeouts after the All-Star break at Omaha in 2013.
- In 2013, earned Texas League All-Star honors, but did not pitch in the game due to his promotion to Triple-A.
- Recorded the final out for the World Team at the 2013 SiriusXM Futures All-Star Game, which marked his second-straight appearance at the event.
- Enjoyed a breakout campaign in 2012, beginning the season in Wilmington (A-Advanced), where he struck out 98 in 76.1 innings.
- Named a Carolina League All-Star in 2012 and tossed a scoreless fifth inning, working around a one-out walk and a pair of stolen bases.
- Earned the nod as the starting pitcher for the World team in the SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game in Kansas City on July 8, 2012...tossed a perfect bottom of the first inning, inducing three groundouts.
- Rated as the fourth-best prospect in the Royals organization by Baseball America entering the 2013 season.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

- Full name is Yordano (Hernandez) Ventura...pronounced yoe-DAH-noh...married wife, Maria del Pilar Sangiovanni, during the offseason.
- Participated in Royals FanFest in 2014 and 2015...also took part in a calendar shoot for Braden's Hope for childhood cancer research and the annual Gloves for Kids fundraiser...also chaired the 2014 Baseball Equipment Day.

EDINSON VOLQUEZ RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER | 36

Height/Weight: 6-0 / 220

Bats/Throws: R/R

Born: July 3, 1983 (Barahona, D.R.)

Opening day age: 32

Resides: Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

MLB Service: 8 years, 59 days

Signed Through: 2016

Acquired: Signed as a Major League free agent, Dec. 29, 2014

2015 SEASON

- Edinson won 13 games for the second-straight season and topped the 200.0 inning mark for the first time in his career in his first season with Kansas City...led the club with 19 quality starts, matching his total from 2014 with Pittsburgh.
- Went 8-4 with a 3.48 ERA and a .236 opponents' average in his 16 starts at Kauffman Stadium...his eight victories at home tied for eighth in the American League.
- A long-time National Leaguer, he went 3-0 with a 2.67 ERA in five Interleague starts...tossed a 6.0-inning complete game in a rain-shortened 3-2 win over St. Louis on May 23.
- Went 8-4 with a 3.31 ERA before the All-Star break and was 5-5 with a 3.82 ERA after the Midsummer Classic.
- Held the opposition to a .202 batting average (38-for-188) with runners in scoring position, which ranked fifth among qualifying A.L. hurlers...he also allowed just nine extra-base hits with RISP for the second-lowest slugging pct. in scoring situations (.250), trailing only Baltimore's Wei-Yin Chen (.239).
- Named the Royals Pitcher of the Month in June...posted a 4-1 record and a 3.64 ERA in the month.
- Opponents batted just .103 against him (7-for-68) with a full count...held the opposition to a .175 average (70-for-399) with two strikes.
- Worked a season-high 8.0 innings in his first start of the year, April 9, in a 4-1 win over the White Sox.
- Tossed 7.0 scoreless innings, allowing just three hits, in a 6-0 win over the New York Yankees on May 17...it was his longest outing of the season without giving up a run.
- Tallied a season-high nine strikeouts in his May 29 start at Wrigley Field, however he did not factor into the decision on a rare blown save by the Royals' pen.
- Recorded a pair of scoreless frames in relief on October 4 at Minnesota, pushing him over the 200.0-inning mark...it was his only relief appearance of the season and first since April 3, 2014 vs. the Cubs.
- Served a five-game suspension, April 27-May 2, for his part in an on-field altercation at U.S. Cellular Field on April 23.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Made five starts during the postseason, posting a 1-2 mark with a 3.77 ERA, holding the opposition to a .186 batting average.
- Set a Royals record with 23 strikeouts in a single postseason, while his total tied for fifth among all 2015 participants...also pitched the second-most innings (28.2) by a Royal in one postseason.
- Recorded a postseason-high eight strikeouts in his Game #3 start in the ALDS at Houston...his total also tied for the second-most by a KC hurler in a postseason game, trailing only Dennis Leonard, who fanned nine in Game #4 of the 1978 ALCS.
- Earned his first postseason victory in Game #1 of the ALCS vs. Toronto, tossing 6.0 scoreless innings, allowing two hits with four walks and five strikeouts...became the fourth Royals starter to record 6.0 shutout frames or more in a postseason game, joining Danny Jackson (1985), Bret Saberhagen (1985) and Yordano Ventura (2014).
- Made two starts in the World Series...did not earn a decision despite allowing just four earned runs over 12.0 innings in Game #1 and Game #5...was not with the club during Games #2 or #3 after his father, Danio, passed away hours before his Game #1 start.

AWARDS/HONORS

2008 Johnny Vander Meer Award (Reds' pitcher of the year)
 2008 National League All-Star
 2006 First MLB win: August 12 vs. Seattle

2006 Pacific Coast League (AAA) All-Star
 2005 XM Radio All-Star Futures Game participant, World Team
 2005 Texas League (AA) All-Star

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Edinson signed a two-year free agent contract on December 29, 2014, with a mutual option for the 2017 season.
- Won 26 games over the past two seasons, the most he's had in any consecutive years in his career...his total ranks 20th among MLB right-handed pitchers over that span.
- Spent his only season in Pittsburgh in 2014, leading the club in wins, innings, starts and ERA.
- Ended the 2014 regular season with a career-best 18.0 consecutive scoreless innings...posted the second-lowest ERA in the N.L. in the month of September (1.08), trailing only the Cubs' Jake Arrieta (0.95).

- From June 23, 2014 to the end of the season, posted a 9-1 record with a 1.85 ERA...his ERA during that span was the fourth-lowest in baseball, trailing only Clayton Kershaw (1.41), Corey Kluber (1.77) and Jon Lester (1.82).
- Tossed his second career complete game on July 10, 2014 at St. Louis, earning a 9-1 victory, allowing six hits...the complete game capped a streak of wins in four-straight starts.
- Suffered an 8-0 loss to San Francisco in the 2014 National League Wild Card Game...allowed five runs over the first 5.0 innings.
- Split the 2013 season between San Diego and the Los Angeles Dodgers...allowed the most runs in the National League and the third-most walks.
- Connected for his first career home run on June 2, 2013, a three-run shot off Toronto's Ramon Ortiz.
- Designated for assignment by San Diego on August 24, 2013, became a free agent, August 27...signed with the Dodgers on August 30.
- Active for the 2013 National League Championship Series vs. St. Louis, but did not make an appearance.
- Spent 2012 season with San Diego...held hitters to a .236 (160-for-679) average, which ranked ninth among National League qualifying hurlers...set career high in walks (105), tying for the most in MLB (Toronto's Ricky Romero).
- In 2012, posted a 6-5 record and a 2.95 ERA (33 ER in 100.2 IP) at PETCO Park, holding opponents to a .208 average...went 5-1 with a 1.90 ERA (10 ER in 47.1 IP) over his final eight starts at home.
- Tossed a one-hit shutout on July 19, 2012, blanking Houston, 1-0...only hit he allowed was an infield single by Matt Downs in the fourth inning...it was first shutout by a Padre at PETCO Park since Jake Peavy recorded one (August 23, 2005) also vs. Houston.
- Recorded 10 strikeouts twice in 2012: July 5 vs. Cincinnati (7.0 IP) and August 20 vs. Pittsburgh (6.2 IP).
- Issued three or more walks in 16-straight starts from May 17 to August 10, 2012, the longest such streak in Padres history...it was also the longest streak by a National League pitcher since Fernando Valenzuela also did it in 16-straight starts in 1987.
- Struggled through 2011, despite being named Cincinnati's Opening Day starter vs. Milwaukee on March 31...received a no-decision despite allowing five runs in 6.0 innings in the Reds' 7-6 walk-off victory.
- Missed a majority of the 2009 season and opened the 2010 season on the 60-day disabled list following successful "Tommy John" surgery on August 3, 2009...he also missed two months of the year in 2010 for testing positive for a banned substance.
- Allowed one hit and recorded 10 strikeouts in 7.0 innings on September 11, 2010, but took a no-decision in a 5-4 Reds win over Pittsburgh.
- Started Game #1 of the 2010 NLDS vs. Philadelphia...suffered a 4-0 loss to Roy Halladay, who tossed a no-hitter.
- In 2009, held opponents to a .191 batting average, which led the league through June 1...placed on the disabled list on June 2 after suffering an elbow injury.
- Enjoyed a successful first full season in the Majors in 2008, placing fourth in National League Rookie of the Year voting...named an All-Star and was voted the Johnny Vander Meer Award winner as the Reds' Most Outstanding Pitcher by the Cincinnati Chapter of the BBWAA.
- In 2008, ranked eighth among qualifying N.L. pitchers in ERA (3.21), tied for second in strikeouts (206), tied for third in wins (17) and fifth in opponents' batting average (.232)...he was also second in strikeouts per 9.0 innings (9.46), and second in road ERA (2.43).
- Allowed one earned run or less over each of his first eight starts of 2008, tying a Major League record...did not allow more than two earned runs in each of his first 12 starts, becoming the first MLB pitcher to accomplish this since Detroit's Al Benton in 1945.
- Collected his first MLB hit with a single off Atlanta's Tim Hudson on May 2, 2008, in his 12th career at-bat.
- Following to the 2008 season, ranked as having the National League's third-best fastball and changeup by Baseball America in their annual Best Tools survey.
- Acquired by the Reds on December 21, 2007, along with LHP Danny Herrera from Texas in exchange for OF Josh Hamilton.
- Prior to the 2007 season, ranked by Baseball America as the third-best prospect in the Texas Rangers' organization.
- Received the Rangers' Nolan Ryan Pitcher of the Year Award as the organization's best minor league pitcher in 2007...led the organization in strikeouts (166), ranked second in wins (16) and fifth in ERA.
- Earned his first Major League win on August 12, 2006, allowing four hits over 7.0 scoreless innings in a 5-4 victory against Seattle.
- His changeup was rated as the best in the Rangers' organization by Baseball America following the 2006 season.
- Participated in the 2005 XM All-Star Futures Game, tossing a scoreless second inning for the World Team at Detroit's Comerica Park.
- Promoted to the Major Leagues for the first time on August 30, 2005, and started the second game of a doubleheader vs. the White Sox, suffering an 8-0 setback.
- Following the 2005 season, was ranked as the top prospect in the Rangers' system as well as having the organization's Best Fastball by Baseball America.

CHRIS YOUNG RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER | 32

Height/Weight: 6-10 / 260

Bats/Throws: R/R

Born: May 25, 1979 (Dallas, TX)

Opening day age: 36

Resides: Dallas, TX

MLB Service: 9 years, 162 days

Signed Through: 2017

Acquired: Signed as a Major League free agent, Dec. 7, 2015

2015 SEASON

- Posted an 8-6 record with a 3.18 ERA as a starting pitcher and a 3-0 mark with a 2.59 ERA in 16 relief outings.
- Among pitchers that worked at least 100.0 innings, his .202 opponents' average was the lowest in the American League and was good for fourth in MLB...among that group, he also had the fourth-fewest hits allowed per 9.0 innings (6.64).
- Went 5-2 with a 2.52 ERA (18 ER in 64.1 IP) in 20 outings and nine starts on the road...opponents hit .189 against him at their home parks, which was the second-lowest in the A.L., behind Cleveland's Carlos Carrasco (.179).
- Posted a 2.12 ERA and a 2-1 record in four appearances (three starts) in Interleague play.
- He also had a 1.13 ERA and a .167 opponents average vs. A.L. West foes this season, earning a victory at Oakland on June 27.
- Named the Royals Pitcher of the Month for May, going 3-1 with a 1.45 ERA and a .179 opponents' batting average.
- Had two starts of 5.0 innings where he did not allow a hit, May 1 in a 4-1 win over Detroit and September 27 vs. Cleveland, a 3-0 triumph.
- Posted a 3-0 record and a 2.28 ERA over his final 12 outings of the year, which included two starts and 10 relief appearances...allowed one run or less in 12 of 15 appearances after the All-Star break (3.22 ERA).
- Collected two hits and drove in three runs in his start at Milwaukee on June 16...his three RBI were the most by a Royals pitcher since 1972 when Steve Busby did it against the Angels...he was also just one of three American League pitchers to record at least three RBI in a game since Interleague play began in 1997 and first since former teammate Felix Hernandez had four RBI at Citi Field on June 23, 2008.

2015 POSTSEASON

- Appeared in four games, making two starts, during the postseason...posted a 2.87 ERA (5 ER in 15.2 IP), which ranked second among all participants that worked at least 15.0 innings...his .157 opponents' average led that group.
- Set a Royals postseason record, collecting seven strikeouts in 4.0 innings of relief in Game #1 of the ALDS vs. Houston...his total was also tied for most by a reliever in a postseason game since Pedro Martinez fanned eight in a relief role in Game #5 of the 1999 ALDS vs. Cleveland.
- Earned his second career postseason win in Game #1 of the World Series, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings in KC's 5-4 win over the Mets in 14 innings.
- Became the oldest Royal to start a World Series game (36 years, 159 days), working the first 4.0 innings in Game #4 of the Fall Classic at Citi Field.

AWARDS/HONORS

2014	A.L. Comeback Player of the Year (MLB/The Sporting News)	2005	Texas Rangers Rookie of the Year
2008	San Diego Padres Chairman's Award	2004	First MLB win: September 4 at Boston

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Chris signed a two-year free agent contract on December 8, 2015, with a mutual option for the 2018 season.
- A former N.L. All-Star with the San Diego Padres in 2007...posted a winning record nine times in 11 big league seasons.
- Enters 2016 having allowed the fourth-fewest hits (979) among active hurlers that have at least 1,000 career innings...his .224 opponents' average is the second-lowest among active pitchers, trailing only Clayton Kershaw (.207).
- At 6-foot-10, he's tied for the second-tallest player in Major League history, behind only Jon Rauch (6-foot-11), who was a non-roster invitee to Royals Spring Training in 2014.
- Named A.L. Comeback Player of the Year in 2014 by Major League Baseball and The Sporting News, going 12-9 with a 3.65 ERA in his only season with the Seattle Mariners.
- His 12 wins in 2013 matched a career high, which he also did with Texas in 2005...tied for the fourth-longest span between 12-win seasons, and longest since Danny Darwin (1980-1993).
- Ranked eighth in the A.L. in 2013, allowing a .234 opponents' average (143-for-612)...right-handed hitters batted just .199 against him (53-for-266).
- Tied for the Major League lead with eight starts of 6.0 innings or more while allowing three hits or less (Madison Bumgarner, Johnny Cueto, Clayton Kershaw and Jake Odorizzi).
- Recorded his first win of the 2014 season on April 29 at Yankee Stadium (6-3)...it marked his first Major League victory since September 9, 2012 at Miami (with the Mets), a span of 594 days.

- Did not pitch in the Major Leagues in 2013, after signing a minor league contract with Washington on February 21...made seven starts at Triple-A Syracuse before injuring his neck...made two rehab starts for the Gulf Coast Nationals (Rookie) and Auburn (A).
- In 2012, made 20 starts for the Mets after signing on March 26...did not register a win at Citi Field despite recording quality starts in seven of his eight outings there.
- In 2011, had season cut short by right shoulder surgery to repair the anterior capsule.
- Tossed 7.0 scoreless innings in his final start of 2011, allowing two hits at Philadelphia on May 1.
- On April 5, 2011, became the first pitcher in Mets history to record two hits in the same inning, recording a pair of third-inning singles off Cole Hamels at Citizen's Bank Park.
- Made just four starts in 2010, his final season in San Diego...placed on the disabled list on April 12 with a strained right shoulder, after earning a win in his first start of the year, April 6 at Arizona...made three more starts in September.
- Missed significant time with a strained right shoulder (2009) and a nasal fracture (2008), after being struck with a line drive off the bat of Albert Pujols on May 21 at St. Louis.
- Hit only career home run, September 20, 2008, a solo shot off Washington's John Lannan at Nationals Park.
- Named to the N.L. All-Star team as the leading vote-receiver in the Monster 2007 All-Star Game Final Vote...suffered the loss in the Midsummer Classic, allowing Ichiro Suzuki's two-run inside-the-park home run.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Spent six seasons with the Minnesota Twins before signing a minor league contract on February 18, 2016.
- Enters the year 23-24 with a 4.57 ERA in 61 career starts and is 18-13 with a 3.63 ERA in 293 relief appearances.
- Has a career 2.87 ERA (25 ER in 78.1 IP) in the month of April...since making his debut in 2009, his April ERA ranks ninth among A.L. pitchers that have worked at least 75.0 innings in the month.
- Among left-handed relievers, he's made the third-most appearances (245) in the American League since 2012, trailing only former teammate, Glen Perkins (254) and Jake McGee (252).
- Missed the Twins' first two games in 2014 to witness the birth of his second child: Boston Matthew on March 31... still appeared in 62 games, the second-highest total of his career...did not allow a run in 49 of his 62 appearances.
- In 2014, posted the sixth-best ERA in the A.L., 2.52 (10 ER in 35.2 IP) among left-handed relievers before the All-Star break (minimum 30.0 IP).
- Awarded the Carl R. Pohlad Community Service Award in 2014, which was voted on by the Twin Cities Chapter of the BBWAA.
- In 2013, appeared in a career-high 73 games, which tied for seventh-most in the A.L. and tops among left-handers.
- Earned first career save on May 28, 2013 at Milwaukee, pitching a scoreless 14th inning in a 6-5 victory.
- Won both games of a split doubleheader vs. the Chicago White Sox on August 9, 2013...became the first MLB pitcher to earn two wins in one day since then-Yankees' hurler Luis Vizcaino on July 21, 2007...also the first pitcher in Twins'/Senators' franchise history to do it since Walter Johnson on September 23, 1923 vs. St. Louis.
- Did not allow a home run in his first 35 appearances in 2013...homeless streak dated back to August 30, 2012 for a span of 47-straight appearances (48.1 IP)...broken with a Derek Dietrich solo shot on June 25 at Marlins Park.
- In 2012, spent time in the starting rotation as well as the bullpen...went 2-4 with a 3.47 (22 ER in 57.0 IP) in 44 relief appearances and 2-8 with a 6.92 ERA (40 ER in 52.0 IP) in 11 starts.
- Earned a 5-1 victory on July 29, 2012 vs. Cleveland, going 6.0 innings and allowing one run on five hits...it marked his first win as a starting pitcher in nearly a year (August 28, 2011).
- In 2011, led the Twins in losses (14), but ranked second in innings, starts and strikeouts.
- Set a career high with nine strikeouts in 6.2 innings at Cleveland, August 13, 2011, but suffered a 3-1 setback.
- Opened 2011 going 2-1 with a 2.91 ERA in April (11 ER in 34.0 IP) in his first five starts, before going 0-4 with a 8.76 ERA (24 ER in 24.2 IP) in his next five starts.
- Tossed second career shutout, allowing six hits and four walks with seven strikeouts, July 4, 2011 vs. Tampa Bay.
- Began the 2010 season in the bullpen, going 3-1 with a 1.67 ERA (8 ER in 43.0 IP) in his first 39 appearances...moved to the starting rotation on July 23, where he went 7-2 with a 3.05 ERA in 13 starts.

- In his 2010 relief appearances, first batters he faced went 1-for-36 (.028) against him.
- Blanked Oakland, 2-0, on August 14, 2010 for his first career shutout...allowed just three hits and two walks, becoming the third Twins' lefty to record a complete game shutout since 2002, joining Eric Milton and Johan Santana.
- Made his Major League debut on April 10, 2009, pitching 3.0 innings of relief at U.S. Cellular Field...first MLB start also came at U.S. Cellular Field, on July 29...worked the first 5.0 frames, taking a no-decision, in a 3-2 Twins' victory.
- Earned first win at Kansas City on August 22, 2009, in an 8-7 triumph, allowing two runs on six hits over 5.0 innings.
- From August 22 to the end of the 2009 regular season, went 5-1 with a 2.59 ERA (14 ER in 48.2 IP), spanning eight starts and nine appearances...his .833 winning percentage in that time ranked fourth in the A.L.
- Started Game #1 of the 2009 ALDS at Yankee Stadium, suffering a 7-2 loss...became just the third rookie in Twins' history to start a postseason game and first since Boof Bonser (Game #2 of the 2006 ALDS vs. Oakland).
- Ranked the No. 16 prospect in the Twins' organization by Baseball America entering the 2009 season, while he was named the eighth-best prospect in 2008.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Signed a minor league contract with the Royals on December 18, 2015 after spending his entire professional career in the New York Mets' organization.
- In 2014, took the hill for his first Opening Day start vs. Washington (March 31), taking a no-decision in the Mets' 9-7 loss...he allowed four runs on four hits over 6.2 inning.
- Placed on the 15-day disabled list on May 14, retroactive to May 11 with a strained right lat...reinstated July 9...before his injury, he went 3-1 with a 2.73 ERA (16 ER in 52.2 IP) in eight starts.
- Set a career high with a 16.0-inning scoreless streak (April 22-May 4).
- From May 30, 2013 to July 9, 2014, went 14-6 with a 2.67 ERA, which ranked fourth in the Majors over that span among pitchers that threw at least 190.0 innings...only Clayton Kershaw (1.89), Zack Greinke (2.52) and Adam Wainwright (2.55) had a better ERA in that span.
- Dropped a career-high five-straight decisions between July 19-August 19, 2014, compiling a 5.74 ERA in that span.
- In 2013, set career bests in innings, starts, complete games, strikeouts and ERA...finished one win shy of his personal-best (13), set in 2011.
- In his start May 30, 2013, recorded a career high 12 strikeouts in an outing at Yankee Stadium...became just the second pitcher to fan 12 or more Yankees, walk none and allow four hits or fewer since 1903...the 12 strikeouts were also the most by a Mets' pitcher vs. the Yankees.
- From May 30 to the end of the 2013 season, posted a 2.71 ERA (45 ER in 149.1 IP), which ranked fifth in the N.L..
- One of 10 National League pitchers to allow one run or less in 14 starts or more in 2013...in his 14 starts. Gee posted a 9-1 record, while the Mets went 12-2 in those outings.
- Finished the 2013 season with at least 6.0 innings in 17-straight starts and 21 of his final 22 outings.
- From June 29 through the end of the 2013 season, his 115.0 innings were second-most in the N.L., trailing only Adam Wainwright (125.0).
- In 2013, from May 30 to the end of the season, his 14.1 pitches per inning were second-fewest in MLB.
- Tossed a pair of complete games in 2013, June 17 at Atlanta (8.1 innings) and September 21 at Philadelphia (6.0 innings)...became the first Mets pitcher to record multiple non nine-inning complete games since 2010 (Johan Santana).
- His complete game vs. Atlanta (June 17), he worked 8.1 scoreless innings before allowing a two-run, walk-off homer to Freddie Freeman in a 2-1 loss.

- Following a 3-1 win over the Cubs on July 7, 2012, complained of numbness in his fingers on his right hand... underwent surgery on July 13 on his right shoulder to replace a portion of a damaged artery...missed the remainder of the 2012 season.
- In 2011, finished the season with a .684 winning percentage (13-6), which tied for fifth in the National League... among rookie pitchers with at least 15 decisions, his winning percentage is tops in Mets history, topping Dwight Gooden's 1984 mark (.654).
- Started the 2011 season 7-0 before suffering a 7-3 setback to Oakland on June 21...the seven wins tied for the fourth-best streak in franchise history to start a season.
- His seven-straight winning decisions to open the 2011 season also matched the club's rookie record and were the most by a Mets' starting pitcher.
- Recorded his first complete game when he tossed 6.0 innings in a rain-shortened victory at Wrigley Field on May 25, 2011...he was one of four MLB rookies to toss a complete game in 2011.
- Participated in the MLB All-Star Series in Taiwan in 2011...started the fifth and final game of the series, taking a no-decision in MLB's 3-2 victory...allowed one run on five hits over 5.0 innings in his start, November 5.
- Recalled from Triple-A Buffalo on September 6 and made his big league debut the following day at Washington... became the third Mets pitcher to take a no-hitter into the sixth inning of his MLB debut and third to do it against the Montreal/Washington franchise...allowed a home run to Willie Harris to leadoff the sixth inning.
- Picked up his first MLB win (5-2) on September 25, 2010 at Philadelphia...allowed two runs over 7.0 innings.
- Collected an RBI single in his first Major League at-bat, September 7, 2010 at Washington, off Yunesky Maya... became the first Mets pitcher to record an RBI in his MLB debut and the seventh to collect a hit in his debut.
- Won the Sterling Award in 2008, given to the Most Valuable Player at the Mets' Single-A affiliate, St. Lucie.

AWARDS/HONORS

2008	Topps All-Rookie Team	2007	Washington Minor League Pitcher of the Year
2007	First MLB win: August 1 vs. Cincinnati	2007	Carolina League (A) All-Star

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Signed with the Royals as a minor league free agent on December 16, 2015.
- Made five appearances for the Mets in 2014, going 1-0 with a 15.75 ERA before being outrighted to the minors on April 16...finished the year with 14 appearances (12 starts) between Las Vegas (AAA) and St. Lucie (A).
- Started the 2013 season with the Phillies...placed on the 15-day D.L. on April 18 with a strained right quadriceps tendon in his left knee...reinstated June 16.
- Went a career-high 75.1 consecutive innings without allowing a home run, from August 31, 2011 to April 17, 2013.
- In 2013, threw 8.0 innings in consecutive starts, July 8 vs. Washington and July 13 vs. Chicago White Sox...was the first time he'd done that since July of 2009.
- Placed on the 15-day disabled list with left knee tendonitis on August 16, 2013 and missed the remainder of the year.
- In 2011, held left-handed hitters to a .211 batting average (39-for-185), which ranked sixth in the National League...also induced the second-most double plays (26) among N.L. hurlers.
- Set career highs in wins and ERA in 2011, while he led the Nats in wins, starts and innings pitched.
- Hit his first career home run, a two-run shot off Hiroki Kuroda, July 22, 2011 at Dodger Stadium.
- Served as Washington's Opening Day starting pitcher in 2009 and 2010.
- Had two stints with the Nationals in 2010, which was interrupted by a stint with Double-A Harrisburg...went 2-5 with a 5.76 ERA through his first 14 starts before being optioned...returned to the big leagues on August 1 and went 6-3 with a 3.42 ERA over his final 11 starts, going at least 5.0 innings in every outing.
- In 2009, set career highs in innings...one of 14 National League pitchers to make 30 or more starts, pitch at least 200 innings and have an ERA below 4.00.
- Recorded first career shutout and the first at Nationals Park, July 21, 2009 vs. the New York Mets...allowed seven hits and no walks in his 9.0 scoreless frames.
- Named to the Topps All-Rookie team in 2008...began the year with Triple-A Columbus, but was recalled on April 5, just six games into the season.
- Had a 21.0-inning scoreless streak in 2008, from April 17-May 2, which set a then-franchise record...the streak was passed by Gio Gonzalez, who recorded 25.0-straight scoreless innings in 2012.
- In 2008, ranked eighth in the N.L. in road ERA (3.19)...among N.L. rookies, tied for third in starts, ranked fourth in ERA and fifth in innings and strikeouts.
- Recorded a career-best 11 strikeouts on April 17, 2008 against the New York Mets at Shea Stadium.
- Named Washington's Minor League Pitcher of the Year and a Carolina League (A-Advanced) All-Star in 2007.
- Made his Major League debut on July 26, 2007 at Philadelphia...became the fifth player in MLB history to be ejected in his debut when he hit Chase Utley and Ryan Howard in consecutive at-bats...the other four players included: Cincinnati's Aaron Boone (1997), Oakland's Doug Johns (1995), Milwaukee's Sid Roberson (1995) and Philadelphia's Andy Carter (1994).

- Finished April, 2008, with a 5-0 record, becoming the third Yankees pitcher to win five games or more without a loss in the first month of season, joining Andy Pettitte in 1997 and Mike Mussina in 2003.
- On June 15, 2008 at Houston, tore a tendon in his right foot, while running home on a Derek Jeter RBI single...did not pitch the rest of the season.
- Earned 19 victories in just 30 starts in 2007, matching his career-high total from the previous season...became just the fourth Yankees pitcher since 1946 to win at least 19 games in consecutive seasons, joining Vic Raschi (1948-51), Mel Stottlemyre (1968-69) and Tommy John (1979-80).
- In 2007, finished seventh in the American League Cy Young Award voting (CC Sabathia).

- In 2007, averaged just 14.3 pitches per inning, third lowest in the Majors behind San Diego's Greg Maddux (13.65) and Atlanta's Tim Hudson (14.11).
- Retired the first 22 hitters he faced in a start vs. Seattle on May 5, 2007...allowed a solo shot to Ben Broussard to break up the bid at a perfect game.
- Finished second in American League Cy Young Award voting in 2006, finishing runner-up to Minnesota's Johan Santana...tied Santana for the most wins in the Majors (19).
- Named MLB.com's Starting Pitcher of the Year in 2006.
- Made his Major League debut on April 30, 2005 vs. Toronto, taking a no-decision in a 4-3 Yankees win...allowed two earned runs on six hits over 7.0 innings...became the fourth pitcher born in Taiwan to appear in an MLB game.
- Earned his first career victory on May 10, 2005, a 7-4 triumph over Seattle.
- In 2004, awarded the Kevin Lawn Award for the Yankees' Minor League Pitcher of the Year.
- Selected to participate in the 2003 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game at Chicago's U.S. Cellular Field.
- Named the MVP of the 2002 Asian Games in Busan, South Korea.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

- Chien-Ming Wang...resides in Tainan City, Taiwan in the offseason.
- Pitched for Chinese Taipei in the 2004 Summer Olympic Games in Athens, going 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA...also pitched in the 2013 World Baseball Classic, making two starts and allowing no runs.
- Attended Taipei Physical Education College in Taiwan...attended the same middle school as former Dodgers' pitcher Hong-Chih Kuo (Chien-Hsin Middle School).
- In 2007, named one of the "100 Most Influential People" in the world by Time Magazine for helping break cultural barriers.
- In 2006, his uniform No. 41 was retired by the New York-Penn League.

2015 Postseason Review

2015 WORLD CHAMPS!!!!—The Kansas City Royals won their second World Championship in the franchise's 46-year history and first since the 1985 season...KC became the fifth team since 1960 to win the World Series one year after losing in the Fall Classic and the first to do it since the 1988-89 Oakland Athletics...the club won their fourth American League Pennant and became the first to do it in back-to-back seasons since the 2010-11 Texas Rangers...Kansas City needed the maximum five games to advance past the Houston Astros in the American League Division Series, rallying from a two games to one deficit...the Royals were down to their final six outs in Game #4 of the series, but scored five runs in the eighth and two more in the ninth for a 9-6 triumph...KC then took out the Toronto Blue Jays in six games in the American League Championship Series...the Royals won the first two games of the series at Kauffman Stadium and then closed things out with a thrilling 4-3 victory in Game #6...Kansas City needed just five games to close out the New York Mets for their first World Championship in 30 years, claiming the crown in 12 innings in Game #5 at Citi Field, 7-2...the Royals became the fourth expansion team to win multiple World Series titles, joining the Mets (1969, 1986), Blue Jays (1992-93) and Florida Marlins (1997, 2003).

SALVY NAMED WORLD SERIES MVP—Catcher Salvador Perez was unanimously named the winner of the World Series Most Valuable Player presented by Chevrolet...Perez hit .364 (8-for-22) in the World Series with two doubles, two RBI, three runs scored, a .391 on-base percentage and a .455 slugging percentage...he became the seventh catcher to be named World Series MVP and first since Toronto's Pat Borders in 1992...other backstops to win the award include Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972), Cincinnati's Johnny Bench (1976), Steve Yeager of the Dodgers (1981), Darrell Porter of the Cardinals (1982) and Baltimore's Rick Dempsey (1983)...Sal was also the second Venezuelan-born player to be named World Series MVP, joining Pablo Sandoval, who was voted in 2012 with San Francisco.

CARDIAC KIDS—Kansas City became the first team to earn eight come-from-behind victories in a single postseason, which included seven games in which they trailed by multiple runs...the Royals trailed in all three of their wins over Houston in the ALDS, in Game #2 of the ALCS and in each of their four victories during the World Series...KC's seven wins after trailing by multiple runs broke the MLB postseason record, previously held by the 1996 New York Yankees (five)...the Royals also became the first team to claim three World Series wins in games where they trailed in the eighth inning or later.

EXTRA, EXTRA!—Kansas City won two World Series games in extra innings, claiming Game #1, 5-4 in 14 innings and Game #5, 7-2 in 12 frames...the Royals were the first team to win two extra-innings affairs in a World Series since the 2001 New York Yankees claimed Games #4 and #5 at home against Arizona...the 2015 Fall Classic was also just the second all-time (also 1924) to feature multiple games of 12 innings or more, while KC's 14-inning win in Game #1 tied for the longest World Series game, joining Game #2 of the 1916 Series (Boston vs. Brooklyn) and Game #3 in 2005 (White Sox vs. Houston).

HOME SWEET HOME—The Royals dropped their first postseason game at Kauffman Stadium (Game #1 of ALDS vs. Houston), before winning their final seven postseason home games...the 7-1 home record was the best in postseason play since the 2009 New York Yankees also went 7-1 en route to a World Championship...KC was one win shy of the Major League record (eight) for home wins in a single postseason, held by the 2002 Anaheim Angels...over the last two seasons, the Royals are 13-3 at "The K" in postseason play.

RUNNIN' ROYALS—Kansas City swiped seven bags during the World Series, the most since the Philadelphia Phillies and Tampa Bay Rays each had seven during the 2008 Fall Classic...Lorenzo Cain led the way with four thefts, the most by an individual player in the World Series since Melvin Upton also had four in the 2008 Series...Jarrod Dyson, Alcides Escobar and Eric Hosmer also contributed a steal during the Fall Classic.

ALL ABOUT ALCIDES—Shortstop Alcides Escobar enjoyed a phenomenal postseason, highlighted by earning MVP honors in the American League Championship Series vs. Toronto...he set a club record, hitting safely in his final 15 postseason games, passing Lorenzo Cain's 13-game streak, which ended after Game #4 of the 2015 ALCS...Escobar's 15-game streak was the longest in a single postseason overall and two games shy of the Major League record, held by Manny Ramirez (2003-04), Derek Jeter (1998-99) and Hank Bauer (1956-58)...the Royals shortstop also set a club record with 23 hits during the 2015 postseason, which was also three shy of the Major League record (26), held by Pablo Sandoval in 2012...his 23 hits were also a postseason record by a shortstop, passing Jeter, who had 22 knocks during the 1996, 2003 and 2009 playoffs.

THE WIZARD OF HOZ—First baseman Eric Hosmer drove in a Royals record 17 runs during the 2015 postseason...he finished four RBI shy of the Major League record (21) for a single postseason, set by St. Louis' David Freese in 2011...Hosmer has collected a franchise-best 29 RBI over the last two postseasons, passing George Brett (23) during the 2015 World Series...his total is also tied for eighth all-time by a first baseman with Bill Skowron (1955-63).

THE 'PEN IS MIGHTY—Kansas City's bullpen proved to be the difference during the postseason, going 8-0 with a 2.51 ERA, while converting four saves in five chances...the eight victories by relief pitchers were the most by any club in a single postseason, topping the 2003 Florida Marlins and the Royals and Giants' bullpens from a year ago, which all claimed seven wins...KC's relief corps was at its best during the Fall Classic, going 3-0 with a 1.90 ERA, permitting just six runs (five earned) on 16 hits with four walks and 30 strikeouts in 23.2 innings.

TOP POSTSEASON WINNING PERCENTAGE—Ned Yost continued his October success, improving to 22-9 all-time in postseason play...his .710 winning percentage the best among active managers and tops among skipper who have managed at least 25 playoff games...Yost led the Royals to an 11-5 record in the postseason in 2015 after going 11-4 in 2014, which included winning his first eight playoff games...his 22 postseason victories are already good for 20th all-time, including third among active Major League managers, trailing only Bruce Bochy (42) and Terry Francona (28).

- ▶ One of five players in M.L. history with 3,000 hits, 300 home runs and 200 stolen bases
- ▶ Named Royals Player of the Year eight times

George Brett wrapped up a 21-year Hall of Fame career with the Royals in 1993 after establishing himself as one of the greatest baseball players to ever play the game.

He became the only Royal and just the 11th third baseman to be inducted into the Hall of Fame on July 25, 1999 after receiving 98 percent of the votes, the fifth-highest mark in history. He had his number retired by the Royals May 14, 1994.

At the conclusion of Brett's career, he was the only player in Major League history to amass more than 3,000 hits, 300 home runs, 600 doubles, 100 triples and 200 stolen bases. He was the first player to win batting titles in three decades (1976, 1980, 1990) and retired as the A.L. career record holder for most intentional walks (229).

A 13-time All-Star, Brett is the club's all-time leader in every offensive category except stolen bases. He was the American League MVP in 1980, finished as the MVP runner up in 1976 and 1985, was a Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner in 1985 and was crowned the Royals Player of the Year eight times.

Brett hit .390 in his MVP season, posting the highest batting average since Ted Williams' .406 mark in 1941.

Born May 15, 1953 in Wheeling, W.V., he captivated the baseball world with his performance in the 1985 ALCS and World Series, earning ALCS MVP honors after the Royals rallied from a three games to one deficit against the Toronto Blue Jays.

Brett posted a .373 career World Series average, going 19-for-51 in 13 games, with three doubles, one triple, one home run and four RBI. He holds numerous ALCS records after recording a career batting average of .340 in the league championships.

He culminated his career with his 3,000th hit on September 30, 1992. Overall, he guided the Royals to seven postseasons and two World Series. During his 21-year career with the Royals, Kansas City posted 15 winning seasons, including eight seasons with at least 90 wins.

20 Frank White

Second Baseman, 1973-90

Career Honors

- ▶ Inducted into Royals Hall of Fame and had number retired in 1995
- ▶ Named to five All-Star games
- ▶ Won eight Rawlings Gold Gloves, including six straight from 1977-82
- ▶ The eight Rawlings Gold Gloves are tied for the third-most all-time among second basemen
- ▶ Voted ALCS MVP in 1980
- ▶ Named to TSN Silver Slugger Team in 1986
- ▶ Played in seven postseasons and two World Series
- ▶ Twice named Royals Player of the Year

Frank White was the defensive star for the Royals from 1973 to 1990, winning eight Rawlings Gold Gloves, an American League record for second basemen at the time. Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski (8), Ryne Sandberg (9) and Roberto Alomar (10) are the only second basemen in Major League history to accomplish the same feat. His number 20 was retired and he was inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame in 1995.

White claimed the Rawlings Gold Glove award six-straight seasons from 1977 to 1982 and missed an unprecedented ninth award in 1988 after committing just four errors that season and leading the league in fielding percentage.

He was selected to the All-Star team five times and earned the starting nod at second base in 1979. White, who ranked seventh all-time in fielding percentage among second basemen when he retired, was named the Royals' Player of the Year in 1983 and 1986.

A native of Kansas City, White was tabbed as the ALCS MVP in 1980 after hitting .545 (6-for-11) and driving in three runs to lead Kansas City to its first-ever World Series by defeating the New York Yankees.

In the 1985 World Series, White led all players with six RBI, hitting three doubles and a home run as KC rallied from a three games to one deficit to beat St. Louis.

Following his career-best 1986 season, White was selected to the Major League All-Star team that toured Japan in the offseason. He was also named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger Team.

The first-ever graduate of the experimental Royals Academy, White ranks second on the club's career charts in games (2,324), at bats (7,859) and hits (2,006). He also stands in the top five in career runs, doubles, triples, home runs, stolen bases, total bases and extra base hits. He hit three inside-the-park home runs during his playing career with the Royals.

White was honored with the Ernie Mehl Award for his contribution to the Kansas City community in 1988.

10 Dick Howser

Manager, 1981-87

Career Honors

- ▶ Inducted into Royals Hall of Fame and had number retired in 1987
- ▶ Managed Royals during 1985 World Series title season
- ▶ Ranks third in Royals history with 404 wins as Royals manager
- ▶ Directed Royals to three division titles
- ▶ Guided KC to a 91-71 record in 1985, tied for sixth-most wins in franchise history
- ▶ ESPN Manager of the Year in 1984
- ▶ Named to 1961 All-Star Team as a player
- ▶ 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year
- ▶ Elected into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008

Dick Howser managed the Royals from August 31, 1981 to February 23, 1987 before losing a courageous battle to cancer on June 17, 1987. During Howser's regime, the Royals won three division titles and a World Championship in 1985. His uniform number 10 was the first number retired by the Royals.

One of Major League Baseball's most successful and popular managers, he compiled a 404-365 record (.525) while skipping the Royals.

He guided the club in one of the most remarkable and endearing comebacks in Major League postseason history, defeating Toronto in the ALCS and St. Louis to win the 1985 World Series. His skills and ability to maneuver the lineup and roster played an important role in the club's success, as he capitalized on a strong starting pitching staff and maximized an offense that ranked 13th in average and runs scored.

Howser's World Series season was quite an encore for a manager who was named the ESPN Manager of the Year and finished second in the Baseball Writer's Manager of the Year balloting in 1984. His 1984 club was hampered by injuries throughout the year as his starting lineup was together for only 50 of the 162 games. Despite the injuries, he guided the Royals from a sixth-place standing and a 40-51 record on July 18, to capture the A.L. West crown by compiling an astonishing 44-25 record over the last 10 weeks.

Overall, he compiled a 507-425 (.544) record at the big league level after guiding the New York Yankees to 103 wins in 1980, becoming just the fourth manager in baseball to win 100 games in his first year.

Howser began his professional career after twice earning All-America honors at Florida State. The 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year with the Kansas City A's, he was a member of the 1961 All-Star team and enjoyed an eight-year Major League playing career.

42 Jackie Robinson

Second Baseman, 1947-56

Jackie Robinson broke the Major League color barrier in 1947. He went on to win Rookie of the Year that season and the 1949 N.L. MVP. Robinson was a six-time All-Star, compiling a .311 career batting average, 1,518 hits and 197 stolen bases in his 10-year Major League career. Prior to his historic stint in the Majors, Robinson played in Kansas City for the Monarchs in 1945. On April 15, 1997, the 50th anniversary of his debut, Major League Baseball retired his number.

ROYALS HALL OF FAME BUILDING

The Royals Hall of Fame, presented by Commerce Bank, is an education and entertainment venue blending the timelessness of a museum with the sheer fun of the ballpark for a one-of-a-kind outing at Kauffman Stadium. The 7,000+ square foot facility opened on July 17, 2009 and features dynamic exhibits that include artifacts, photos, documents and multi-media experiences tracing the history of professional baseball in Kansas City from the 1884 Kansas City Unions to the current day Kansas City Royals.

Fans can learn about: the Royals founding and the special story of the innovative Royals Baseball Academy; the important role of player development and the minor leagues; hear more about great moments in Royals history; take a look back at the amazing careers of two of the greatest players to ever play—George Brett and Frank White; and relive the Royals championship seasons including Kansas City's first American League Championship in 1980, the amazing 1985 journey to a World Series title, and the drive to a third American League Pennant in 2014. Among the artifacts on display are:

- ▶ 2015 World Series Trophy
- ▶ 2014 American League Championship Trophy
- ▶ 1985 World Series Trophy
- ▶ 1980 American League Championship Trophy
- ▶ 1976 American League West Championship Trophy
- ▶ 1977 American League West Championship Trophy
- ▶ 1978 American League West Championship Trophy
- ▶ 1984 American League West Championship Trophy
- ▶ 1980 American League MVP Award – Brett
- ▶ 1985 American League Cy Young Award – Saberhagen
- ▶ 1989 American League Cy Young Award – Saberhagen
- ▶ 1994 American League Cy Young Award – Cone
- ▶ 2009 American League Cy Young Award – Greinke
- ▶ Frank White's Eight Gold Gloves
- ▶ Alex Gordon's Four Gold Gloves
- ▶ Eric Hosmer's Three Gold Gloves
- ▶ Salvador Perez's Three Gold Gloves

HALL OF FAME HIGHLIGHTS

▶ '75 Years of Greatness' Exhibit - For 2015, the Royals Hall of Fame is honored to work with our friends in Cooperstown on a feature exhibit celebrating 75 Years of the National Baseball Hall of Fame & Museum. The exhibit includes items from each of the first five inductees – Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth, Honus Wagner, Christy Mathewson and Humboldt, Kan., native Walter Johnson. Other artifacts on display represent Hall of Fame inductees from every decade including items from Joe Cronin, Ted Williams, Casey Stengel, Willie Mays, Carl Yastrzemski, George Brett, Cal Ripken Jr. and Andre Dawson.

▶ Royals Hall of Fame Plaques – Learn about the accomplishments and contributions of every member of the Royals Hall of Fame. Royals pitcher Steve Busby and outfielder Amos Otis were the first two inductees in 1986. During the 2015 season, five-time All-Star Mike Sweeney will become the 26th person to receive the organizations' highest honor.

▶ Dugout Theatre Film - Take a seat in an authentic replica of the Royals dugout and enjoy a tribute to Kansas City baseball history. The 36-foot long movie screen showcases the story guided in spirit by Kansas City baseball's all-time ambassador, Buck O'Neil.

▶ Design Your Own Ballpark by Populous - This one-of-a-kind technological interactive exhibit allows guests to design their own ballpark. Fans can make key design decisions as their "ideal" ballpark changes and develops on the screen in front of them.

KEVIN APPIER

RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER: 1989-99, 2003-04 (INDUCTED 2011)

Kevin Appier's one of a kind delivery and devastating mix of pitches made him one of the most dominant pitchers of his era. The three-time Royals Pitcher of the Year retired in 2004 as the club's all-time strikeout leader with 1,458. He made more Opening Day starts (7) than any Kansas City pitcher before him. Appier posted the lowest ERA (2.56) in the league in 1993 and was named to the 1995 American League All-Star team. He finished his career among the Royals Top 10 in almost every pitching category including wins (115), ERA (3.49), shutouts (10), games started (275), and innings pitched (1843.2).

STEVE BUSBY

RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER: 1972-80 (INDUCTED 1986)

Steve Busby was one of the Royals' best pitchers and top competitors despite having his career shortened by a shoulder injury. From 1973-75, he averaged nearly 19 wins, 263.2 innings and 177 strikeouts per season while establishing many club records. A two-time All-Star, he became the only Major League pitcher to toss no-hitters in each of his first two big league seasons.

JOE BURKE

GM/PRESIDENT: 1973-92 (INDUCTED 1992)

Under Joe Burke's guidance, baseball achieved its greatest success in Kansas City. He joined the club in 1973 and served as general manager from 1974-1981. He was president of the club from that time until cancer took his life in 1992. Burke was named Major League Executive of the Year in 1976 and "Mr. Baseball" at the Kansas City Baseball Awards Dinner in 1978.

MARK GUBICZA

RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER: 1984-96 (INDUCTED 2006)

Mark Gubicza, the third-winningest pitcher in Royals history, recorded 132 victories in his 13 seasons with the Royals from 1984-1996. A two-time All-Star, Gubicza made his debut with the Royals in 1984 at the age of 21. He went 14-10 in 1985 and posted a pivotal Game 5 win over Toronto in the ALCS. Gubicza ended his career as the Royals all-time strikeout leader with 1,366, a mark later eclipsed by Kevin Appier.

LARRY GURA

Larry Gura logged a 111-78 record as a Royal and a winning percentage of .587, the second-best mark in club history. The crafty lefthander was a member of the 1980 American League All-Star squad and twice was selected as the Royals Pitcher of the Year (1978 and 1981). He recorded a career-high 18 victories in 1980 and 1982.

WHITEY HERZOG

MANAGER: 1975-79 (INDUCTED 2000)

Dorrel Norman Elvert "Whitey" Herzog managed the Royals from 1975-1979. He led the team to three-straight American League Western Division titles, the first division titles in club history. His top season came in 1977 when he managed the Royals to a club-record 102 wins. The 1976 UPI Manager of the Year, he has the second-most wins in club history with a career record of 410-304. Herzog was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July, 2010.

EWING KAUFFMAN

OWNER: 1968-93 (INDUCTED 1993)

The strength and integrity of Ewing Kauffman's ownership was the cornerstone of success for the Royals during the club's first 25 years. When purchasing the club as an expansion team in 1968, his primary motivation was to provide winning Major League Baseball for Kansas City. Prior to his death in 1993, he provided an innovative plan to ensure new ownership would keep baseball in Kansas City.

MURIEL KAUFFMAN

ROYALS FIRST LADY: 1968-95 (INDUCTED 1996)

Muriel Kauffman, the Royals' First Lady, was the driving force behind Mr. K's decision to buy the Kansas City Royals. She was a member of the club's Board of Directors and served as a major impetus to the smashing success of the Royal Lancers. Away from the ballpark, she established the Muriel McBrien Kauffman Foundation to support and perpetuate the performing arts and to advance education, research and prevention in the health field. "Mrs. K" passed away in 1995.

DENNIS LEONARD

RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER: 1974-86 (INDUCTED 1989)

Dennis Leonard is the only three-time 20-game winner in Royals history. The three-time Royals Pitcher of the Year holds the club's career record for complete games and shutouts, and single season highs in starts, complete games, innings pitched and strikeouts. His 130 wins from 1975-81 were the most by a right-handed pitcher in the Major Leagues.

DENNY MATTHEWS

BROADCASTER: 1969-PRESENT (INDUCTED 2004)

Denny Matthews, the 2007 Ford C. Frick Award winner, has been behind the microphone for the Royals since the club's first game in 1969. The "Voice of the Royals" has broadcast exclusively for the same team, without interruption, in six different decades. He was honored as the 2007 Ford C. Frick Award winner during Hall of Fame induction ceremonies on July 29, 2007. Matthews joined the Royals as the number two announcer alongside Buddy Blattner prior to KC's inaugural season in 1969. He then took over the number-one job following the 1975 season.

JOHN MAYBERRY

FIRST BASEMAN: 1972-77 (INDUCTED 1996)

John Mayberry was the Royals' first true power hitter and probably the most impressive. He was a bomber in a lineup that featured speed and gap hitters. In six seasons in Kansas City, he averaged 24 home runs and 94 RBI. He earned All-Star honors in both 1973 and 1974 and became the club's first 30-home run hitter with 34 dingers in 1975.

HAL McRAE

DESIGNATED HITTER/OUTFIELDER: 1973-87 (INDUCTED 1989)

Hal McRae's hard-nosed, aggressive style of play set the tone for the Royals championship clubs. He spent 14 full seasons in a Royals uniform and was recognized as one of the AL's most prolific designated hitters. He was a three-time All-Star, led the league in doubles twice and topped the loop with 133 RBI in 1982. He earned Royals Player of the Year honors in 1974 and 1982.

JEFF MONTGOMERY

RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER: 1988-99 (INDUCTED 2003)

Jeff Montgomery spent 12 of his 13 Major League seasons in a Royals uniform and is the club's all-time saves leader with 304. The three-time All-Star (1992, 1993, 1996) was the Rolands A.L. Reliever of the Year in 1993, finishing tied for the league lead with 45 saves, matching a club record at that time. He also holds the club record for career appearances (686) and ranked ninth on MLB's all-time saves list at the time of his retirement.

AMOS OTIS

OUTFIELDER: 1970-83 (INDUCTED 1986)

Amos Otis' career with the Royals spanned 14 years as he patrolled centerfield and excelled at the plate. He compiled a solid .280 average in a Kansas City uniform with 193 home runs, 992 RBI and 340 stolen bases while winning three Gold Gloves and five All-Star nominations. He was the Royals Player of the Year three times (1971, '73 and '78).

FRED PATEK

SHORTSTOP: 1971-79 (INDUCTED 1992)

Despite being the smallest player in the big leagues at 5'4", Fred Patek was a cornerstone of the early success of the franchise. The slick-fielding shortstop wore a Royals uniform from 1971-79, posting a .241 average in 1,245 games, earning a pair of All-Star game selections. He led the league with 11 triples in 1971 and with 53 stolen bases in 1977.

DAN QUISENBERRY

RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER: 1979-88 (INDUCTED 1998)

Dan Quisenberry's bullseye control, submarine-style delivery and quick wit made him a favorite among his teammates, media, peers and fans. He earned the Royals Pitcher of the Year honors four times, was a three-time All-Star, led the A.L. in saves five times and was a five-time winner of the A.L. Fireman of the Year award. Quisenberry's life was claimed by cancer on September 30, 1998.

COOKIE ROJAS

SECOND BASEMAN: 1970-77 (INDUCTED 1987)

Cookie Rojas brought more than eight years of National League experience to the Royals in 1970. His experience and leadership abilities were felt immediately with the young expansion team, providing a solid base for future championships. Rojas was named to the American League All-Star team four consecutive years (1971-74).

BRET SABERHAGEN

RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER: 1984-91 (INDUCTED 2005)

Bret Saberhagen is the only two-time Cy Young Award winner in Royals history. Saberhagen, the 1985 World Series MVP, pitched eight seasons for the Royals from 1984-91. He became the first KC pitcher and youngest pitcher in A.L. history to earn a Cy Young Award in 1985. He was a four-time Royals Pitcher of the Year and established a franchise record in wins with a 23-6 record and a league-best 2.16 ERA during his second Cy Young season of 1989.

PAUL SPLITTORFF

LEFT-HANDED PITCHER: 1970-84 (INDUCTED 1987)

Paul Splitterhoff's big league career included action in 15 seasons from 1970-84. He was a mainstay on the staff from 1972-80 when he averaged nearly 15 wins and 220 innings per year. The big left-hander holds the Royals career records for wins, starts and innings pitched. In 1973, he became the first 20-game winner in Royals history. Cancer claimed "Split" in 2011.

ART STEWART

SCOUTING/ADVISOR TO GM: 1969-PRESENT (INDUCTED 2008)

Art Stewart became the first scouting/player development associate to be inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame on June 28, 2008. Stewart joined the Royals organization as a scout following the 1969 season and served as the director of scouting from 1984-96. Since 1997, he has served the Royals GM as a senior advisor. The 2007 winner of the Roland Hemond Award, which is presented for long-time service in scouting a player development, is credited with signing or drafting more than 70 players that reached the Majors, including Bo Jackson, Kevin Appier, Johnny Damon and Carlos Beltran.

MIKE SWEENEY

FIRST BASEMAN/CATCHER: 1995-2007 (INDUCTED 2015)

The second-leading hitter in club history, Mike Sweeney became the 26th member elected to the Royals Hall of Fame on August 15, 2015. A five-time All-Star, Sweeney spent the first 13 years of his 16-year Major League career in Kansas City. The club record-holder for RBI in a season with 144 in 2000, Sweeney ranks in the top six all-time in Royals history in 17 offensive categories, including second in average and home runs (197). He narrowly missed winning the 2002 A.L. batting crown, hitting .340 in 2002, the second-highest single-season average in club history to George Brett's .390 mark in 1980.

GEORGE TOMA

GROUNDSKEEPER (INDUCTED 2012)

George Toma became the first inductee elected through the Royals Hall of Fame Veterans Committee which was part of a redesigned voting process established in 2011. Toma served as the Royals Head Groundskeeper from their inception in 1969 through the 1995 season. He also served as a consultant to the ballclub from 1995-97. He originally came to Kansas City in 1957 as head groundskeeper for the Kansas City Athletics. Generally regarded as the finest groundskeeper in the history of team sports, he earned the Professional Football Hall of Fame Pioneer Award in 2001 and joined mentor Emil Bossard as the first two inductees into the MLB Groundskeeper Association Hall of Fame in 2012.

WILLIE WILSON

OUTFIELDER: 1976-90 (INDUCTED 2000)

Willie Wilson became only the second player in baseball history to stroke 100 hits from each side of the plate in a season in 1980. The A.L. batting champion in 1982 (.332), he collected 2,207 hits and 668 stolen bases in his career, including a league-leading and Royals record 83 thefts in 1979. He was a Gold Glove Award winner in 1980, was the Royals Player of the Year in 1981 and was on the American League All-Star team in 1982 and 1983.

History of Kansas City Baseball

61 YEARS OF BASEBALL IN KANSAS CITY

2016 marks the 61st anniversary of the first American League game played in Kansas City. Left-handed pitcher Alex Kellner and the Athletics handed Ned Garver and the Detroit Tigers a 6-2 loss in the A's 1955 KC debut. Outfielder Bill Wilson hit the first home run in Kansas City A's history with a shot in the eighth inning. Pre-game festivities included a ceremonial first pitch by Kansas City native and former president Harry Truman.

The A's played all their games at Municipal Stadium (pictured below), sharing the facility with the Kansas City Chiefs football team. The stadium, located at 22nd and Brooklyn, opened July 3, 1923. It was originally named Muehlebach Field and also housed the Kansas City Monarchs and Kansas City Blues (minor league). A pair of short-lived football franchises, The Kansas City Blues (1924) and Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26) also played at the stadium. The Royals used the stadium from 1969-72.

REMEMBERING THE ROYALS ACADEMY

Former Royals owner Ewing Kauffman challenged the preconceived notions of the baseball world in 1970 with the creation of the Royals Baseball Academy.

"In a few years this will be called Kauffman's folly or they will be calling me the Branch Rickey of the '70s," Kauffman said.

The Academy, which ran 12 months a year, was designed to supply additional talent to the Royals organization by training athletes in Sarasota, Fla. The mission of the academy was to groom raw athletes into baseball players.

The Academy opened its doors on August 10, 1970 with 42 original players. The campus, which also doubled as the Royals spring home, featured five playing fields, a 50-room dormitory, offices, lecture halls, laboratories, tennis courts and a swimming pool. Former Royals Scouting Director (and future Yankees General Manager) Syd Thrift was named as the director of the Academy.

Royals Hall of Famer Frank White joined the Academy in 1970 and was the first member to graduate to the Majors in 1973. White credits the Academy with instilling fundamentals which turned him into one of the best defensive second basemen in baseball history.

Despite the success of Frank White and 13 other graduates who played in the Majors, including U.L. Washington, dwindling class sizes and the cost of the Academy eventually led to its closing in May, 1974.

Royals Gold Glove Winners

Twelve Royals have combined for 29 Rawlings Gold Glove Awards, symbolic of fielding excellence. They are judged and selected as the best fielding players at their respective positions by the A.L. managers and coaches. Votes are tabulated for Rawlings by The Sporting News.

Alcides Escobar became the first Royals shortstop to earn a Rawlings Gold Glove Award last season.

Postseason History

1976 ALCS VS. NEW YORK YANKEES

The Royals and Yankees staged one of the most thrilling confrontations since the ALCS was initiated in 1969. Down two games to one, the Royals pressed the series to the decisive final game by capturing a 7-4 victory in Game 4. New York finally edged Kansas City on Chris Chambliss' climactic home run to lead off the bottom of the 9th inning of Game 5 in Yankee Stadium and put a sudden end to the hard-fought matchup.

1977 ALCS VS. NEW YORK YANKEES

In a rematch of the previous year's division winners, Kansas City and New York once again battled to the final inning of Game 5 before the American League champion was crowned. The Yankees, trailing two games to one, captured Game 4 in Royals Stadium to force another dramatic showdown in Game 5. Kansas City opened up a 3-1 advantage, but late-game heroics, including a three-run ninth inning, produced a 5-3 Yankee triumph.

1978 ALCS VS. NEW YORK YANKEES

Once again the Royals and Yankees met in a thrilling battle for the A.L. pennant with New York prevailing in 4 games. After splitting two games in Kansas City to open series action, the Yankees captured a pair of dramatic one-run verdicts at Yankee Stadium to secure their third-straight league crown. In one of the most memorable moments in ALCS history, George Brett blasted three consecutive home runs off Jim "Catfish" Hunter in Game 3 at New York.

1980 ALCS VS. NEW YORK YANKEES

For the fourth time in five seasons, Kansas City and New York squared off to determine the American League Champion. The Royals, after taking the initial two games of the series in Kansas City, stunned a Yankee Stadium crowd by edging New York, 4-2, in Game 3 to complete a convincing sweep of the 1980 rematch. Kansas City's first pennant was secured when George Brett blasted a three-run homer into the upper deck off Goose Gosage in the seventh inning of the final contest.

2015 ALDS VS. HOUSTON ASTROS

Kansas City's postseason run nearly ended in Houston as the Astros were six outs away from winning the ALDS in Game #4. However, the Royals rallied for five runs in the eighth inning to force a deciding Game #5. KC then advanced to the League Championship Series behind 8.0 strong innings from Johnny Cueto as the righty retired the final 19 hitters he faced in Game #5. Designated hitter Kendrys Morales paced the offense, clubbing three home runs, which included a pair of solo shots in Game #1.

World Series History

1980 WORLD SERIES VS. PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

Phillies win, 4-2

The first World Series in Kansas City history saw the Royals fall in six games to the Philadelphia Phillies. After falling behind by two games, the Royals won two games in Royals Stadium to even the matchup, but the National League club rallied for a pair of runs in the final frame of Game 5 at Royals Stadium to regain the lead. The showdown returned to Veterans Stadium for Game 6 and the Phillies secured the title in front of the home fans with a 4-1 verdict. In an exciting series spiced by several outstanding individual performances, Willie Aikens blasted 4 homers while hitting .400 and Amos Otis hit at a .478 clip with three homers in leading KC's offensive showing.

Game 1 • at Philadelphia • Tuesday, Oct. 14

Philadelphia came back from a 4-0 deficit to win a 7-6 thriller...20-game winner Dennis Leonard was unable to survive the Phillies five-run third inning...Bob Walk, the first rookie to start a World Series game since 1952, was the winner...Tug McGraw snuffed out a late rally to earn the save...the Royals struck early as Amos Otis homered in his first World Series at bat in the second inning...KC made it 4-0 via a Willie Aikens two-run homer in the third...the Phillies came to life with five runs on four hits and a walk in the third inning...the big blow was a two-out, three-run homer by Bake McBride...Aikens homered again in the eighth.

Game 5 • at Kansas City • Sunday, Oct. 19

The Royals' hope for a Royals Stadium sweep faded as Philadelphia won its third come-from-behind victory...the Phillies' two-run ninth inning off Dan Quisenberry sealed KC's fate...Mike Schmidt's two-run home run in the fourth inning broke the scoreless tie...the Royals sent Marty Bystrom to the showers with a run in the fifth and two more in the sixth...Amos Otis continued his sizzling offensive performance with a game-tying home run (his third of the Series) leading off the sixth...KC took the lead on a U.L. Washington sacrifice fly scoring Clint Hurdle in the sixth...Phillies' relievers Ron Reed and Tug McGraw silenced the KC bats the rest of the way...the Royals loaded the bases via three walks in the ninth, but McGraw fanned Jose Cardenal to end the game.

Game 6 • at Philadelphia • Tuesday, Oct. 21

Behind the near-rabid support of 65,838 fans at Veterans Stadium, Philadelphia methodically eliminated the Royals, 4-1, behind the crafty work of Steve Carlton and Tug McGraw...Carlton allowed only four hits while striking out seven in his 7.0 innings of work and McGraw pitched the final two frames allowing three hits...Mike Schmidt gave the Phils all they really needed with a two-run single in the third inning...the Royals never ran out of spirit, sending Carlton to the clubhouse by scoring a run in the eighth...KC also threatened in the ninth, loading the bases with only one out, but McGraw fought his way out of the jam to bring the Phillies their first World Series title.

1985 WORLD SERIES VS. ST. LOUIS CARDINALS

Royals win, 4-3

Kansas City rallied from two-games-to-none and three-games-to-one deficits to capture their first World Championship by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in the "1-70 Series"...the Royals became the first club in the 82-year history of the Fall Classic to lose their first two games at home and come back to win the title...the Royals became the first A.L. expansion club to win a World Championship and the second expansion team overall, joining the New York Mets (1969)...KC's talented and youthful pitching staff held the Major League's best hitting club to 13 total runs and a batting average of .185—the lowest ever in a 7-game World Series...Bret Saberhagen earned Most Valuable Player honors with two wins and a 0.50 ERA.

Game 1 • at Kansas City • Saturday, Oct. 19

John Tudor and Todd Worrell combined on an eight-hitter...the Cardinals scored on a leadoff walk and a one-out ground out in the third inning, a Cesar Cedeño run-scoring double in the fourth and then a misplayed line drive by Lonnie Smith in the ninth.

2014 WORLD SERIES VS. SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS

Giants win, 4-3

Kansas City participated in its first World Series in 29 years, as the Royals captured the American League pennant and faced the San Francisco Giants in a thrilling seven-game Fall Classic. In a nip-and-tug set, the Giants claimed the deciding game behind series MVP Madison Bumgarner's 5.0 scoreless innings of relief in Game 7. The Royals threatened in the ninth inning, putting the tying run on third base with two outs, but could not advance the final 90 feet. Center fielder Lorenzo Cain capped his torrid postseason, bating .308 (8-for-26) with 3 doubles and 5 RBI during the series. Rookie fireballer Yordano Ventura started two of KC's wins, including Game 6 when he tossed 7.0 scoreless frames in a 10-0 triumph.

Game 1 • at Kansas City • Tuesday, Oct. 21

San Francisco jumped out to an early lead on the strength of Hunter Pence's two-run blast and never looked back. Madison Bumgarner earned his first of two victories in the Series. Catcher Salvador Perez provided KC's only offense with a solo home run in the seventh inning.

Game 2 • at Kansas City • Wednesday, Oct. 22

The Royals utilized a big rally in the sixth inning to even the series at one game a piece. Billy Butler broke a 2-2 tie with an RBI single in the sixth and scored from first base on Salvador Perez's two-run double later in the inning. KC's bullpen slammed the door, allowing no runs and one hit over the final 3.2 innings.

Game 4 • at San Francisco • Saturday, Oct. 25

The Giants rallied from an early 4-1 deficit to even the best-of-seven series in Game 4. After allowing four runs in the third inning, San Francisco stormed back to tie the game in the fifth and take the lead on Pablo Sandoval's two-run single in the sixth inning. The 11 runs scored were the most the Royals have allowed in a postseason game.

Game 6 • at Kansas City • Tuesday, Oct. 28

Kansas City forced a deciding game by scoring seven runs in the second inning for a lopsided victory. Eight of the first nine hitters reached base in the second with Lorenzo Cain breaking the game open with a two-run single. It was more than enough for righty Yordano Ventura, who tossed seven scoreless frames to become the first Royals rookie to win a World Series game.

Game 7 • at Kansas City • Wednesday, Oct. 29

The Giants claimed their third World Title in the five seasons, edging the Royals in a decisive Game 7. Michael Morse's RBI single in the fourth inning broke a 2-2 tie, while series MVP Madison Bumgarner closed the door, tossing 5.0 scoreless innings in relief. KC put the tying run on third base in the ninth, but Bumgarner retired Salvador Perez to end a thrilling series.

2015 WORLD SERIES VS. NEW YORK METS

Royals win, 4-1

Kansas City won its first World Championship in 30 years, besting the New York Mets in a thrilling five-game series that featured two extra-innings wins. The Royals came from behind in all four of their victories, which included overcoming a 3-1 deficit after five in Game #4 and a 2-0 deficit after eight in Game #5. Catcher Salvador Perez earned World Series MVP honors after batting .364 with two doubles, three runs scored and two RBI. Johnny Cueto tossed the fourth complete game by a Royal in the World Series in Game #2, while KC's bullpen stymied the Mets throughout the series, posting a 3-0 mark with a 1.90 ERA (5 ER in 23.2 IP) with four walks and 30 strikeouts.

Game #1 • at Kansas City • Tuesday, October 27

Despite trailing most of the evening, Kansas City rallied to tie in the ninth and won Game #1 in 14 innings. The contest matched the longest in World Series history, joining Game #2 of the 1916 Fall Classic and Game #3 of the 2005 Series. Trailing 4-3 in the ninth, the Royals tied the game on Alex Gordon's one-out home run off Jeury's Familia and then won the game on Eric Hosmer's sac fly which plated Alcides Escobar. Former Met Chris Young earned the victory on the mound, tossing 3.0 hitless innings of relief.

1960 All-Star Game

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas City hosted an MLB All-Star Game for the first time on July 11, 1960. The 28th version of the Midsummer Classic was played at Municipal Stadium with the National League prevailing, 5-3. Two days later, the N.L. would win once again, shutting out the A.L., 6-0, at Yankee Stadium.

The game in Kansas City was attended by 30,619 fans who witnessed the senior circuit get off to a scorching start against A.L. starter and losing pitcher, Bill Monbouquette of the Boston Red Sox.

Willie Mays led off for the N.L. and tripled to right. Mays scored when the next batter, Bob Skinner, singled. After consecutive outs from future Hall of Famers Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron, another future Hall of Famer, Ernie Banks, homered to give the N.L. a 3-0 lead.

The N.L. added a fourth run in the second inning on catcher Del Crandall's solo home run and a fifth in the third frame as future Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski drove home Banks with a single to left.

Another future member of the Hall of Fame, Al Kaline, blasted a two-run home run in the eighth to bring the A.L. within two runs at 5-3, but that was as close as they were able to get.

No MVP was named, but Mays ended up 3-for-4 with a run scored and Banks added two hits, drove in two and scored two runs.

The game featured 15 future Hall of Famers (plus Hall of Fame managers Walter Alston and Al Lopez), all indicated in bold in the box score. Ted Williams, who would retire at the end of the season, grounded out to second base as a pinch hitter in the second inning. Cardinals legend Stan Musial recorded an infield single as a pinch hitter in the road half of the eighth.

Al Lopez managed the American League and was joined by coaches Tony Cuccinello and Don Guttridge. The National League was managed by Walter Alston, who was joined by coaches Solly Hemus and Fred Hutchinson.

Finally, Hall of Fame umpire Nestor Chylak umpired both second and first base in 1960 and then returned to Kansas City to umpire home plate during the 1973 All-Star Game.

1973 All-Star Game

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas City was the site of the 40th Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1973 where the National League handed the American League a 7-1 loss.

The game marked the final All-Star appearance of Willie Mays and was attended by members of the first All-Star Game in 1933, including Carl Hubbell, Bill Hallahan, Lefty Gomez, Dick Bartel, Lefty Grove, Jimmie Dykes and Charlie Gehringer.

The A.L. jumped out to a 1-0 lead after a double from Reggie Jackson and an RBI single from KC's Amos Otis. However, the N.L. All-Stars countered with two runs in the top of the third and also scored in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings. Rick Wise earned the win for the N.L. after allowing two hits and one ER in 2.0 innings of work.

Bobby Bonds was named the game's MVP, coming off the bench to go 2-for-2 with a two-run homer in the fifth inning, giving the N.L. a 5-1 lead.

Johnny Bench hit one of the most mammoth home runs in the history of the Mid-Summer Classic, launching a 480-foot solo shot off Bill Singer in the fourth inning over the left field concourse. His homer still stands as the longest in Kauffman Stadium history.

The game featured 17 future Hall of Famers (plus three Hall of Fame managers), including Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Rod Carew, and Brooks Robinson to name a few, while Hall of Fame manager Joe Torre played in the game for the National League. The game also featured three Royals - Amos Otis, John Mayberry and Cookie Rojas - and one future Royals manager, Buddy Bell, who tripled as a pinch hitter in the third inning. Otis led the A.L. players, going 2-for-2 with the team's only RBI.

Dick Williams managed the American League and was joined by coaches Whitey Herzog and Chuck Tanner. The National League was managed by Sparky Anderson, who was joined by coaches Gene Mauch and Bill Virdon.

OTHER NOTABLE ROYALS ARTIFACTS IN COOPERSTOWN

- Jersey worn by manager Ned Yost during the 2014 ALCS when he became first manager to win his first eight postseason games.
- Cap worn by Yordano Ventura during Game 6 of the 2014 World Series.
- Jersey worn by Joakim Soria on April 25, 2010 when he recorded his 94th big league save, setting a major league record for pitchers born in Mexico.
- Jersey worn by Zack Greinke during his final victory on Sept. 27 during his 2009 Cy Young winning season.
- Cap worn by Billy Butler during the Sept. 26, 2009 game in which he became the eighth player to hit 50 doubles in a season at 23 or younger.
- Ball from Zack Greinke's major league season-high 15 strikeout game on Aug. 25, 2009.
- Helmet worn by Reggie Sanders to hit his 300th home run on June 10, 2006, becoming the fifth player to hit 300 homers and steal 300 bases.
- Bat used by Hall of Famer George Brett at the end of the 1990 season, becoming the first player to win batting titles in three different decades.
- Bat from the famous pine-tar incident on July 24, 1983 when Hall of Famer George Brett hit a ninth inning go-ahead home run off Hall of Famer Goose Gosage only to be called out, setting off a bench-clearing incident.

A LOOK AHEAD TO 2017

Ballots for the 2017 Hall of Fame/BBWAA election will be distributed following the 2016 season with results from the voting scheduled to be announced in January 2017. A partial list of first-year candidates for election includes: Vladimir Guerrero, Jorge Posada, Manny Ramirez and Ivan Rodriguez. Historical information on past BBWAA elections and the election process can be accessed at www.baseballhall.org or by contacting the Hall of Fame Communications department.

Team records in bold.

Danny Tartabull hit 34 of Kansas City's club record 168 home runs during the 1987 season.

Mike Sweeney's stellar 2000 season helped the Royals set club records in batting average, runs, hits and RBI that year.

Royals No-Hitters

STEVE BUSBY

April 27, 1973 at Detroit
Kansas City 3, Detroit 0

In just his 10th Major League start, 23-year old Steve Busby recorded the first no-hitter in club history by shutting down Detroit on April 27, 1973. His no-hitter was the first in Tiger Stadium since 1952. He allowed 6 walks and struck out 4 in the 3-0 win.

In his next start, Busby allowed just 1 hit in 5.2 innings of work in a 5-3 win at Milwaukee on May 4. Busby picked up where he left off, tossing 5.1 hitless innings until Dave May homered in the sixth inning. Busby didn't allow any more hits but was removed later that inning because of wildness.

STEVE BUSBY

June 19, 1974 at Milwaukee
Kansas City 2, Milwaukee 0

Busby became the first pitcher in Major League history to collect no-hitters in each of his first 2 big league seasons when he defeated the Milwaukee Brewers on June 19, 1974 at County Stadium, 2-0.

George Scott, who walked to lead off the second inning, was Milwaukee's only baserunner in the game. Busby then retired 24 straight batters to establish a club record.

Busby then retired the first 9 batters faced in his next start against Chicago on June 24. The 33-straight batters retired established an American League record.

JIM COLBORN

May 14, 1977 at Kansas City
Kansas City 6, Texas 0

Jim Colborn secured his place in club history in his first season in Kansas City by becoming the first Royal to pitch a no-hitter in Royals Stadium. He no-hit the Texas Rangers on May 14, 1977 in a 6-0 win to collect the first of 3 no-hitters in the Major Leagues during the 1977 campaign.

Colborn hit Toby Harrah and walked Jim Sundberg in the sixth inning to mark the only Rangers' baserunners. He faced only 28 batters in the game and struck out 6 in the outing.

PAIR OF NO-HITTERS AGAINST THE ROYALS

California Angels ace Nolan Ryan recorded the 1st no-hitter in Kauffman Stadium history and the first of two no-hitters against the Royals on May 15, 1973. He struck out 12 and allowed only 3 base runners, all walks, in the 3-0 win. It was the first of two no-hitters for Ryan on the season and the first of a record seven no-hitters in his career.

SCOUTING & PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Pro Scouting Staff

MITCH WEBSTER SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT SCOUT

Mitch Webster, recipient of the 2013 Art Stewart Award for outstanding scouting, is in his seventh year in the organization. Webster, a native of Larned, Kan., retired in 1995 after a 19-year professional career, including 11 and a half in the Majors as an outfielder with the Blue Jays, Expos, Cubs, Indians, Pirates and Dodgers. He was originally selected by the Dodgers in the 23rd round of the 1977 June Free Agent Draft.

Following his retirement, Webster spent 14 years working in the Dodgers organization, serving for eight seasons as an amateur scout before working in 2008 and 2009 as a pro scout. Webster also spent four seasons as a coach in the Dodgers minor league system from 1996-1999.

Webster and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Kansas City, Mo. The couple has two daughters, Rebecca and Katie, and two granddaughters, Adelynn and Amelia.

FELIX FRANCISCO SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT SCOUT/INTERNATIONAL & PRO SCOUTING

Felix Francisco joined the Royals on November 5, 2012 as the club's Special Assignment scout for International and Pro Scouting. He worked as a special assistant to the general manager in Houston since November, 2009. Francisco also serves as the general manager of the Toros del Este in La Romana in the Dominican Winter League.

Prior to his time as a special assistant with the Astros, he spent two seasons as the club's Director of Latin American Scouting. Francisco began his scouting career in 1995 as a part-time scout with the Atlanta Braves and was promoted as the club's Dominican Republic scouting supervisor in 1998. He assumed the same position with the San Diego Padres in 2001 and took over as the Padres' Latin American scouting supervisor in 2004.

MIKE PAZIK MAJOR LEAGUE SCOUT

Mike Pazik will serve as a Major League scout for the Royals again in 2016 after joining the organization in 2002 as the advance scout. He served in the same capacity for Colorado in 2001. Pazik began his professional baseball career as the Yankees first-round pick in the 1971 January Free Agent Draft. He played for nine seasons, including parts of three seasons with the Minnesota Twins.

His coaching career began in 1980 as a manager and pitching coach in the White Sox minor league system until joining the Brewers in 1983 as the minor league pitching coordinator. He worked in the Milwaukee system for five seasons before moving to Baltimore from 1988-91. He rejoined the White Sox as a special assistant to the GM in 1992, was the advance scout in 1994, pitching coach from 1995-98 and the special assignment scout and assistant to the General Manager from 1998-2000. Pazik graduated from Holy Cross College with a sociology degree. He and his wife, Susan, reside in Bethesda, Md. They have three daughters: Kristen, Kara and Marisa.

ALEC ZUMWALT PRO SCOUT/ADVANCE SCOUT

Alec Zumwalt originally joined the Royals as a Pro Scout in December of 2011. As a Pro Scout in 2012, his coverage included the Florida State League, South Atlantic League and Major League Advancing. In 2016, Alec will be the Royals Major League Advance Scout for a fourth straight season.

Zumwalt committed to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill before being drafted out of East Forsyth High School (Kernersville, NC) by Junior Vizcaino with the Atlanta Braves in the fourth round in 1999. He went on to play 10 minor league seasons as an outfielder and pitcher with Atlanta, Tampa Bay, Milwaukee and Oakland. After his playing career, Alec was pursuing a degree in Nursing before joining the Royals.

Alec now resides in Hiddenite, NC with his wife Kristen and their four sons: Xander, Brooks, Keelan and Trace.

JON WILLIAMS PRO SCOUT

Jon Williams enters his 10th year in the Royals organization, his fourth exclusively as a pro scout. Williams was a hitting coach at various levels of the Royals system beginning in 2007.

Williams spent six years in the minors as a catcher in the San Francisco and Atlanta organizations prior to joining the Royals. He also spent a pair of seasons playing for River City in the Frontier League. Williams was selected by the Giants in the 44th round of the 2001 draft out of the University of Missouri. A St. Louis native, he currently lives in Imperial, Mo.

DENNIS CARDOZA PRO SCOUT

Dennis "Cardy" Cardoza was named to the Kansas City Pro Scouting staff in November, 2012, after serving with the Royals as an Area Supervisor in Texas and Oklahoma. He joined the Royals organization in November, 2009, bringing with him over 17 years of scouting experience.

Cardoza began his scouting career in 1991 with the Montreal Expos where he scouted players in Southern California as well as other areas as needed. In 2002, he joined the Florida Marlins as area scout in Texas and later served as Midwest Region Supervisor/Cross Checker in 2003, when the Marlins won the World Series.

Cardoza and his wife of 14 years, Mari Noel, reside in Munds Park, Ariz., but travel to San Diego as often as possible to visit their grandchildren: Niko (5) and Siena (3).

TONY TIJERINA SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT SCOUT

Tony Tijerina is in his second year as a Special Assignment scout after serving as the Royals minor league field coordinator from 2011-2014. He served as the assistant field coordinator and catching coordinator from 2008-2010. Tijerina managed the Double-A Wichita Wranglers in 2007. Before joining the Royals organization, he spent 16 years with the New York Mets, the first six as a catcher in the farm system. He then went on to serve as a hitting coach at Pittsfield in 1997 and 1998. From 1999 to 2005, he spent seven seasons as a manager in the Mets farm system.

From 2004 to 2006, he also took on the duties as the Mets' catching coordinator before serving as the Mets' minor league field coordinator in 2005 and 2006. Following the 2002 season, in which he led Capital City to a first-half title, he was named the South Atlantic League's Best Managerial Prospect by Baseball America. He was selected by the Mets in the 13th round of the 1991 draft out of Texas Tech University where he was a two-time All Southwest Conference selection. He resides in Newark Valley, N.Y., with his wife, Linda, and daughter, Lauren.

PAUL GIBSON NATIONAL SUPERVISOR/SPECIAL ASST. PITCHING DEVELOPMENT

Paul Gibson is in his sixth season as a national supervisor in 2016. He is entering his 30th year in professional baseball, including a 19-year playing career. He pitched in the Majors for the Tigers (1988-91), Mets (1992-93) and Yankees (1993-96).

After retiring in 1996, he coached at Center Moriches (N.Y.) High, leading the program to a 149-26 record with two Long Island championships during that time. Gibson began his scouting career in 2006 as an Area Supervisor in the northeast with the Braves. He was hired by the Mariners in 2009 as Eastern Crosschecker before joining the Royals in the fall of 2010. Paul resides in Center Moriches, N.Y. with his wife Carla. They have two sons, Paul and Glenn.

JUNIOR VIZCAINO NATIONAL SUPERVISOR

Junior Vizcaino will serve as a national supervisor for a 10th straight season in 2016 after spending the previous seven seasons as the Royals' East Coast Supervisor. The Art Stewart Award winner for 2014, Vizcaino joined the Royals in 2000 as an area supervisor.

Prior to joining the Royals, Vizcaino served as an area supervisor for the Atlanta Braves from 1994-2000. He played for five seasons in the Pittsburgh minor league system from 1987-1991 after playing baseball at both Indian River Community College (Ft. Pierce, Fla.) and Valdosta (Ga.) State University. Born in San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic, Vizcaino resides in Raleigh, N.C., with his wife Candi. He has two children, Gabrielle and Vance.

KEITH CONNOLLY NORTHEAST REGION SUPERVISOR

Keith Connolly enters his fifth full season with the Royals after joining the club on October 10, 2011. Connolly previously served as an Area Scout for five years with Baltimore Orioles in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, New England and Eastern Canada. Before his stint with the Orioles, he worked part-time with the Florida Marlins from 2004-2007.

Connolly began his professional career in 1998 with the Giants as a non-drafted free agent. He spent parts of four minor league seasons as a right-handed relief pitcher. Connolly earned a B.S. in administration of justice from Rutgers University.

A native of Washingtonville, N.Y., he now resides in Fair Haven, N.J. with his wife Meghan, sons Daly and Hugh, and daughter, Margaret.

GREGG KILBY SOUTHEAST REGION SUPERVISOR

Gregg Kilby enters his eighth season with the Royals organization as the Southeast Regional Supervisor. Kilby spent five seasons as a scout and area supervisor in Florida for the Atlanta Braves. While with the Braves, Kilby signed current Nationals shortstop Yunel Escobar, Twins outfielder Jordan Schafer and current Astros left-handed pitcher Brett Oberholtzer.

Kilby served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Maryland Terrapins from 2001-2004. Prior to joining the Maryland staff, Kilby was the head coach at Lynn University from 1997-2000. Kilby also worked as an assistant coach for Clemson University and the University of Nevada.

A 1991 graduate of Southern Wesleyan University, Kilby lettered in baseball for three seasons and was named team co-captain and all-district in 1991. He and his wife, Annie, reside in Tampa, Fla., with their children, Zachary and Annabelle.

GREGG MILLER MIDWEST REGION SUPERVISOR

Gregg Miller is in his third year as the Royals' Midwest Regional Supervisor. Miller was an area scout for the Boston Red Sox in 2013. He previously served as a scout for Minnesota from 1998 to 2008, covering Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma. While with the Twins, he signed future Major League players Scott Baker, Nick Blackburn and Terry Tiffie. Miller joined the Twins after serving as the head baseball coach at Pratt (Kan.) Community College.

Miller earned a bachelor's of science in education from Phillips University in Enid, Okla., and a master's degree in sports administration from Wichita State University. He and his wife Susan, reside in Meeker, Okla. They have three children: Macy, Shelby and Bayli.

GARY WILSON WEST COAST REGIONAL SCOUTING SUPERVISOR

Gary Wilson is in his first season as the Royals' West Coast Regional Scouting Supervisor in 2016. He previously served as an Area Scouting Supervisor in the Colorado Rockies' organization for 14 years, following a seven-year playing career in the Pirates' and Twins' organizations. Wilson, the Pirates' 18th-round pick in 1992, appeared in 10 games with Pittsburgh in 1995. He and his wife, Kasie, have three children: Nicholas, Natalie and Brady. They reside in Sacramento, Calif.

DAN ONTIVEROS NATIONAL SUPERVISOR

Dan Ontiveros is in his seventh season as the West Coast Regional Supervisor in 2016. He joined the Royals in 2007 as an area scout for Southern California.

His scouting career includes stints with the St. Louis Cardinals (1998-2004) and Chicago White Sox (2004-07). Ontiveros also coached for Johnson City (2000) and New Jersey (2001) in the St. Louis system.

Ontiveros was named the Art Stewart Scout of the Year in 2008. A graduate of Sacramento State, Ontiveros resides in Laguna Niguel, Calif., with his wife, Julie, and their daughter, Casey.

Minor League Staff

BILL FISCHER SENIOR PITCHING ADVISOR

Bill Fischer, the 2008 Baseball America Roland Hemond Award winner, enters his 69th year in professional baseball. Fischer will be the senior pitching advisor for the fifth straight season after serving as the pitching coordinator from 2007 to 2010. Fischer, who worked as the Royals minor league pitching instructor from 1975-78 and in 1984, has been a Major League pitching coach with the Cincinnati Reds (1979-83), Boston Red Sox (1985-1991) and Tampa Bay Devil Rays (2000-2001). He also has worked in the Atlanta Braves' organization from 1991-2006, with the exception of his two years in Tampa Bay. He most recently served as the Braves' Senior Minor League Pitching Coordinator. Fischer pitched nine seasons from 1956-64 with the White Sox, Tigers, Senators, Athletics and Twins, compiling a 45-58 record. He still holds the MLB record with 84.1 consecutive innings without issuing a walk set in 1962. He resides in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

RAFAEL BELLARD SPECIAL ASST. TO THE GM/INFIELD COORDINATOR

Rafael Belliard joined the Royals' coaching staff during Spring Training in 2014 as a Special Assistant to the General Manager and returns this year in that role while also coordinating minor league infield instruction for the second straight season. He served as Detroit's infield coach under Jim Leyland from 2006 to 2013 and was the first base coach in 2013. Belliard was a roving minor league infield instructor with Atlanta from 2000 to 2005.

He played 20 seasons of professional baseball, including 17 at the Major League level. Belliard played on eight division winning clubs with Pittsburgh and Atlanta, including the World Series champion Braves club in 1995. He resides in Boca Raton, Fla., with his wife Leonora. The couple has one son, Kevin.

JOHN WATHAN SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

John Wathan returns for his 44th year in baseball and 40th with the Royals as a special assistant to player development. Wathan was the Royals' first-round pick in the 1971 January Free Agent Draft after three years at the University of San Diego. He played for 15 years, including 10 in the Majors from 1976-85. Wathan was a member of the Royals' World Series teams in 1980 and 1985 and still owns the modern record for stolen bases by a catcher with 36 in 1982. He served as a coach in Kansas City in 1986 prior to managing the Omaha Royals in 1987.

Wathan was named Royals manager on August 27, 1987, where he compiled a 287-270 record, including 92-70 in 1989. He worked for the California Angels in 1992 and 1993, serving as interim manager, third base coach and bench coach before becoming Boston's bullpen coach in 1994. "Duke" worked as a broadcasting analyst for The Baseball Network in 1995 and for the Royals Radio Network from 1996-97. His duties have included special assignments in scouting and player development since 1999.

Wathan has been inducted into the Iowa Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame, Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, the West Coast Conference Hall of Honor and the athletic Hall of Fame at St. Augustine High School and the University of San Diego. He resides in Lee's Summit, Mo. with his wife, Nancy. The couple has three children: Dusty, Derek and Dina, and seven grandchildren. Dina works in the Royals' Communications department.

HARRY SPILMAN SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Harry Spilman enters his second year with the Royals as a Special Assistant to Player Development. He had the same role with the Texas Rangers from 2009 to 2014 and was the hitting coach for Milwaukee's Triple-A club in Nashville from 2007 to 2008. Spilman was an instructor in the Astros' system from 1998-2006, including 1999-2004 as the Major League hitting coach. His coaching career began with seven years as minor league manager and roving instructor in the Indians' system. Spilman played for the Reds, Astros, Tigers and Giants over a 12-year Major League career. He resides in Mount Vernon, Ind., with his wife, Kim. They have two children: Kelly and Ryan.

TERRY BRADSHAW HITTING COORDINATOR

Terry Bradshaw is in his fourth season as the minor league hitting coordinator. Following a 10-year playing career, Bradshaw moved to the coaching ranks as the hitting coach for Charleston (2000), Burlington (IA - 2001), Wilmington (2002-03), Omaha (2004-08) and Northwest Arkansas (2009-12). He played for the Royals at Omaha in 1998 before finishing his career with Montreal's Triple-A team at Ottawa in 1999.

Bradshaw was originally drafted in the ninth round by St. Louis in 1990 and spent eight years in the Cardinals organization. He was named to the Florida State League All-Star team in 1993 and Texas League All-Star team in 1994. He made his Major League debut on May 4, 1995 vs. Houston and played in a combined 34 games with St. Louis in 1995 and 1996. Bradshaw resides in Prince George, Va., with his wife, Cynthia, and sons, Montae and Marcus.

LARRY CARTER PITCHING COORDINATOR

Larry Carter begins his second season as minor league pitching coordinator in his 18th season in the organization. The 2014 Dick Howser Award winner, Carter coached at Omaha in 2013 and 2014 as the Storm Chasers won back-to-back Triple-A titles. Carter spent 11 seasons at Double-A in Wichita (2002-07) and at Northwest Arkansas (2008-12). He served as the pitching coach at Wilmington in 2000 and 2001, Charleston in 1999 and Lansing in 1998. Carter was a pitching coach in the Texas-Louisiana League from 1994-97 for the Tyler Wildcatters. Originally selected in the 10th round of 1986 June Free Agent Draft by St. Louis, Carter played in the Cardinals' system for two years before joining the Giants' organization. He was named to the Texas League All-Star team in 1991 and appeared in six games with San Francisco in 1992, posting a 1-5 record and a 4.64 ERA. Carter graduated from West Virginia State College and resides in Corinth, Texas, with his wife, Jennifer, and son, Matthew.

MILT THOMPSON OUTFIELD, BUNTING & BASERUNNING COORDINATOR

Milt Thompson will serve as outfield, bunting and baserunning coordinator in 2016, his fourth year in the organization. He held that role along with hitting coach duties at Wilmington in 2014. He was the Astros minor league outfield and baserunning instructor from 2011-12. Thompson worked seven seasons as the Philadelphia Phillies hitting coach (2005-2010), including the 2008 World Series title season.

During his time as hitting coach, the Phillies led the N.L. in home runs, RBI, extra-base hits and total bases. Thompson worked in the Phillies' system as a coach with Double-A Reading (1998-99) and as the minor league outfield/baserunning coordinator (2001-03).

Thompson played 18 professional seasons, including 11-plus in the Majors. Atlanta's second-round pick in 1979, he hit .313 in the 1993 World Series, setting a Phillies franchise record with five RBI in Game 4. He graduated from Zadok Magruder High (Washington, D.C.) in 1977 and attended Howard University. Milt and his wife Carole, have four daughters: Torri, Jennifer, Courtney and Alyssa.

CHRIS DeLUCIA, ATC, PTS, CES MINOR LEAGUE MEDICAL COORDINATOR

Chris enters his 10th season in the Royals' organization and seventh as minor league medical coordinator after working at the Royals' AA affiliate from 2007-09. DeLucia, who enters his 24th year in professional baseball, spent the 2003-06 seasons as the athletic trainer for Class AAA Oklahoma in the Texas Rangers' organization. Prior to joining Oklahoma, he was the athletic trainer at Tulsa (AA) for two seasons, representing the club in the Texas League All-Star Game in 2002. DeLucia worked in the Yankees' organization from 1991-1998, spending time with their Rookie level and Greensboro (A) affiliates. He was named the South Atlantic League athletic trainer of the Year in 1998. DeLucia also spent two winters as the athletic trainer for the New York Yankees players participating in the Australian winter baseball league. He is a graduate of St. Leo University in St. Leo, Fla., where he received a bachelor's of arts degree in exercise science. DeLucia, who obtained certification with the National Academy of Sports Medicine as a Corrective Exercise Specialist and Performance Exercise Specialist, played soccer for St. Leo and worked in the athletic training room. He resides in Goodyear, Ariz.

TONY MEDINA LATIN AMERICA MEDICAL COORDINATOR

Tony Medina will serve as the Latin America medical coordinator for a fifth straight season after spending eight seasons as an athletic trainer at various levels in the Royals minor league system. Medina served as the athletic trainer for the Dominican Republic in the 2006, 2009 and 2013 World Baseball Classic and was named 2006, 2008 and 2009 Arizona League Trainer of the Year. Prior to his time with the Royals, he worked for six seasons as the minor league athletic trainer for the Atlanta Braves. He received his undergraduate degree in biology with a concentration in athletic training from Emporia (Kan.) State University and earned his master's degree in exercise science from the University of Nebraska at Omaha. He resides in Omaha, Neb.

JUSTIN HAHN REHAB COORDINATOR/PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Justin enters his fourth season in the Royals organization and third as minor league rehab coordinator. He spent 2013 as the physical therapy fellow with the club. Previously he was a PT intern for the Milwaukee Brewers during spring training 2011, and assisted with minor league preseason physicals for the Minnesota Twins during spring training 2012.

Hahn graduated from Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter, Minn., with a B.A. in Chemistry in 2008. He earned his doctorate in physical therapy in 2011 from Mayo Clinic School of Health Sciences in Rochester, Minn. After graduating, Hahn completed the 2011-2012 Sports Physical Therapy Residency at the Institute for Athletic Medicine in Minneapolis and obtained his Sports Certified Specialist credential through the American Physical Therapy Association in March 2013. Following his residency, he completed the 2012-2013 Proaxis Therapy and Kansas City Royals Upper Extremity Sports Physical Therapy/Professional Baseball Fellowship in which he spent the duration of the 2013 season in Surprise, Ariz. Hahn is also a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist. He and his wife, Marette, reside in Peoria, Ariz. with their two dogs, Gus and Koty.

GARRETT SHERRILL STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

Garrett Sherrill enters his fifth season as the organization's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator and 10th year as a strength and conditioning coach in professional baseball. He spent the 2010 and 2011 seasons as a minor league strength and conditioning coach with the San Francisco Giants organization. Sherrill spent the 2007-09 seasons with the Royals as a minor league strength and conditioning coach at various levels. In addition, he has also directed the 2010/2011 MLB Off-Season training program at Athletes Performance in Gulf Breeze, Fla., and worked with various athletes at Velocity Sports in Friendswood, Texas. He received his master's degree in human performance from the University of Houston Clear Lake and bachelor's from Texas State University, while pitching for the Bobcat baseball team. He also played in the Northern Independent Baseball League for the Quebec Capitales and Lincoln Saltdogs in 2000 and 2001. Sherrill currently resides in Phoenix, Ariz., with his wife, Raquel.

BRIAN POLDBERG MANAGER

Brian Poldberg is in his third year with the Storm Chasers, having led the club to Pacific Coast League and Triple-A championships in 2014. He joined Omaha after six years with Northwest Arkansas. Poldberg guided the Naturals to the playoffs each year from 2008 to 2011 and the 2010 Texas League championship. He spent the 2004-07 seasons on the Royals' Major League staff, serving as Bullpen Coach (2004-05), First Base Coach (2006) and Third Base Coach (2007). Prior to that, he spent seven seasons as the minor league catching instructor. Poldberg began his coaching career in 1987 and served as a manager from 1988-96, with the exception of 1991, where he served as Omaha's hitting coach. He played five seasons in the minors with the Yankees and Royals. The organization's Dick Howser Award winner in 1998 and 2010, Poldberg resides in Carter Lake, Iowa, with his wife, Lori, and three sons: Adam, Deric and John.

ANDY HAWKINS PITCHING COACH

Andy Hawkins rejoins the Royals' organization as Omaha's pitching coach in 2016 after serving as the bullpen coach with the Texas Rangers the last seven seasons. Before that, he was the pitching coach at various levels in the Rangers' organization from 2001-04 and 2006-08 (Triple-A). In between, Hawkins served in 2005 as the pitching coach for the High Desert Mavericks (Advanced-A) in the Royals' organization. The fifth overall selection by the Padres in the 1978 June Draft, Hawkins pitched for 10 seasons in the Majors with San Diego (seven seasons), the Yankees and Oakland. In the 1984 postseason, Hawkins earned San Diego's only World Series win to date, Game 2 vs. Detroit. He and his wife, Jodi, have four children: Katy, Libby, Curtis and Maggie.

TOMMY GREGG HITTING COACH

Tommy Gregg returns for his eighth season as the hitting coach at Omaha after working at the Double-A level in 2007 and 2008. He also served as the Royals' minor league outfield coordinator in 2009. Gregg worked for five seasons as the hitting coach for Memphis (Triple-A) in the St. Louis Cardinals' organization before joining KC. Prior to his time with the Cardinals, Gregg worked three seasons in the Atlanta Braves' organization as a coach for Macon and Myrtle Beach. He spent nine seasons in the Majors with Pittsburgh, Atlanta, Cincinnati and Florida, playing on the Braves back-to-back N.L. Championship teams in 1991 and 1992. Gregg led Major League pinch hitters in RBI, home runs and average in 1990 and won two minor league batting titles (1987, Double-A; 1997, Triple-A). The Pirates' seventh-round pick out of Wake Forest in 1985, Gregg is inducted into sports Hall of Fames at Wake Forest, R.J. Reynolds High and in Winston-Salem, N.C. He resides in Newnan, Ga., with his wife, Tonya, and daughters, Jordan and Rachel.

DAVE IANNICCA CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINER

Dave Iannicca is in his sixth season in Omaha and 10th in the Royals' organization. He joined the Royals in 2007 as the trainer at Burlington (Class-A), then worked from 2008-10 at Wilmington (Advanced-A). In 2010, Iannicca earned Carolina League Athletic Trainer of the Year honors and was an athletic trainer in the Arizona Fall League. He spent the 2006 season as athletic trainer for the Atlanta Braves' Gulf Coast League affiliate in Orlando. Iannicca was an intern in the New York Yankees organization from 2003-2004, working with the Triple-A Columbus Clippers and at the Yankees Player Development Complex in Tampa. He has also worked as an athletic trainer at the collegiate level as a graduate assistant at Virginia Wesleyan College. Dave earned his bachelor's of science degree in athletic training from Bowling Green State University in 2003 and his master's of science in education degree from Old Dominion University in 2006. Iannicca resides in Virginia Beach, Va., with his wife, Jacqueline, and son, Ryan.

Omaha Storm Chasers

JOE GREANY STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Joe Greany begins his ninth season with the Royals as a strength and conditioning coach, returning to Omaha, where he worked in 2012. Greany earned the Carolina League Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year in 2014 with Wilmington (Advanced-A) and South Atlantic League honors in 2013 with Lexington (Class-A). In 2011, he earned Texas League Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year honors with Northwest Arkansas (Double-A). Prior to the Royals, Greany was a sports performance coach at Velocity Sports Performance in Mahwah, N.J. He played baseball at Alfred (N.Y.) State College and Martin Methodist College in Pulaski, Tenn., while receiving his Bachelor's degree in physical education. He was inducted into the Alfred State College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2011. VANCE WILSON MANAGER

Vance Wilson, a Natural in 2009 and a resident of Springdale, begins his third season as the Northwest Arkansas manager. He made his managerial debut with Kane County (Class-A) in 2011 prior to managing at Wilmington (Advanced-A) in 2012 and 2013. Wilson managed in the Arizona Fall League in 2014, leading Peoria to the championship game. An All-American at Mesa (Ariz.) Junior College, he was drafted by the New York Mets in 1993. The catcher debuted with the Mets in 1999 and played eight seasons in the Majors with New York and Detroit. He was a member of the 2006 A.L. Champion Tigers. Wilson signed with the Royals in 2009 while recovering from his second "Tommy John" surgery. Wilson and his wife, Bridget, have a daughter, Peyton Blaise.

STEVE LUEBBER PITCHING COACH

Steve Luebber joins the Naturals after serving as pitching coach at Advanced-A Wilmington for the last nine seasons. Now in his 11th season in the Royals' organization, Luebber also spent 2006 with the Burlington (Rookie) affiliate. Prior to joining the Royals, he worked from 2001-05 as a pitching coach for the Rangers' Double-A clubs at Tulsa (2001-02) and Frisco (2003-05). Luebber has also worked as a coach in the Marlins, Orioles and Padres organizations. He pitched professionally for 17 seasons, posting a 6-10 record and a 4.62 ERA over 66 Major League appearances for the Twins, Blue Jays and Orioles. Luebber was one out from recording a no-hitter for the Twins on August 7, 1976 before allowing a single with two strikes to the Rangers' Roy Howell. He attended Missouri Southern College, and now resides in Joplin, Mo., with his wife, Lee Ann. They have two daughters, Lindsey and Carly, and a son, Wyatt.

BRIAN BUCHANAN HITTING COACH

Brian Buchanan enters his first season as hitting coach with the Naturals in 2016 after managing at several levels throughout the Royals system over the last six seasons, including stops at: Wilmington (2015), Lexington (2013-14), Kane County (2012) and Idaho Falls (2010-11). He entered the coaching ranks after a 16-year playing career, which included the 2008-09 seasons at Omaha. Buchanan, an All-American at the University of Virginia, was selected in the first round by the Yankees in 1994. He spent seven seasons in the Major Leagues with Minnesota (2000-02), San Diego (2002-04) and the New York Mets (2005), hitting .258 with 32 home runs. Buchanan played in Japan in 2007 before signing with the Royals. He resides in Jupiter, Fla., with his wife, Jill, and sons, Walker, Drew, Logan and Connor. Jill is the daughter of basketball Hall of Famer John Havlicek.

MASA KOYANAGI CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINER

Masanobu Koyanagi will work his ninth season with the Royals and fifth as the trainer for Northwest Arkansas. Koyanagi served as the trainer for Wilmington in 2011 and for Idaho Falls from 2008 to 2010. Prior to his time with the Royals, Koyanagi served as an athletic trainer within the Milwaukee Brewers' organization (2003-2006). Koyanagi worked for two years as an athletic training intern with Giants (2001) and Tigers (2002) organizations prior to joining Brewers in 2003. Koyanagi was also honored to work as the athletic trainer for WBC Champion Japanese National Team in 2006 and for the Chinese National Team in 2013. Koyanagi is a graduate of Fresno State University where he earned a bachelor's of science in kinesiology. He was born and raised in Fukuoka, Japan, but moved to the US in 1993 and is currently residing in Surprise, Ariz., with his wife, Misato, and two daughters, Maria and Monami.

AUSTIN DRIGGERS STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Austin Driggers enters his third season at Northwest Arkansas after working at Burlington in 2013. He joined the Royals from East Tennessee State University, where he earned his master's degree in sport physiology and performance and served as a sport scientist and strength and conditioning coach for the ETSU baseball team. He also assisted with soccer, track, golf, and tennis, while serving as a research assistant for the Center of Excellence in Sport Science and Coach Education. Driggers' career began as a strength and conditioning intern at the United States Olympic Training Center in Lake Placid, N.Y. He holds a bachelor's degree in applied health science from Wheaton College, where he played baseball and football. Driggers and his wife, Jillian, currently reside in Springdale, Ark.

JAMIE QUIRK MANAGER

Jamie Quirk rejoins the Royals' organization for his 44th season in professional baseball after the former Kansas City catcher managed at three levels in the Padres' organization from 2014-15, including stops at Lake Elsinore (Advanced-A), Antonio (Double-A) and El Paso (Triple-A). Before that, Quirk served as a coach at the Major League level with the Royals (1994-2001), Texas Rangers (2002), Colorado Rockies (2003-08), Houston Astros (2009-11) and Chicago Cubs (2012-13). The Royals' first-round pick in the 1972 Draft, Quirk played 18 years in the Majors Leagues, including three stints with the Royals (1975-76, 1978-82, 1985-88). He was a member of two pennant-winning clubs with Kansas City (1980) and Oakland (1990), and won a World Series with the Royals in 1985. Quirk resides in Kansas City, Mo., with his wife, Anna. They have three kids: Kindal, Kelly and Kemer.

CHARLIE CORBELL PITCHING COACH

Charlie Corbell enters his first season in the Royals' organization after spending the last eight years in the Marlins' organization, where he served as the Minor League Pitching Coordinator in 2015. Prior to that, he was a pitching coach at Triple-A New Orleans (2011-14), Class-A Greensboro (2009-10) and Short-Season A Jamestown (2007-08). Corbell previously spent five years as a pitching coach in the Nationals' organization, including stops at Advanced-A Potomac (2006), Triple-A New Orleans (2005) and Edmonton (2004), Double-A Harrisburg (2003) and Short-Season A Vermont (2002). Drafted in the 21st round by the San Francisco Giants in 1983, Corbell pitched in the minor leagues for seven seasons, including two in the Oakland Athletics' system after being traded for Rob Beck in 1988. Corbell and his wife, Kathy reside in Huntsville, Texas and have one daughter.

ABRAHAM NUNEZ HITTING COACH

Abraham Nunez enters his second season as Wilmington's hitting coach after serving in the same capacity with Lexington (2014), Burlington (2013) and the Dominican Royals (2012). Nunez played for parts of 12 seasons in the Majors with the Pirates (1997-2004), Cardinals (2005), Phillies (2006-07) and Mets (2008), hitting .242 as a utility infielder. His best season came in 2005 when he batted .285 in 139 games for the National League champion St. Louis Cardinals. Nunez retired at the end of the 2009 campaign. Born in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, he now resides in Garfield, N.J.

JAMES STONE CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINER

James Stone enters his fifth season as the trainer at Wilmington. He joined the Kansas City organization in 2010 as the trainer for Burlington (Class-A). Stone came to the Royals after spending one season with the Central Valley Coyotes (Fresno, Calif.) in Arena Football 2. He worked the previous three seasons in the Florida Marlins' organization, with stops in Jamestown (2006), Greensboro (2007) and Jupiter (2008). Stone won New York-Penn League Trainer of the Year honors in 2006. He was the strength and conditioning coach for the Baltimore Orioles' Class A affiliate, the Delmarva Shorebirds, in 2005. Stone graduated with a bachelor's of science in kinesiology from Cal State-Northridge. He resides in Simi Valley, Calif., with his dog, Ozzie.

OMAR RAMIREZ MANAGER

Omar Ramirez is in his second season as the manager at Lexington. He managed Idaho Falls from 2012-2014 and was the Chukars' hitting coach in 2011, the same role he had at Burlington (Rookie) in 2009 and Burlington (Class-A) in 2010. Ramirez, the Indians' 31st-round pick in 1990 out of Hill Junior College in Texas, played outfield for eight seasons in the minors with the Indians and Astros before retiring following the 2001 season. Ramirez resides in his hometown of Santiago, Dominican Republic.

MITCH STETTER PITCHING COACH

Mitch Stetter enters his first year as the pitching coach for Lexington after holding the same position with Surprise (Rookie) in 2015. Before that, Stetter served as a player-coach in 2014. The Indiana State alum was selected by Milwaukee in the 16th round in 2003 and signed by current Royals scout Mike Farrell. Stetter worked as a reliever in the Majors from 2007 to 2011 with Milwaukee and set a Brewers record in 2009, recording 15 consecutive outs on strikeouts. He is a great nephew of Gene Tormohlen, who played for the NBA's St. Louis and Atlanta Hawks. Stetter lives in Norridge, Ill., with his wife Alison and children CC, Dusty and Willa.

DAMON HOLLINS HITTING COACH

Damon Hollins is in his seventh season with the Royals as a hitting coach, his second at Lexington. He began his coaching career in the same capacity at Burlington (Rookie) in 2010, then coached at Kane County (Class-A) in 2011, Wilmington (Advanced-A) in 2012 and Idaho Falls (Rookie) in 2013 and 2014. Hollins, a fourth-round selection by Atlanta in 1992, played in the Majors for the Braves (1998, 2004), Dodgers (1998) and Devil Rays (2005-06). He spent the 2007 season in Japan with the Yomiuri Giants before playing for the Omaha Royals in 2008. Hollins resides in Litchfield Park, Ariz., with his wife, Patrice. They have three children: Tahari, Ameerah and Averil.

GLENN HUBBARD BENCH COACH

Glenn Hubbard is the bench coach at Lexington for a third straight season. Before serving as the Royals' infield coordinator from 2011-14, Hubbard spent 21 seasons coaching in the Atlanta organization, including 12 seasons as the Braves' first base coach under manager Bobby Cox. Prior to joining the Major League staff in 1999, Hubbard coached at Bradenton (1990), Macon (1991-92, 1994 and 1998) and Richmond (1993, 1995-97). A 1975 draft pick of the Braves, Hubbard played in the Majors for Atlanta from 1978-87. He concluded his playing career with Oakland, playing on an A.L. pennant winner in 1988 and the World Series champion team in 1989. The 1983 N.L. All-Star tied a Major League record for second basemen with 12 assists in a game on April 14, 1985. Hubbard, who was born at Hahn AFB in Germany, attended high school in Utah and was inducted into the Utah Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001. He resides in Stone Mountain, Ga., with his wife, Lynn. They have three sons: Jeremy, Matthew and Daniel.

Lexington Legends

MARK KEISER CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINER

Mark Keiser is in his fourth year at Lexington after spending 2012 in Kane County (Class A). He joined the Royals' system in 2011, working for the Burlington Royals (Rookie). Prior to joining the Royals, Keiser was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at East Carolina University in Greenville, N.C., while earning his M.S. in athletic training. While at ECU, he was primarily responsible for the volleyball, cheerleading, and the men's and women's tennis teams. Keiser graduated with a B.S. in athletic training from Ohio University in 2009. He resides in Versailles, Ohio.

WILL GILMORE STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Will Gilmore joins Lexington as the Strength and Conditioning Coach after serving in the same role with Idaho Falls in 2015. He spent the fall of 2014 training baseball, football and volleyball at the University of California Berkeley. From 2012-14, he coached and conducted the strength program for Loyola High School Baseball in Los Angeles. Nine of his players on the 2014 team transferred to NCAA Division I baseball programs, with six receiving scholarships. He also coached and trained the Glendale Community College Baseball team in 2014, which transferred six players to NCAA D1 programs, including four scholarships. Gilmore earned his Bachelor's from Santa Clara University in 2011, where he played first and third base. He also played one season in the Belgian Baseball Federation as a second baseman and catcher. Will resides in Pasadena, Calif.

JUSTIN GEMOLL MANAGER

Justin Gemoll enters his second season as manager for Idaho Falls in 2016, his ninth season in the Royals' organization. He was the bench coach at Wilmington in 2014 after six seasons as a hitting coach. Gemoll joined the Royals' coaching staff after a seven-year minor league career with the club. Kansas City's 14th-round selection in the 2000 Draft, Gemoll was a career .276 hitter, reaching as high as Triple-A Omaha in 2005. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Economics from USC, where he helped the Trojans to the College World Series in 2000. A member of Delta Mu Delta International Honor Society, Gemoll earned his MBA from the University of Phoenix in 2015. Born in South Lake Tahoe, Calif., Gemoll now resides in Surprise, Ariz. with his wife, Jenn, daughter, Samantha, and sons, Gavin and Jaxon.

JEFF SUPPAN PITCHING COACH

Jeff Suppan returns for his second season as pitching coach at Idaho Falls. A Royal from 1998-2002, Suppan was the club's Pitcher of the Year in 2000 and 2001. He won 140 games over 17 seasons, including 16 in both 2004 and 2005 with St. Louis. Suppan earned MVP honors in the 2006 NLCS, tossing 8.0 shutout innings and hitting a home run in the Cardinals' Game 3 win before following with 7.0 strong innings in Game 7 at Shea Stadium. Suppan pitched for Omaha in 2011 and retired from baseball in 2014. He resides in Calabasas, Calif., with his wife Dana and two children.

ANDRE DAVID HITTING COACH

Andre David begins his 18th season in the Royals organization and second as the hitting coach at Idaho Falls. David served as the Royals' Major League hitting coach from May 30, 2005 to May 1, 2006 and as assistant hitting coach from October 24, 2012 to May 30, 2013. He was the minor league hitting coordinator from 2007-09 and the hitting coach at Surprise from 2010-12. David worked as the minor league coordinator from 2001 to 2005 before joining the Major League staff. He joined the organization as a manager with the Gulf Coast Royals from 1998-2000. David, an eighth-round pick by Minnesota in 1980, played 10 seasons in the minor leagues and spent parts of 1984 and 1986 in the Majors with the Twins. David resides in Surprise, Ariz., with his wife, Lisa, and their daughters, Brittany and Tanner.

JUSTIN KEMP CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINER

SCOTT THORMAN MANAGER

Scott Thorman begins his second year as manager at Burlington after serving as bench coach in 2014. A first-round pick by Atlanta in 2000 and Futures Game participant in 2003, Thorman played in the Majors for the Braves from 2006-07 before playing for the Royals at Triple-A Omaha in 2009-10. The first baseman and outfielder competed for Canada in the 2006 World Baseball Classic and the 2008 Beijing Olympics. He resides in Kitchener, Ontario, with his wife, Kelly, and their three children: Robbie, Tommy and Allie.

CARLOS MARTINEZ PITCHING COACH

Carlos Martinez will tutor the pitching staff in Burlington for a fifth straight season. He began his coaching career with the Royals at Salcedo in November, 2001 and coached in the Dominican Republic through 2006 before moving to Surprise for the 2007-08 seasons. Martinez coached at Idaho Falls in 2009 and at Class-A Burlington in 2010 before returning to Surprise in 2011. Martinez, a left-handed pitcher, played four seasons in the Royals' organization from 1997-2000 at Salcedo, Gulf Coast and Spokane, compiling a 13-8 record with a 4.03 ERA. Martinez and his wife, Maria, have a son, Mathews, and a daughter, Natalia. They reside in Surprise, Ariz.

JESUS AZUAJE HITTING COACH

Jesus Azuaje returns for his second season as Burlington's hitting coach. He served as Latin America Field Coordinator for the Dodgers in 2014 and held the same role with Seattle in 2012. Azuaje coached for six years with the Mariners, including two seasons as manager of the Arizona Mariners and the 2009 season as hitting coach at Class-A Clinton. He played for Cardenales de Lara in the Venezuelan Winter League for 13 seasons and has coached the team for the last seven. Azuaje was an Appalachian League All-Star in 1993 with Cleveland and a Double-A All-Star in 1999 with the Brewers. He resides in Buckeye, Ariz., with wife, Glenis, and their two sons, Jesus Alberto and Samuel Alexander.

SABURO HAGIHARA CERTIFIED ATHLETIC TRAINER

Saburo Hagihara is in his fourth year at Burlington after three seasons with the Surprise Royals. Prior to joining the Royals, he worked as an athletic trainer for Ohlone College and two high schools in the California Bay Area. Hagihara earned his bachelor's of science in exercise science from State University of New York at Cortland, and completed his master's of science in kinesiology at San Jose State University. He was born and raised in Tokyo, Japan and now resides in Surprise, Ariz.

JON-MICHAEL ERVIN STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Jon-Michael Ervin enters his second season as the Strength and Conditioning Coach at Burlington. Ervin received his Bachelors degree in Health and Exercise Science from the University of Oklahoma. During his senior year, he worked at Youth Performance Training Facility in Norman, Okla., conducting speed and agility training camps for youth. Before transferring to OU, Ervin played for the Muleriders at Southern Arkansas University. From 2008-2010 he played for Seminole State College, where he reached the Junior College World Series. Ervin currently resides in Shawnee, OK with his fiancé, Rachel.

DARRYL KENNEDY MANAGER

Darryl Kennedy returns to Surprise after leading the Royals to the best record in the Arizona League in 2015, winning both halves and earning a postseason berth. In addition to his two stints as manager of the Surprise Royals (2010-13, 2015-16), Kennedy has managed at Burlington (Rookie), Wilmington (Advanced-A) and Idaho Falls (Rookie) since joining the Royals in 2007. He worked as a manager with Double-A Frisco in the Rangers' organization in 2005 and 2006. Kennedy caught for seven seasons in the minors with the Rangers and Giants from 1991-97. His managing resume includes eight playoff appearances, four league championships and four manager of the year honors. Kennedy was a 37th-round pick by the Rangers in 1991 out of the University of North Florida, where he earned All-America honors. He also attended and played baseball at Manatee (Fla.) Community College. Kennedy resides in Surprise, Ariz., with his wife, Beth. The couple has two sons, Cade and Cort, and a daughter, Ehma.

MARK DAVIS PITCHING COACH

Mark Davis enters his 11th year in the organization, returning to Surprise, where he coached from 2006-10 and 2012-13. Davis was the pitching coach at Idaho Falls in 2014 and was the minor league pitching coordinator in 2011. He coached from 1999-2005 in the Arizona Diamondbacks' organization, including 2003-05 on the Major League staff, the final year and a half as the pitching coach. Davis pitched for 16 seasons in the Majors, including two and a half years with the Royals from 1990-92. He recorded 44 saves in 1989 for the San Diego Padres en route to being named the National League Cy Young Award winner. The 2009 Dick Howser Award winner resides in Scottsdale, Ariz., with his wife, Candy. They have two married daughters, Taylor Steege and Madison Lytle (she and her husband Casey are grads of the University of Kansas). They also have two sons, Logan, an infielder in the Royals' minor league system, and CJ, who plays basketball at Tennessee-Martin, and two grandchildren, Brantley and Brooklyn.

CARLOS REYES REHAB PITCHING COACH

Carlos Reyes is in his ninth season with the Royals after spending last season at Lexington. He previously served both as the minor league rehab coach and as a pitching coach for Surprise. Reyes was a pitching coach in the Yankees' organization from 2005-07. He pitched professionally for 13 seasons, including eight years in the Majors with the Athletics (1994-97), Padres (1998, 1999, 2000), Red Sox (1998), Phillies (2000) and Devil Rays (2003). Reyes compiled a 20-36 record with a 4.66 ERA in 283 Major League appearances. He attended Florida Southern College before being signed by the Braves in 1991. Born in Miami, Fla., Reyes currently resides in Surprise, Ariz., with his wife, Annalee, and their five children: Quinn, Chelsea, Taylor, Cruz and Cutter.

NELSON LIRIANO HITTING COACH

Nelson Liriano returns to Surprise, where he coached in 2015 and 2012. He was the hitting coach at Northwest Arkansas in 2013 and at Burlington in 2014. Liriano served as manager at Burlington from 2009 to 2011. Before that, he managed the Rockies' Dominican Summer League team for the 2000-01 seasons. Liriano played for 11 Major League seasons including part of the 1991 season with the Royals, making his Major League debut in 1987 with Toronto. He also played for Colorado (1993-94, 1998), Pittsburgh (1995-96) and the Dodgers (1997) as well as in Japan and Mexico in 1999. Liriano resides in Puerto Plata, D.R., with his wife, Milvia, and their four children: Cindy, Jesse, Minelly and Minali.

Surprise Royals

WILLIE AIKENS HITTING COACH

Willie Aikens enters his fifth season at Surprise, including 2015 and 2011-13. He coached at Idaho Falls in 2014. Aikens played for the Royals from 1980-1983, batting .282 with 77 home runs and 297 RBI in 511 games. The eight-year Major Leaguer also played for the Angels (1977, 1979) and Blue Jays (1984-85). Aikens was at his best in the postseason for Kansas City, when he hit .400 with four home runs and eight RBI in the 1980 World Series against the Philadelphia Phillies. Aikens and his wife, Sara, reside in Kansas City, Mo. They have three daughters.

JESSE WHITE STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Jesse White enters his first year with the Royals as Strength & Conditioning Coach at Surprise. He previously served as a strength & conditioning intern with the Miami Dolphins in 2014-15, following his graduation from Arizona State University, where he earned a bachelor of science in exercise and wellness. He has also worked as a performance specialist at EXOS (formerly Athlete's Performance) and as a physical therapist technician at Orthopedic Sports Rehab.

MIGUEL BERNARD MANAGER

Miguel Bernard begins his first season as manager of the Royals' Dominican Summer League team, his fourth year with the club overall. Bernard joined the Royals after six years in the Toronto organization, where he served as a scout and as manager for the Blue Jays' Dominican squad (2010-12). Rene Francisco, Kansas City's Vice President/Assistant General Manager of Major League and International Operations, was one of two Braves scouts who first signed Bernard in 1997. The catcher played in the Atlanta organization through 2005, reaching Triple-A. Bernard resides in San Pedro de Macoris, D.R.

GUSTAVO MARTINEZ PITCHING COACH

Gustavo Martinez is in his second season with the Royals as the Pitching Coach in the Dominican Summer League. He came to the Royals after a season in 2012 in the Italian Team Marino Baseball Club, where he served as the pitching coach. Previous to that he served nine years in the White Sox' organization as a pitching coach until 2008. Martinez was signed by the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1990 and retired as a player in 1995, when he joined the Dominican League Dodgers as their pitching coach. Martinez and his concubine, Juana Disla, live in Santiago with their daughter, Tania Yamile.

ONIL JOSEPH HITTING COACH

Onil Joseph enters his first season as hitting coach for the Dominican Royals, his eighth season with the club overall, previously serving as an outfield coach. He played eight seasons in the minor leagues, including the 2007 season in the Royals' organization. The right-handed hitter originally signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Braves in 2000. Joseph stole 146 bases over his career. He and his wife, Noemi, reside in San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic.

RAMON MARTINEZ INFILDT COACH

Ramon Martinez begins his 10th season on the Dominican Royals coaching staff. He served as the manager in 2013 and was the infield coach from 2007-2012. Martinez has also served as a part-time scout in the Dominican Republic, beginning in 2004. Martinez played nine seasons in the minor leagues with the Pirates and Marlins' organizations, and was on the Marlins' Major League roster from 1993-1995. His brother, Jose, pitched for several years, including four appearances for the San Diego Padres in 1994. Martinez resides in Villa Gonzalez, D.R.

2016 KANSAS CITY ROYALS

Dominican Academy

The Kansas City Royals maintain a strong presence in the area of scouting and player development in Latin America, the Caribbean and Asia. The Royals' International Operations is responsible for the scouting and signing of players, in addition to assisting in the development of players, by operating a brand new state-of-the-art complex in Guerra, Santo Domingo, in the Dominican Republic.

Originally established in 1986, the Dominican Royals received a new look in 2012 with the construction of a sports complex in Guerra, 30 minutes east of Santo Domingo, to house the franchise's Dominican Republic Academy. The two-level complex houses 72 players who will participate in the Dominican Summer League each season. On-site dormitories, a full kitchen, a classroom, computer lab, conference and recreation rooms, dining facilities, and management offices help develop the players off the field, while two and a half baseball fields meeting Major League Baseball specifications prepare the players to advance within the organization. The complex is also equipped with sheltered batting cages, weight training and laundry rooms, a clubhouse and expanded bullpens.

MEDIA/ MISCELLANEOUS

Media Relations Staff

MIKE CUMMINGS

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR-MEDIA RELATIONS

Mike Cummings is in his fourth season with the Royals after joining the media relations staff on April 26, 2013. He oversees the day-to-day media relations efforts of the club, producing the daily game notes, press releases and Royals publications. He also assists with player/staff interviews.

Cummings previously served as an Assistant Director of Communications with the University of Kansas athletic department from 2006-13. While at KU, he was the primary baseball contact for seven seasons and spent three years with the Jayhawk football program.

He began his career as an intern in the sports information office at Virginia Tech for the 2005-06 athletic season.

He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in communications from the University of North Dakota in 2004, after working in the media relations office for five years as a student/graduate assistant. A native of Fargo, N.D., Cummings resides in Lenexa, Kan.

DINA BLEVINS

COORDINATOR-MEDIA RELATIONS & ALUMNI

Dina Blevins is in her 12th season with the Royals and 11th as Coordinator-Media Relations & Alumni. She joined the Royals as a marketing intern in 2005, working with gameday activities. She was named to her current position in April of 2006. Blevins is involved with the daily media relations duties, the Royals Alumni and Alumni Fantasy Camp, production of the media guide, and George Brett's media and fan requests.

Blevins graduated from St. Teresa's Academy in Kansas City, Mo., and received a bachelor of science degree in marketing from Pittsburg State University in 2004. While at Pitt State, she was a member of the women's volleyball team for four years and was named an All-American in 2003. She was elected to the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2013.

Blevins, a native of Blue Springs, Mo., currently resides in Lee's Summit, Mo., with her husband, Nate, and daughters, Remi and newborn, Marley. She is the daughter of former Royals' player and manager and current Assistant to Player Development, John Wathan. She has two older brothers, Dusty and Derek. Dusty is a manager in the Philadelphia system and played briefly with the Royals in 2002, while Derek also played professional baseball.

NICK KAPPEL

COORDINATOR-COMMUNICATIONS & BROADCASTING

Nick Kappel is in his first season with the Royals after being named the Coordinator of Communications and Broadcasting on January 5, 2016. In his role, Kappel will assist with game notes, press releases, Royals publications and MLB broadcasting correspondence. He will also assist with the team's coverage on social media.

Kappel was a Communications Intern with the Tampa Bay Rays in 2015, and filled a similar role with the Miami Marlins during the 2014 season. Prior to his time with the Marlins, he served as a press box assistant with the Jupiter Hammerheads in the Florida State League, held an internship with Perfect Game USA and served as a Minor League stringer for Baseball Info Solutions.

He graduated from the University of Iowa in 2012 with a bachelor of arts degree in journalism. He began his collegiate career at Iowa State University and also spent a semester at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Kappel resides in Kansas City, Mo.

ROYALS SOCIAL MEDIA OUTLETS

The Royals are extremely active in all facets of social media. In addition to the official club Facebook page (/Royals) and Instagram account (KCRoyals), fans can also follow the club's official Twitter account (@Royals) for exclusive, entertaining and breaking news about the Royals. Fans can also follow the accounts below for supplemental information on all things Royals:

- ▶ @royalsmedia - Information for media covering the Royals on a daily basis
- ▶ @aroundthecornerKC - Royals blog for news and stats
- ▶ @Swanee54 - Royals VP of Communications and Broadcasting Mike Swanson
- ▶ @LadyDuke12 - Royals' Coordinator of Media Services Dina Blevins

ROYALS TEAM PUBLICATIONS

The Royals produce three publications that provide in-depth coverage of both Major League and minor league players, front office executives and team history. For the fifth consecutive year, the Royals will produce 11 issues of a complimentary "playbill-style" magazine, Royals Baseball Insider. The official 2016 Royals Media Guide and 2016 Royals Yearbook (debuting on June 13) can be purchased at Kauffman Stadium, online at www.royals.com or by calling the ticket office at 1-800-6-ROYALS.

One Royal Way • Kansas City, MO 64129

Contact the Royals' Communications Department for any information and questions (interviews, photos, statistical or credential requests, news releases, etc.). It is our privilege to be of assistance to our local, national and international media.

Credentials honored at Kauffman Stadium include: valid Royals credentials, Baseball Writers Association of America and Major League Baseball working credentials. Pursuant to Major League Baseball policy, all season credentials issued by the Royals will include a laminated picture identification.

Daily credentials will be issued to media members who do not qualify for season credentials. Media who qualify for daily credentials include: freelance writers on a specific assignment for a publication, representatives of weekly and monthly publications working on special coverage, and additional radio and television representatives when the need arises (i.e. live shots, etc.). Stand-alone websites and freelance writers or broadcast media who reach out to the club directly without a specific assignment from a major newsgathering source will not be considered for credentials.

To request daily credentials please visit the MLB credentialing website, credentials.mlb.com. Should you have any questions, contact Dina Blevins, Coordinator-Media Relations & Alumni, at dina.blevins@royals.com or (816) 504-4369. Credential requests must be made at least TWO DAYS IN ADVANCE of the requested date. Late requests will not be honored. For Saturday, Sunday or Monday credentials, please request by noon on Friday. Credential requests will be answered as time permits.

To pick up credentials, please report on game day to Gate C behind homeplate at Kauffman Stadium. Daily or season credentials will be issued only to working members of the media. Credentials must be displayed at all times while at Kauffman Stadium.

Media must enter Kauffman Stadium through Gate C or Gate D.

Parking credentials can be requested and will be filled when available. Parking, when granted, must be mailed or picked up prior to game day. Media will be required to enter through Gates 3 or 4 in order to redeem parking credentials. Media parking will be in the back rows of Lot B. Active BBWAA cards and Royals season credentials also serve as parking passes.

Media Tickets, on a limited basis, are available for sports and news personnel and must be requested at least three days in advance. Late requests will not be honored. Requests for media tickets should only be made for a current homestand or the next homestand and directed to Dina Blevins, Coordinator-Media Relations & Alumni (dina.blevins@royals.com), and may be picked up the day of the game at the Will Call window on the south side of Kauffman Stadium. The window opens 1 1/2 hours prior to the game. The ground level is Level 3 and access to the clubhouses and field is on Level 1.

The Royals Autograph Policy states that credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs, equipment or photos from players AT ALL TIMES. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and could bar future use.

The Writing Press Box is located on Level 6 at Kauffman Stadium. Space is available for members of the working media ON ASSIGNMENT ONLY. Seats in the front row will be assigned to members of the Kansas City BBWAA and other visiting BBWAA members. Other media will be assigned to row two.

The Broadcast Press Box is located on Level 4 at Kauffman Stadium. Radio and television broadcasts will initiate from this level.

Wireless Internet Access is available in the main press box free of charge. Please contact a Royals Communications staffer if you are having trouble connecting. In addition, some high-speed lines are provided.

The Press Room is located behind the writing press box on Level 6 for a pregame meal ($10.00 charge) and refreshments and is open for the media with appropriate credentials approximately two hours prior to the game. Complete NOTES, STATISTICAL INFORMATION and LINEUPS are available approximately three hours prior to the game toward the back of the writing press box and in the hallway of the broadcast press level.

Pregame: The manager, coaches and players are generally accessible before batting practice on the field and in the clubhouse. Players are not available during stretching and batting practice, and pregame interviews should not interfere with the players' specific game preparations. Manager Ned Yost is available to the media before games in the Royals' dugout, usually around 4:30 p.m. prior to 7:15 p.m. games. He may also be available before the clubhouse opens upon special request through the Communications Department. We request that reporters and broadcasters leave the field and dugout area at the conclusion of batting practice and that photographers report to their assigned photo positions.

Manager Postgame: The Royals will conduct a postgame interview with the manager in the interview room on Level One immediately following each Royals home game. This is the only area where the media may interview the manager postgame. There will be no postgame interviews allowed in the manager's office. Postgame interviews with all personnel should be related to the game and not of the feature variety.

Photographers will be assigned to photo bays on the field at either end of each dugout or the bay located in the main press box. Photographers in the dugout field boxes should leave between innings only. Photos are allowed during batting practice, but photographers should remain in foul territory in the area behind the first and third base bags on the dirt warning track. Photographers should assume their assigned positions at the conclusion of batting practice. Wireless Internet is available.

The Royals Clubhouse will be open to the media with clubhouse credentials 3 1/2 hours prior to game time. The clubhouse will be closed for the remainder of pre-game when the Royals are on the field for batting practice. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance and are asked not to loiter. For postgame interviews, the clubhouse will open approximately 10 minutes following the game. The Royals' clubhouse will be closed between games of a doubleheader. There will be occasions when the Royals may request the clubhouse be cleared for team meetings and we ask your cooperation at these times. The players' lounge, training room, coaches' office adjacent to manager's office and conditioning areas are closed to everyone except players, coaches and Royals' officials. The dugout is off limits in accordance with American League rules during the game to everyone except the manager, coaches, players and certain club officials. Still photographers are not permitted in the clubhouse. Television cameras are only permitted to shoot player interviews.

Live Transmissions are permitted by non-rightsholders from Kauffman Stadium prior to and after every game telecast. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or if the game is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out-of-town reports are allowed to give inning or half-inning score updates. Per Major League Baseball regulations, at no time can these correspondents file reports once play has resumed. Any violation of these policies will result in immediate revocation of credentials.

The use of Cellular Phones, including text messaging, tweeting and use of email, is prohibited in both clubhouses. The only time a radio correspondent can use a cellular phone for an interview would be in either dugout after receiving advance permission from the player and/or staff member. Any other telephone interviews must be arranged through the Royals Communications Department.

MLB dress guidelines were created prior to the 2012 season. The media is expected to comply with these policies. Please see the posted policy in the press box on Level 6 at Kauffman Stadium or request a copy through the Royals Communications Department.

FOX Sports Kansas City

FOX Sports Kansas City is entering its ninth season as the exclusive television home of Kansas City Royals baseball. FOX Sports Kansas City will provide fans expansive coverage of the Royals, televising an all regular-season games not selected as part of MLB's national TV packages and an all-time high number of spring training contests in 2016.

Ryan Lefebvre and Steve Physioc will provide the play-by-play call on the telecasts, while former big leaguer Rex Hudler will join the broadcast as an analyst. Every game on FOX Sports Kansas City will be surrounded by a pregame and postgame show, Royals Live, hosted by Joel Goldberg with analysis from Royals' Hall of Fame pitcher Jeff Montgomery. FOX Sports Kansas City will also provide extensive coverage of the Royals on its web site, FOXSportsKansasCity.com.

Television viewership of Royals baseball on FOX Sports Kansas City reached an all-time high in 2015, according to Nielsen Media Research data. The Royals' local-market TV ratings ranked No. 1 in MLB and were the highest for any MLB team on a regional sports network since 2002. Royals telecasts on FOX Sports Kansas City were the highest-rated, most-watched TV programming in Kansas City during baseball season.

FOX Sports Kansas City will air more than 300 live events of local interest in 2016, including Royals baseball, Big 12 Conference events, Missouri Valley Conference and Kansas State basketball and more. The Royals and FOX Sports Kansas City are in the ninth year of a long-term agreement for FSKC to serve as the team's television home.

FOX Sports Regional Networks are the nation's leading provider of local sports. FOX Sports' 22 owned-and-operated regional networks produce over 5,000 live local events each year and serve as the regional TV home to more than half of all MLB, NHL and NBA teams.

Royals Broadcast Team

DENNY MATTHEWS ANNOUNCER

Denny Matthews, the 2007 Ford C. Frick Award winner, was honored during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremonies in Cooperstown on July 29, 2007. He became a member of the Royals' Hall of Fame in August of 2004 and will celebrate his 48th season behind the microphone for the club in 2016. The "Voice of the Royals" has broadcast exclusively for the same team, without interruption, in six different decades.

In January of 2015, Matthews signed a new four-year agreement to stay with the Royals through the 2018 season, which would be his 50th in the Kansas City broadcast booth.

In 2008, Matthews became the fifth broadcaster in Major League history to spend 40 consecutive seasons behind the microphone for one club, joining Vin Scully (Brooklyn/Los Angeles, 66), Jaime Jarrin (Los Angeles, 55), Bob Prince (Pittsburgh, 48) and Jack Buck (St. Louis, 47) as the only announcers to accomplish that feat.

Matthews has seen more Royals games than anyone else during his 47 years with Kansas City. He was chosen from more than 300 applicants for the No. 2 announcer position alongside the late Buddy Blattner prior to the Royals inaugural season in 1969, before taking over the No. 1 job following the 1975 season. He teamed with Fred White on the Royals Radio Network from 1974-98 before Ryan Lefebvre joined him in the booth in 1999 through 2007. Bob Davis, Steve Stewart and Steve Physioc have served as Denny's partners since the beginning of the 2008 season.

The veteran broadcaster has lent his play-by-play skills to the CBS Radio Network during portions of the regular season and during the 1982 and 1985 World Series. He worked with Hall of Famer Ernie Harwell, calling the CBS broadcast of the 1982 ALCS between the Angels and Brewers.

Matthews is active in the Kansas City community and dedicates his time and resources to several area charities, including the SAFE program, a charity that supports families of fallen policemen, firemen and emergency workers, as well as Operation Lifesaver, a railroad crossing safety and awareness program. He is also the author of the two books: the 2004, "Tales from the Royals Dugout", and the 2009 "Hi, Anybody" and co-author of the 1999 book "Play by Play-25 Years of Royals on Radio." He's also a 2005 inductee into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame.

Matthews graduated from Central Catholic High School in Bloomington, Ill., and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in August, 2001. He is a 1966 graduate of Illinois Wesleyan where he lettered in football and baseball for three years and finished eighth in the nation (NAIA) in pass receiving in 1965.

Prior to joining the Royals, Matthews worked for WMBD-TV and radio and KMOX-TV. His brother, Mike, is the radio analyst for Illinois State University basketball.

Matthews, an avid collector of sports publications, enjoys playing golf and hockey. He resides in Leawood, Kan.

STEVE STEWART ANNOUNCER

Royals Radio broadcaster Steve Stewart is in his ninth season with the Royals, his 17th in the Major Leagues and his 25th overall in baseball. Stewart does play-by-play on the Royals radio broadcasts and also hosts the pre- and post-game coverage.

Prior to joining Kansas City, Stewart spent the previous four years with the Cincinnati Reds' broadcast team, from 2004-06 on WLW radio, and in 2007 on TV as a pre-game host and fill-in play-by-play announcer for FOX Sports Ohio.

From 2000-03, he filled in on Baltimore Orioles broadcasts on WBAL, where he was a sports anchor on both WBAL radio and TV. In 2002 he called several St. Louis Cardinals games on KMOX. Stewart previously broadcast in the minor leagues for the Calgary Cannons and Richmond Braves, as well as at the collegiate level calling University of South Carolina baseball.

A St. Louis native, Stewart began his broadcasting career as a student at Southern Methodist University, where he broadcast football and basketball. He has broadcast college basketball games for several schools, including the University of Richmond, as well as South Carolina, Maryland, Cincinnati (football and basketball) and Xavier. He spent seven years in TV news and sports. Stewart has a 17-year old son, John, and resides in Overland Park, Kan.

DON FREE MANAGER-RADIO NETWORK OPERATIONS

Don Free is in his 31st year as the producer/engineer of the Royals radio broadcasts, his 12th season as Manager-Radio Network Operations. Free worked for Stauffer-Morris for 31 years, spending the first 18 years at WIBW-TV in Topeka, before moving to the radio network.

He has also worked for Kansas State Radio Network the past few years, assisting with the first Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium in 2010, the 2012 Cotton Bowl and 2013 Fiesta Bowl.

Free resides in Topeka, Kan., with his wife, Sandy. The couple has two daughters, Kristin and Jennifer, two grandsons, Zane and Jaxson, and two granddaughters, Taylor and Jordan.

RYAN LEFEBVRE ANNOUNCER

Ryan Lefebvre is in his 18th season as a Royals broadcaster and his 22nd season in the Majors. Lefebvre will work 122 regular-season games in the television booth in 2016, joining partner Rex Hudler on FOX Sports Kansas City. He will also broadcast games on the Royals Radio Network when he is not in the television booth.

Before joining the Royals for the 1999 season, he spent four seasons as a broadcaster for the Minnesota Twins. He was hired by Minnesota at the age of 24, one year after graduating from college. He worked both television and radio for the Twins and broadcast University of Minnesota football, hockey and volleyball.

The Los Angeles native graduated from Loyola High School in 1989 and began his broadcasting career as a freshman at the University of Minnesota at KUOM radio. He graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1994 where he was a three-time All-Big Ten selection in baseball and established school records for hits, triples and at-bats. He was selected in the 27th round of the 1993 June Free Agent Draft by the Cleveland Indians.

Lefebvre is the son of former big league player and manager Jim Lefebvre. Actively involved in a number of Kansas City community activities, he is the founder of Gloves For Kids and the Footprints Foundation, which raises money for youth programs in Kansas and Missouri. In 2011, Lefebvre was the recipient of the John J. "Buck" O'Neil MVP Award for his commitment to youth in Kansas City. He was also named the 2006 Boys & Girls Club of Greater Kansas City Role Model of the Year.

This past offseason, Lefebvre was also named the recipient of the Johnson County NAACP Diversity in Sports Award. He was also recognized as one of the Top 25 "Most Influential" people in the state of Kansas in 2014.

Lefebvre and his wife, Sarah, reside in Greenwood, Mo., with their sons: Micah, Evan and Lucas and daughter, Callie.

REX HUDLER ANNOUNCER

Rex Hudler enters his fifth season with the Royals' broadcast team as an analyst on FOX Sports Kansas City. Hudler worked in the same capacity alongside fellow Royals announcer, Steve Physioc, broadcasting the Los Angeles Angels for 11 seasons from 1999-2009.

A veteran with over 31 years of baseball experience, including 21 as a player, Hudler, nicknamed "Wonder Dog" quickly became a fan favorite at all of his Major League stops. Over 1,083 career big league games, Hudler was a .261 career hitter with 56 home runs and 169 RBI.

Born in Tempe, Ariz., and a 1978 graduate of Bullard High School in Fresno, Calif., Hudler was a 1999 inductee into the Fresno Hall of Fame. He excelled in all sports in high school, receiving 25 football scholarship offers before signing a letter of intent to play at Notre Dame. He chose baseball after being selected as the 18th overall pick by the New York Yankees in 1978.

Hudler is an award-winning broadcaster who began his announcing career as a special consultant for "Good Morning America" during the 1997 playoffs and 1998 Super Bowl. He is a four-time winner (2003, '05, '07, '09) of the Television Color Analyst of the Year by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters. Hudler won an Emmy in 2004 for "Angels in the Infield" and has loaned his voice to several baseball video games.

He is an active motivational speaker and he and his wife, Jennifer, founded "Team Up for Down Syndrome." The Hudlers have been awarded several honors for their community service. He and his wife have four children: Alyssa, Cade, William and David.

JOEL GOLDBERG ANNOUNCER

Joel Goldberg enters his ninth season as the host of the "Royals Live" pre-game and postgame shows and serves as a reporter throughout FOX Sports' Kansas City Royals coverage.

Goldberg came to Kansas City and FSKC's Royals broadcast team after three years covering the St. Louis Cardinals, Blues, Rams and other sports for FOX Sports Midwest in St. Louis. He started at FSN Midwest in January, 2005, after more than six years as a reporter and anchor at KTVI, the FOX broadcasting affiliate in St. Louis.

Goldberg won a mid-America Emmy for sports reporting in 2001. He also worked as a reporter for the NBC affiliates in Rhinelander, Wis. and Madison, Wis., from 1994-99.

Goldberg, who was born in Philadelphia before moving to the Chicago area prior to high school, is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. His wife, Susan, is a native of Overland Park, Kan. The couple has a son, Mason, and a daughter, Elliana.

STEVE PHYSIOC ANNOUNCER

Steve Physioc returns for his fifth season with the Royals and will serve both as a voice on the Royals Radio Network and as a play-by-play broadcaster for 40 regular-season games on FOX Sports Kansas City.

He was awarded a Mid-America Emmy in 2013 for his outstanding work on Royals' broadcasts.

Physioc previously worked 14 seasons for the Los Angeles Angels from 1996-2009 as the television play-by-play voice on FOX Sports West and KCOP. In addition to his television duties, Physioc also worked on the Angels' radio broadcasts on AM 830.

A graduate of Kansas State University in 1977, he was the voice of Wildcats football and basketball from 1979-82. During that time, he also served as a sports anchor for WIBW-TV in Topeka, Kan., from 1979-83. His sports anchor career continued at WLWT-TV in Cincinnati from 1983-87 and KTUV-TV in Oakland, Calif., from 1987-89.

Physioc began his Major League play-by-play announcing career in 1983, broadcasting Cincinnati Bengals football and Cincinnati Reds baseball through the 1986 season. He then moved to San Francisco where he worked as a Giants announcer in 1987 and 1988. Physioc moved from the Giants to ESPN in 1989, where he broadcast Major League Baseball, college basketball, baseball and Big Ten football. In 1995, he worked for the San Diego Padres and Pac-10 football for FOX Sports West.

Physioc also broadcast both on television and radio for Fresno State University (1992-95), Stanford University (1992-95), the NBA's Golden State Warriors (1989-91) and the Vancouver Grizzlies in their inaugural season of 1995-96.

During the winter months, Physioc broadcasts college basketball games for FOX Sports and the Big Ten Network. Physioc and his wife, Stacey, are involved in numerous non-profit organizations such as Operation Smile, the Sierra Club, Friends of the Arboretum and the Fred White Scholarship Fund at Kansas State. The couple has a daughter, Ryan, a son, Kevin and two grandchildren.

JEFF MONTGOMERY ANNOUNCER

Royals Hall of Fame pitcher Jeff Montgomery is in his seventh season contributing to Royals broadcasts on FOX Sports Kansas City, serving as a co-host on "Royals Live" pre-game and postgame shows. "Monty" also offers analysis in the broadcast booth during select games on FSKC.

He spent 12 of his 13 big league seasons with the Royals and is the club's all-time saves leader with 304. The three-time All-Star (1992, 1993, 1996) was the Rolands A.L. Reliever of the Year in 1993, finishing tied for the league lead with 45 saves, matching a club record at that time. He also holds the club record for career appearances (686) and ranked ninth on MLB's all-time saves list at the time of his retirement.

Montgomery also serves as the Vice President of Union Broadcasting, Inc. in Kansas City and has also contributed to MLB Network shows and broadcasts over the last two seasons. He and his wife, Tina, have two daughters, Ashleigh and Kathryn and two sons, Connor and Spencer.

JOSE MUNOZ ANNOUNCER

Jose Ramon Munoz will serve as the play-by-play announcer for 40 Royals games broadcast this season in Spanish on KYYS-1250 AM. Munoz previously had been the Spanish-language play-by-play broadcaster for the Royals' Triple-A affiliate, Omaha, for the last 13 seasons.

Munoz is a longtime Spanish broadcaster who helped to launch Nebraska's first-ever Spanish station in 2000, 1420 La Zeta. He also built the first local Spanish FM Radio Station, Radio Lobo 97.7 FM. While working as on-air talent and Music Director, he has received recognition and awards for his contributions to the industry including the NBA's Crystal Award for Community Service and he was elected Media Representative from the Midwest Region for Spanish Media from the United States, Canada and Spain.

In 2007, he moved to NRG Media, where he currently works as Program Director and On-Air Personality on La Nueva 1020 AM in Omaha.

Munoz has 15 years of experience as a radio programmer, on-air talent and sports broadcaster. Along with his time calling Storm Chasers' games, he has also served as a soccer play-by-play announcer for the University of Creighton and the University of Nebraska-Omaha.

He began his career in Fullerton, Calif., serving as a Spanish language broadcaster for the Cal State-Fullerton baseball team while he was a student.

A native of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, Munoz resides in Omaha, Neb., with his wife Yesenia. The couple has three daughters: Ariana, Camila and Jimena.

Spring Training Home

The Royals 48th Spring Training season in club history will be their 14th at the club's facility in Surprise, Ariz.

The Royals and Texas Rangers share a $48 million, 10,500-seat multi-purpose Recreation and Major League Spring Training Campus on land owned by the City of Surprise. In addition, the city is using the facilities for adult and youth recreation programs, community events and programs, special events and meeting facilities.

The stadium complex and baseball practice fields are incorporated into a master-planned municipal center, including administrative offices, recreation/aquatic center, 23,000-square-foot library and 35-40 acre passive park.

In 2015, the Royals complex underwent a $8-million renovation, adding approximately 14,000-square feet to the facility. The project included expanding the clubhouse, coaches' locker room, meeting room, kitchen, training and dining facilities, while giving the club six additional offices on site.

Surprise is approximately 35 minutes northwest of Phoenix, past Sun City West off Highway 60. The complex is located on 125 acres in the vicinity of Bullard Avenue and Greenway Road.

Populous (formerly HOK), an internationally-renowned Kansas City architectural firm devoted to creating exceptional sports facilities, was designated to design the facility.

Groundbreaking took place with Hall of Famers George Brett and Nolan Ryan in attendance on May 21, 2001. The facility was dedicated during a special ceremony and community celebration attended by members of the Royals and Rangers on December 7, 2002. The two teams played the first game at the complex on February 27, 2003, with the Royals coming away with a 6-3 win.

The Royals have won the unofficial Cactus League title three times, including their first season in Arizona in 2003, 2011 and 2013.
